CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M.. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

The cornerstone of a handsome $20,000 Methodist Protestant Church in Cambridge was laid on Sunday. This is the third costly church to be built in that town in the past three years.

A $1,650,000 syndicate has been organized in Pittsburg to consolidate the religious publications of the country. The Methodist Protestant may be included in the number.

The last twilight service in Christ M. P. Church for the summer will be held to-morrow evening. Regular evening services will begin with next Sunday.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., pastor. Services will be held on Sunday and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. Subject: "A Word to the Pessimist." Twilight service at 6.30 P. M., subject: "The Twilight Peace." Sabbath school 2.30 P. M. Mid week service Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James and Lynch's M. P. Churches, will fill the pulpit in First M. P. Church, Newark, N. J., to-morrow. Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, of Kennedyville, will fill Mr. Morris' pulpits at St. James and Lynch.

The Rev. H. W. Robinson, of Shrewsbury, has been enjoying a visit from his brother, Mr. R. H. Robinson, who is manager of the Canada Life Assurance Co., at Hamilton, Ontario. Pressure of business made the visit all too short, for the brothers had not met for over twenty years.

The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton held its summer meeting at Shrewsbury on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 20th and 21st. Fine weather and the well-known hospitality of the old parish helped to increase the attendance which was very good throughout the whole session. The first service was held on Tuesday night, when the dean, Rev. W. A. Coale, preached. On Wednesday the Holy Communion was celebrated and the Rev. Dr. Sharpe delivered the sermon. After service a bountiful lunch was served under the old oaks on the church lawn and enjoyed by all present. A short service was held in the afternoon and the Rev. S. S. Hepburn delivered an address on missions laying special stress in the obligations of giving liberally to Diocesan Missions.

There will be no service at Wesley Chapel to-morrow (Sunday) except Sunday school at 9 A. M., as the pastor is away on his vacation.

Grange Notes.

Fairlee Grange No. 249, realizing most deeply the great loss it has sustained in the death of its worthy chaplain, Bro. Washington G. Skirven, desires to place upon record this tribute of its appreciation of his good work in the grange.

As a granger, he was ever prompt and faithful in his attendance, when his health would permit. As a neighbor, he was kind and faithful to minister to those in trouble and sorrow.

As a friend, he was kind, sincere and true and ever maintained a well-balanced christian character.

The passing from us of such a useful life is an irreparable loss to Fairlee Grange.

Therefore, it is resolved, that we extend to our sadly bereaved sister, his devoted wife, our most heart-felt and fraternal sympathy and request a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow and the county papers and that a page of the minute book be set apart in which to inscribe this memorial of our love and esteem

SARAH C. COREY,
L. M. C. SMYTH.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

HUDSON—THOMAS.

Mr. Tilghman Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Hudson, of Worton, and Miss Mollie Thomas, of Baltimore, were quietly married in Wilmington, Del., on Wednesday by Rev. W. F. Cockran. Mr. Hudson was to have been married in that city by his pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris, but the latter missed the train, getting as far as Catt's corner in time to see the train pull out of Worton Station, and incidentally the parson missed his fee. Bro. Morris, however, telegraphed to Wilmington and made arrangements for the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson returned to Kent on Wednesday evening. They will reside in Fairlee for the balance of this year.

Our Advertisers.

A queer month to sell overcoats, we think, but the best time of the year as long as they are sold at such prices as Bordley & Sons are offering. They were fortunate enough to get Mr. Hoffecker's line at bankrupt sale and can sell at nearly ½ price. Read their add in this issue.

The big annual mid-summer clearance sale of everything in Vansant & Newsome's store begins to-day and continues until Sept. 7. Read their prices on what they have to offer and go get some of the many bargains.

GOOD school shoes at C. C. Jones' shoe store. Get the children equipped before school starts.

Read W. R. Newnam's special advertisement on page 5 of this issue. He is offering a number of pianos of fine make at bargain prices. This offer is good for only a short time. Take advantage of it while it lasts.

Let Mr. C. N. Robinson, the tailor, freshen up your suit or dress. He knows exactly how to do it and can give you a splendid job. Cleaning and pressing a specialty.

Mr. C. Kent Lambert's plumbing shop is ready for your inspection. He is thoroughly equipped to do all kinds of sanitary plumbing and will cheerfully furnish you estimates.

IN MEMORIAM.

COLISON.—On August 13, 1912, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James A. Pearman, 2117 E. Lombard street, Baltimore, Md., Martha H., age 83 years, 8 months, widow of Wm. H. Colison.

The golden gates were open wide;
A gentle voice said "come,"
And angels from the other side
Welcomed our mother home.

Though to-day we are filled with mourning,
Mercy is still on the throne;
With thy smiles of love returning,
We can sing, "Thy Will be Done."

—BY HER DAUGHTERS.

Interment was at Wesley Chapel, Kent county, Md., Friday, August 16, 1912.
