Agreement with Counsel.

I will engage to act as Counsel in the whole of the cases likely to arise under the present controversy upon the following terms - to wit - For the trial of the caveat a fee of one thousand dollars certain, and an additional fee of five hundred dollars contingent upon ultimate success in it: for the trial of any action or actions involving Mr Cator's disputed claim of $117,000 a certain fee of five hundred dollars and such further sum as an additional fee contingent upon success in such action or actions as will with the certain fee of five hundred dollars amount to four per cent upon said claim if wholly defeated or where the success is only partial to four per cent upon such portion of said claim as may be defeated: and for the trial of any action or actions involving the disputed claim on single bills or notes given by the late Charles Carroll of Carrollton or for moneys expended in building the house & upon the Folly farm under the alleged authority and at the cost of said Carroll a certain fee of five hundred dollars and such further sum as an additional fee contingent upon success in such action

MdHS 1974 [1379-1083]