WILSON AN EASY WINNER

Dr. E. J. Clarke, of Washington College Faculty, Polls the Passengers on Ocean City Train and Finds Wilson Gets More Votes Than Taft and Roosevelt Combined.

Last Saturday afternoon week, Dr. Edward J. Clarke, of Washington College, while enroute from Baltimore to Ocean City, where he spent several days, got in with a number of former Washington College men, and the conversation shortly drifted into politics. Some one of the coterie seemed desirous of knowing the political sentiment of the passengers and said—"I would just like to know how the people on this boat stand in regard to their choice for president." Dr. Clarke remarked that it would be difficult to ascertain on the boat, but suggested that he would take a poll of the train. Accordingly, when the train left Clairborne, he went through the cars and found the passengers very willing to be "pumped." The result of his poll showed that Governor Wilson got considerably more than as many votes as Taft and Roosevelt combined, and was as follows:

Wilson	51
Taft	21
Roosevelt	11
Non-committal	5

In the chair car were 11 gentlemen. One was for Taft, 1 for Roosevelt and 9 for Wilson. Dr. Clarke announced the result of the poll through the cars and there was great enthusiosm among the passengers. Dr. Clarke's poll was published in a recent issue of the Sun, and is indicative of the sentiment throughout the country.

WILSON THANKS CLUB

He Tells Hopkins Men Organized Opinion Will be His Strength.

GRATEEUL FOR HELP ACCORDED

Mr. Walter B. Brooks Recalls Days When he and Nominee Were Classmates.

In response to a letter of congraulation to Gov. Woodrow Wilson on his nomination by Mr. L. Wethered Barroll, president of the Johns Hopkins Woodrow Wilson Club, the following letter was received Monday by Mr. Barroll from the nominee:

"SEA GIRT, N. J., July 26, 1912.

"My Dear Mr. Barroll: It was very delightful to receive your message of congratulation. My strength during the campaign will constitute, in no small part, the organized opinion of the country. I have the greatest interest in the clubs which draw men together to promote common objects, and know how to attach its true significance to the support of such bodies of men. I hope that you will convey to the club my sincere expressions of deep obligation to it. Cordially yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

Mr. Walter B. Brooks, who was a classmate of Gov. Woodrow Wilson at Princeton from 1875 to 1879, delights to tell of the Democratic Presidential candidate's good qualities and of the promise he early made of becoming a brilliant man.

"But let me say in the beginning," said Mr. Brooks Monday, "that I am a Republican and will not vote for Wilson, though personally I have the strongest admiration for him. I am heartily for President Taft in this contest and intend to do all I can to secure his election.

"But Wilson is a fine, likable fellow—one of those characters whom you always want to cling to when you know them. Genial? Why, the chap is brimful of humor. He could tell more good stories than any fellow in the university and delighted in it. He also loved a good story and could see a joke as quickly as any man I ever met.

"I invited him to come to Baltimore and stay with me during the convention. He thanked me for the invitation, but thought it would be more dignified for him to remain away.

"Wilson was one of the best debaters in the university. He could almost convince you that you didn't see a thing, even while you were staring right at it. His logic was convincing and his conception keen.

"Now that he has become famous, I like to compare him to Grover Cleveland—that other great Democrat.

"Mr. Cleveland could write the purest and most convincing English I have ever read. It was a pleasure to read after him. But he was a poor speaker. He did not have the faculty of holding his audience.

"Here is where Wilson shines by comparison. Not only can he Endorsed at Home.

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Chestertown Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Chestertown adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

Harry Hodgkin, merchant, Mill St., Chestertown, Md., says: "I had various symptoms of kidney trouble. There were pains through my loins and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage. My supply of Doan's Kidney Pills was obtained at Toulson's Drug Store and this remedy made me feel better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
