1358

Salubria Gan: 29th 1836.

Many thanks my Dear Molly for the old Gaus sese - The barrels arrived safely at Mansons on Saturday & we got them yesterday - Pidgeon has been regaling upon her favorites chine & black eyed peas & well for her that cholera is not in vogue or she might be called upon for a forfeit. What return shall I ever be able to make you for all your kindness & affection - love the poet says owes its origin to love & surely it is true of friendship. I will send you the patterns with pleasure - if you hear of an opportunity let me know - you will find them very delicate & pretty. We hear from Sidney frequently & her letters are filled with the praises & improvement of her baby she says she is beautiful, good & in fact an accomplished infant. - I would give a great deal to see her with it. I have had

Miss Lee
Petersville
Fred: County
Maryland

May 2nd. Just after writing the above I received your kind letter - I forgot to tell you in mine that we intend to commence the Fall with a Grammar & Arithmetic & drill on Pardee's Geography & Chart the value of the latter cannot be appreciated by us.

MdHS 1974 [1388-1358]