To Relieve Party Line Service

The Diamond State Telephone Company has decided to place an exchange at Rock Hall. The exchange will be located at the home of Mrs. Minnie Durding and will have 101 subscribers. It will take in the balance of Rock Hall not now served, Eastern Neck Island, Piney Neck and territory contiguous to Rock Hall and Gratitude. All phones south of St. Paul's Church will work through the Rock Hall exchange, while all north of St. Paul's will work through Chestertown. This will relieve the inconvenient and annoying "party line" service between Rock Hall, Tolchester, Fairlee, and Chestertown and will undoubtedly prove a much more satisfactory service than the present party line service. The work of installing the Rock Hall exchange will begin at once, and the company hopes to have the new service in operation by September 1.

A New Apostles Creed.

In the course of a recent vitriolic speech in which he denounced Theodore Roosevelt, Senator John Sharp Williams, of Minnesota, startled his fellow Senators by reading a parody on the Apostles Creed. Here is the parody:

I believe in Theodore Roosevelt, maker of noise and strife, and in ambition, his only creed (my Lord). He was born of the love of power and suffered under Wm. H. Taft; was crucified and was buried. He descended into Africa. The third year he rose into favor and sitteth on the right hand of his party, whence he shall come to scourge the licked and the dead. I believe in the holy Outlook, the big stick, the Ananias club, the forgiveness of political activities, the resurrection of Presidental ambitions and third term everlasting, amen.

Rock Hall Man Robbed, he Says.—On the charge of purloining a watch valued at $9 and a penknife valued at 25 cents from Henry Amend, of Rock Hall, two colored men, who gave their names and addresses of John Jones, 5 House court, and William Smith, 9 House court, were committed for the action of the Criminal Court of Baltimore on Friday morning by Justice Levinson at the Southern Police Station. The arrest was made by Patrolman Dull after he had seen the two men leaning over Amend in a doorway on Light street, near Barre street. A penknife, which it is alleged, Amend identified as his own, was found on Jones.

The firm is going to take a big bid for poultry shipments from Kent again this fall, and the TRANSCRIPT will help the firm to get it, as it did last fall.

SENATOR Isidor Rayner, in one of his characteristic letters to Gov. Wilson accepting an invitation to stump the country for the Democratic ticket, says in part:

"I hail the day. The hour and the man have met. The men who made the republic had no greater task to perform than the man who is destined not only to rescue it from the grasp of those who are attempting to thwart its progress, but to make it what it should be, a republic in which ultimate power shall rest in the people and in which they shall be the masters and their representatives shall be their servants. With my warmest wishes and regards, believe me, yours truly.

ISIDOR RAYNER."

PEOPLE are compelled to pay 20 cents a quart for lima beans in Chestertown this season. Last summer they could be bought anywhere for 10 cents a quart. This sounds like our truckers and farmers are making piles of money. But wait until our farmers take their profits and go to buy their shoes and clothing in the fall. Both are to be advanced in price. The profit which he made on his beans this summer will go as an additional contribution to the shoe and clothing manufacturer who is protected by the Republican tariff wall. And where does the farmer get his money to put in bank? He don't get it. He may think he does when he gets 20 cents a quart for his butter beans, but when he comes to square his accounts he finds that his profits have gone to the shoe and clothing manufacturer.

LOOK OUT, MOTORBOAT MEN!

Wholesale Violation of Motorboat Laws Causes Imposition of Heavy Fines.

Collector of the Port of Baltimore, William F. Stone, has begun a crusade against the violators of the motorboat laws, and during the week a government inspector has visited many harbors and imposed heavy fines. He may visit Chester harbor any day and find several of our boat owners taking a spin without being provided with the necessary requisites. In order to protect our motorboat men and to post them as to these necessities, the law requires that every boat shall be equipped with the following:

1. One life preserver for every passenger carried, and the operator.
2. A book of the pilot rules.
3. A whistle and bell.
4. Fire extinguisher.

The inspector was in the Susquehanna river last Sunday and imposed fines amounting to $4,000 on violators of the law. He fined Judge Harlan, of Baltimore, at Betterton, and also Mr. Herbert, the latter of whom was fined $100 for having one less lifepreserver than he had passengers on board. Mr. Harry Stavely, one of our well-known farmers, who owns a motorboat was caught out in his boat by the inspector and fined $450 for violations of the law. Mr. Stavely gave the inspector his boat. He says he had all the necessities at home, but just happened to go out without them on the day he was fined. The inspector went to Cambridge during the yacht races and imposed several thousands of dollars fine upon violators, and on Tuesday he went to Annapolis and collected $2,000 in fines. Our boatmen in Chester river, Rock Hall, Betterton and other places are warned to provide their boats with all that the law requires, so that they will not be subjected to a fine. Be quick, the inspector may come at any time.

Public School Notes.

Prof. Milton Melvin retired as county school superintendent on Wednesday, and was succeeded by Prof. J. L. Smyth, whose appointment by the school board had been previously announced by the TRANSCRIPT. We wish Prof. Smyth as successful an administration of the county school affairs as Prof. Melvin has had.

Miss Pauline Copper has been appointed principal of the Chesterville school.

Miss Hannah Bell has been appointed principal of the Pomona school, vice Miss Avis Dodd, who has accepted a more lucrative appointment in Howard county.

Miss Myra Wheat has been appointed teacher of the "Middle School" in Quaker Neck to succeed Miss Groves resigned.

Barn Struck by Lightning and Destroyed.—The large barn on the Ricards farm on Swan Creek, owned by Judge of the Orphans' Court James Bramble, and tenanted by his son, Matthew, was struck by lightning during the storm on Monday evening and destroyed together with 25 tons of fine hay, and numerous farm implements. Mr. Bramble had been to see Mr. Subers and reached home just as the barn was struck. No stock was burned. The barn was insured in the Kent Mutual for $350 and the farm implements were also partially covered.
