Homewood April 7th 1830

My dear Uncle,

It has been so long since I heard from or saw any thing of you, that I feel almost as if I were writing to a stranger and regret very much that you should pass through town so often without our knowing it in time to send in for you — I now write for the purpose of hearing how you all are, and to beg that you will come down to see us, and bring Molly & Eliza, as it would afford Mr Carroll and I great pleasure to have them with us, as long as they were disposed to remain the season is becoming now so pleasant in the country that we already begin to feel the benefit of our city society, and I expect the girls would look down upon them
