A SUGGESTION.

Now while the agitation concerning trade conditions in Chestertown is very warm, and our people seem to have become interested through the editorial published in the TRANSCRIPT several weeks ago under the heading "What is Wrong?" we desire to make a suggestion, solely in the interest of our merchants and business people generally. We are perfectly willing to let anyone else take the lead in this matter and the TRANSCRIPT promises its heartiest co-operation and will give its space free of charge for the purpose of advertisement and reading matter. Our suggestion is that, say the latter part of October, we have in Chestertown what is known as "HOME COMING WEEK," and have everybody in Chestertown to become interested and to pull together for its success. Other towns and cities have had it, why not Chestertown? The last of October would be a good time because the farmers wheat is seeded, his tomato crop is about done, he has his work in good shape, and the farmer and his family could come to town to see the sights—and—Mr. Merchant you know the rest. Our suggestion is to have a whole week of festivities and divide the responsibility for the success of the week among numerous committees who will be interested in the success to draw the crowds and to create an interest in the town. We suggest a tentative program which will simply give an idea of what can be done if we only try to put life into our town and to help our business interests. Here is a tentative program:

MONDAY.

Afternoon 2 o'clock—Address of welcome to home comers. Response by a number of our boys who left home to make a living elsewhere, setting forth their early recollections of the town, and present conditions. Addresses to be interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections by large chorus and band.

Night at 8 P. M. motorboat parade on the river. Valuable prizes for the best decorated and illuminated launch.

Grand display of fireworks from Chester bridge.

TUESDAY.

Afternoon 2 P. M.—Children's carnival and baby show in charge of a committee of ladies. Prizes offered for prettiest and fattest baby and for attractive carnival features.

Night 8 P. M.—Parade of floats descriptive of the industrial, mercantile and historical life of the town. Prizes awarded for best float in each division.

WEDNESDAY.

Afternoon—Farmers Day—2 P. M., addresses by agricultural experts, on the public square. 4 P. M.—Live stock and farm product parade. Prizes for best pair of draft horses in the county, best dairy cow, best pair mules, best heavy draft 2-year-old yearling colt, etc.

8 P. M.—Grange night. Exercises on public square.

This day would provide for a suitable display of farm products on the public square, arranged attractively under the beautiful shade trees.

THURSDAY.

Morning, parade of the public school children of the county and addresses by prominent educators on the school house lawn.

3 P. M.—Parade of teams. Prizes offered for the best looking single team, best looking double team. Owners to drive single teams, coachmen to drive double teams. Open to Kent and Queen Annes counties.

8 P. M.—Automobile parade of automobilists of Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties. Prizes for best decorated autos.

Grand display of fire works from Chester bridge.

FRIDAY.

Morning—Washington College may be given charge of these exercises.

2 P. M.—Boat races on Chester river. Prizes for various classes.

8 P. M.—Old folks night. Exercises on the square. Reminiscenes of "Ye Olden Times."

SATURDAY.

Get away and clean up day. Appropriate exercises in charge of house keepers and town authorities.

Prizes offered for the best decorated and illuminated store, office and residence.

We simply suggest this tentative program to show what is in our minds. Of course such a week's entertainment will involve labor and responsibility, but if everybody will do a little and all pull together, the arrangements can be distributed among a number of committees which could arrange each day's features, and thus the labor and responsibility will not fall upon a few.

Now primarily the merchants and business interests are to be benefited by this thing, but another motive we have in view is to bring everybody closer together in business relations; to break up this "pulling and hauling" among ourselves, and to see if something cannot be done to improve conditions generally. If this suggestion has any merit in it, let somebody take the lead in its arrangement. Let the merchants call a public meeting of the men and women who are interested in the town's welfare and who will help to make "Home Coming Week" a success in every way. If it is desired to have the TRANSCRIPT take the lead we shall do so gladly. If any one else will lead we shall follow and do our best to make the thing go. It can be made one of the greatest and most beneficial events in the history of old Chestertown, if all will help. Let's have some quick action.

☞We are advised by Miss Susan Williams, of the Hermitage, Queen Annes county, to say that she lost no cows by poison, such as was reported recently—only three heifers under four months old, and one boar. A fine bull died two weeks previously, but that was accounted for by sunstroke at the time. Now all would seem to point to poison. The case is being investigated.

Is Your Purse Full?

YOUR farm is the purse from which you take the necessities and luxuries of life. What provision are you making to keep your purse full—to insure a constant supply of food, clothing, heat, light, and protection?

No soil can produce constant yearly crops without an adequate supply of plant food. It is easier, and far cheaper, to maintain a fertile condition of the soil than it is to build it up after it is once exhausted. Be wise—begin now to use faithfully an Comforting Words.

Many a Chestertown Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of TRANSCRIPT readers.

Mrs. Frank Robinson, N. Calvert St., Chestertown, Md., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills certainly live up to the claims made for them. They benefitted after doctor's medicine and all else had failed. I was often dizzy and nervous and my back and head ached. The kidney secretions also annoyed me. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I immediately procured a supply and they did their work well, giving me prompt and satisfactory relief. I am now strong and well."
