RACES AT TOLCHESTER.

The two days' race program at Tolchester on Tuesday and Wednesday drew one of the best entry lists ever gotten together at Tolchester, and some of the best horses on the Maryland and Virginia circuit, together with a number of the best trotters and pacers in Kent and Queen Annes counties made some of the best racing seen at the course in years. The fields were large in almost every race, and while in most instances the events were won in straight heats, each heat was hotly contested. The county trot on Tuesday and the county pace on Wednesday were the features for local horsemen for the two days. John B., that grand stallion owned by Capt. Wm. C. A. Thompson, of Chestertown, and driven in masterly style by Mr. George Sutton, who proved himself to be one of the best drivers at the track, captured the county trot in straight heats, the fastest mile being 2.26½. John Moffett's fine mare, Nellie Moko, took second money. Mr. Robt. J. McWhorter's trotter, Mose, showed up well despite his short training. The county pace was won in straight heats by W. B. Biggs' Princess March, although Capt. Thompson's sweet little pacer, Lady Thompson, gave her a game race for the money, finishing noses apart in the first heat, and at the leader's saddle in the other two heats. Mr. J. E. Ferguson's colt, Susie F., was going a strong mile in the first heat, and would have finished third or better had it not been for the losing of a sulky tire. She showed the strain of the drive in the succeeding heats, and was not forced. All the other horses showed up well, and these races as did all the others proved most interesting. Good crowds attended each day, and the management deserves great credit for the splendid order on the grounds and for the arrangement of a most interesting program. The summary of each day's racing is as follows:

Kennedyville Items.

A company of the Pennsylvania Railroad carpenters are placing in their road near Kennedyville, a substantial bridge of best material. The workmen are mostly from Harrington, Del.

The oiling of the state road recently, between Goose Hill and our village, has put a check upon the touring cars traveling over this route. Only one-half of the road has yet been oiled, when the oiling machine pulled out, and has gone to another part of the country to make sure of another "job."

Some of our industrious farmers report a big failure in the tomato crop, caused by a blight in the vines, or leaves thereof, which spreads very rapidly, and seems to be pretty general. This causes quite a heavy loss, both upon the part of growers and canners.

The hog cholera scare has caused many in the community to take great precautions to prevent the disease entering their premises.

Master Bonwell Dukes, who for the summer months has filled a position at Chester, Pa., is now at the home, preparatory to his returning to school at Denton.

Miss Eva Busick, of Baltimore, was the guest of Miss VanDyke the first of the week and over Sunday.

Mrs. Virgie Fooks and three children, of Newark, New Jersey; Mrs. Raymond Jobson and son, from North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Copenhaven and two children, from Dayton, Ohio, are among the visitors recently to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux report a most delightful visit among the splendid people of St. James Charge, from Saturday afternoon until Sunday evening, spending Saturday night in the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, dining Sunday, noon at a bountifully spread table in the delightful home of Mr. Robert Nicholson, and two interesting daughters, and taking supper with, and enjoying the great kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester, and the latter's father, Mr. Smith Burris, of Lynch station. Mr. Mullineaux testifies that he is not surprised that the pastors like to stay on St. James' charge with such a delightful people to serve.

The services for Kennedyville M. P. Church for Sunday, next, Sept. 1st, will be—Sunday school, 9.30 A. M.; sermon at 10.30 by the pastor, topic, "God's Mallets and Chissels." Song service and brief sermon in the evening, 7.30. All most kindly invited.

The pastor urges a full attendance at the Second Quarterly Conference, to meet in the church Monday morning, Sept. 2, at 9 o'clock.
