Dear Sir

The official letter of the President of the Senate announcing your election as a member of the body will be directed to Woodwood near Middletown as I am anxious that you should come on immediately I write to you and direct to Balto as our mutual friend Mr. Worton informs me that you are there ~~you~~ of course you are unanimously elected on the journal it gives me pleasure to say that you were informally unanimously elected but a few minutes before very sincerely

yr obedt servt
