Amount brought forward $ 47650

24th: A negro woman named Rachel, aged about thirty nine years, and her children, Margaret aged about six years, Bill or William aged about three years, and an infant one month old, appraised at one thousand dollars. — " — " — " — 1000

25th: Polly, a woman, affected with a chronic disease, aged about thirty nine years, appraised at one hundred and fifty dollars. — " — 150

26th: A negro woman, named Thereya, aged about thirty six years, with her children Joseph, aged about six years and Adam, aged about two years, appraised at eight hundred & twenty five dollars. — " — 825

27th: Hannah, a woman, aged thirty years, appraised at six hundred dollars. — " — 600

28th: A mulatto, named Nancy, aged about twenty two years, with her children Thomas, aged about five years, and James, aged about three years, appraised at eleven hundred dollars. — " — " — 1100

29th: A woman, named Juliana, aged about twenty eight years, with her children Bernard, aged seven, and John, aged four years, appraised at eleven hundred dollars. — " 1100

30th: A woman, named Emily, aged about twenty eight years, and her son John, aged about six years, appraised at nine hundred dollars. — " — " — " — 900

31st: A negro woman, named Sarah, aged about twenty three years, appraised at five hundred dollars. — " — " — 500

32nd: Nancy, a woman, aged about twenty two years, with her son Phil, aged about two years, appraised at eleven hundred dollars. — " 1100

33rd: Hager, a girl, aged about nineteen years, appraised at four hundred and fifty dollars. — " 450

Amount carried over — $ 54925

Amount brought forward — $ 54925

34th: Eliza, a negro girl, aged about seventeen years, appraised at five hundred dollars. — " — " 500

35th: Sarah-Ann, a girl aged about seventeen years, appraised at five hundred dollars. — " — " 500

36th: Tempe, a girl, aged about fifteen years, appraised at five hundred dollars. — " — " — " 500

37th: Hannah, a girl, aged about fifteen years, appraised at four hundred & fifty dollars. — " 450

38th: Jane, a girl, aged about fifteen years, appraised at four hundred & fifty dollars. — " — " 450

39th: Julia, a girl, aged about twelve years, appraised at four hundred dollars. — " — " — " 400

40th: Nancy, a girl, aged about eleven years, appraised at four hundred dollars — " — " 400

41st: Camilla, a girl, aged over ten years, appraised at three hundred and sixty dollars — " 360

42nd: Cassandra, a girl aged over ten years, appraised at three hundred and sixty dollars — " 360

And the above named appraisers not being able to agree on the value of the slaves Henry, Saul and Nace, I appointed Alexander Lawson, the sheriff of the said parish, as umpire, who gave the value of the said slaves, as follows, he the said Lawson being first duly sworn

43rd: Nace, a cooper & carpenter, aged about forty two years, appraised at twelve hundred dollars " 1200

44th: Henry, a cooper & carpenter, aged about twenty seven years, appraised at fourteen hundred dollars. — " — " — " 1400

45th: Saul, a field hand, aged about twenty two years, appraised at nine hundred dollars " 900

And thereupon the above named appraisers continued their valuation, as follows:

Amount carried over — $ 62795

MdHS 1974 [1385-1477]