The P. O. S. of A. Convention.

The annual State Camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America will assemble in Chestertown next Wednesday morning for a two days convention. The delegates will arrive by boat and train on Tuesday evening and the local order which has made splendid provision for the entertainment of the visiting delegations, will have committees at the boat and trains to meet the delegates and escort them to their homes and hotels. Provision has been made to entertain about 250 delegates, and there will be ample accommodations for all. One member of the local order will entertain 14 guests while 22 will be entertained at the home of one of our ladies. Special features for the two days session have been prepared, and an effort is being made to have our homes and business houses gaily decorated.

On Wednesday morning, Aug. 14th; the Convention will open its sessions in the Assembly Hall of the Chestertown High School. The Hon. Wm. W. Beck, State Senator from Kent county, will give the welcome address, which will be responded to by the State President, George R. McCleary, of Baltimore. Then the State Camp will proceed to the regular business of the day. One of the main features of which will be the nomination of officers.

In the evening at 7.00 o'clock the local camp No. 34 P. O. S. of A. assisted by the neighboring camps and the delegates from the visiting camps will give a grand parade. It is expected that this will be one of the finest parades ever seen upon the streets of Chestertown. The parade is to consist of three divisions, the band of 20 pieces and the pedestrians under the leadership of Mr. Wm. F. Malin.

The horsemen and horsewomen from Chestertown and the adjoining towns of Kent and Queen Annes counties will take part.

Quite a representation is expected from Millington, Kennedyville, Still Pond, Worton, Lynch, Fairlee, Rock Hall, Sudlersville, Centreville, Crumpton and Church Hill, as well as the county sections in between these towns. This division will be under the command of Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and his aids.

The next division will be known as the "Automobile Section" and will consist of from forty to fifty automobiles trimmed with flags and bunting. The automobilists from Kent and the adjoining counties are invited to take part. This division will be in charge of the Chestertown Automobile Club captained by Mr. Philip G. Wilmer.

The parade will start at the High School and after covering the principal streets will end at the school green where the following admirable program will be presented and where every one who desires may be royally entertained:

NEW INDUSTRY FOR KENT.

Probable Establishment of Milk Stations at Worton, Kennedyville and Massey, Which Will Offer Outlet for Kent's Milk Supply.

Mr. Barnitz, representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, a Mr. Hendershot and another gentlemen from Philadelphia, were in Chestertown on Tuesday evening, having come from Worton Station, where they propose to establish a milk shipping station. The Clendaniel creamery at Kennedyville has been purchased, and it is proposed to establish a third station at Massey, so as to cover the entire part of the county. The promoters say they mean business, and they propose to invest $10,000 in a plant at Worton Station that will provide for the receiving of the farmers' milk, its preparation for shipment and a cooling room, where ice will be stored in wholesale lots. The plan of this chain of three stations along the railroad is to offer the farmers the highest market prices for their milk and to ship same to Philadelphia for consumption. The Pennsylvania Company is behind the scheme, it is said, and the promoters state that they can pay more for milk than the farmers can receive elsewhere. The lowest price paid by them is in the month of June, when they give $1.25 per hundred weight, and in September they pay as high as $1.40 per hundred. We understand that the farmers are not compelled to make a hide-bound contract, he can take his milk and sell it or he can dispose of it to the creamery or anywhere else. The plans are being worked out, and we are told that it is a sure thing that these stations will be established at Worton, Kennedyville and Massey in the very near future, and that farmers will be asked to sustain them. Watch and wait for developments.

Money Coming In.

In response to the request made by the TRANSCRIPT for one dollar contributions to Governor Wilson's campaign fund, quite a number of our citizens have contributed $1 during the week and a number of others have signified their intention to do so. We desire to say that this is no factional scheme, nor is it intended to deprive anyone, Democrat or Republican with whatsoever faction he may be allied from contributing to this most worthy cause, nor is our effort simply confined to Chestertown. Any one in Kent county may contribute. Just send us your dollar by mail or bring it to us, and we shall give you full credit for it. When we have gotten what we asked for—$100—we shall forward it directly to Gov. Wilson himself, together with a typewritten copy of the names of all contributors. Now come on, Democrats, whether you are Progressives or Reactionaries, or whether you are a Republican, send us your dollar if you really want to see Wilson elected and the Democrats win a glorious victory. Gov. Wilson and the TRANSCRIPT will guarantee that your money will be spent for only legitimate purposes, and there is absolutely no violation of the Corrupt Practices Act in raising this contribution. Among those who have contributed $1 during the week are:

Judge James Alfred Pearce, Hope H. Barroll, Wilbur W. Hubbard, S. R. Boyer Lusby, Edward Robinson, Linwood A. Sutton, Dr. E. J. Clarke, William H. McKee, R. H. Collins, T. D. Bowers, Thomas G. Wroth, George D. Lofland, Thomas C. Roe, W. Fletcher Melvin, Harry Nicols, T. Beal Crew, CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT, Walter T. Morris, Wm. Bradford Copper, Charles P. Hodgkin, R. R. Wilkins, Eben F. Perkins, Wm. M. Culp, Samuel Hicks, Thomas A. Matthews, Charles W. Kibler, John T. Jester, Edgar P. Beck, Garrett Foxwell, L. Wethered Barroll, J. Biddle Hossinger, John S. Vandegrift, W. Raymond Moody, Wm. S. Collins.

W. C. WALLIS.

William Creighton Wallis, 50 years old, retired grocer, owner of the Wallis apartment house, in Lamont Street Northwest, and part owner in several well-known cafes in Washington, died at 5 o'clock last Saturday evening. He was at home in Potomac Heights, D. C., when stricken. Death was due to paralysis. Mr. Wallis was born in Chestertown, Md., and went to Washington as a young man starting work as a printer, having learned the business in the TRANSCRIPT office under Mr. Casper G. Woodall. Seventeen years ago he started in the grocery business at Twelfth and G. Streets Northwest. Four years ago he retired, and had since confined his activities to looking after large property interests in the city. For twenty years he had been a sufferer from rheumatism. Mr. Wallis is survived by his wife, who was Miss Florence Leigh, of Washington, a brother, Hugh Wallis, and a sister, Mrs. Mary McKee, of 1011 H. Street Northwest.

Does it Mean Night Boat?

Capt Willard Thomson, general manager of the B. C. & A. Railroad Company, which includes the Md. Del. & Va. Railway Company sent Capt. William VanDyke, of the steamer Corsica on a tour of inspection and investigation up the river as far as Crumpton last week, and we understand that Capt. Thomson proposes to make a special trip to Chestertown in the very near future. The movements of these two officials have started several rumors, one of which is that the company contemplates sending one of their boats to Crumpton, which is to be the terminus of the line and that the schedule will be changed from a day to a night schedule. It is known that Capt. VanDyke investigated crop condition and facilities for shipments. Does the recent visit of the captain and the contemplated visit of the general manager of the company mean that we are to have a line of night boats between Crumpton and Baltimore, or is the plan simply one to give the Kent and Queen Annes shippers along the river the advantages of the Baltimore as well as the Philadelphia markets?
