My dear Sir,

By a letter, received yesterday from Mr. Ringgold, I learnt that Mr. Lee was about to visit your City.

This morning I resigned my seat in the Senate of Maryland; and Mr. Lee was unanimously chosen in my place. The official letter from the President of the Senate has been directed to Mr. Lee, at Needwood; and a private one has been sent to him at Baltimore. Perhaps he will have returned before this arrives: if so, he will hear of his election at Baltimore.

But supposing that he is still
