THOUGHTS ARE THINGS.

BY BELLE CAPLES MORRIS.

Thoughts are things, what e'er men say;
They make or mar us, day by day;
In the end they have their way.

Thoughts are things, eventually,
Building for eternity
Men and women we shall be.

Moulded by each secret thought,
Only God knows what is wrought;
How the end attained was sought.

Men may judge the building fair;
But without thy watchful care
Error will find entrance there.

Only God can see thy heart,
But in every line and part,
He shall know thee as thou art.

Harbor then no evil thought,
'Tis with gravest danger fraught;
Thi struth in God's word is taught.
