I have been induced Sir to trouble thus early by the consideration that you may possibly pass through this place before long and in consequence of this application, favour us with a personal interview which would be very gratifying to my Father

Your attention to this and an early reply will greatly oblidge your Friend &c

Mary Douglass

MdHS 1974 [1322-1456]