THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. ELIZA J. COLMARY.

Mrs. Eliza Jane Colmary, 88 years old, widow of Capt. A. L. Colmary, former owner of the Sassafras River Steamboat Company and one of the pioneer steamboat men of Baltimore, died Saturday afternoon at her home, Earl Court apartments, St. Paul and Preston streets, Baltimore, from the infirmities of age. She returned home last Tuesday from Blue Ridge Summit, where she had been spending the last two months under the treatment of Dr. Henry B. Thomas. A native of Middlesex county, Virginia, Mrs. Colmary, before marriage was Miss Eliza Jane Cundiff, daughter of the late William Cundiff, a well-known landowner of that section. When 16 years old she married Capt. Colmary, who was a native of Cecil county, Maryland. Captain Colmary, died 22 years ago. The greater portion of their 50 years of married life was spent in Baltimore. Mrs. Colmary is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Henry Clark, wife of the president of the National Howard Bank; Mrs. Lillie J. Davis, widow of John C. Davis, who was a banker of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Harvey Coale, wife of the vice-president of the Crown Cork and Seal Company, and one son, Mr. A. H. Colmary, head of A. H. Colmary & Co., shoe manufacturers, all of Baltimore. Mrs. Colmary for many years had been a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and Rev. Dr. Charles L. Mead, pastor of that church, had charge of the funeral services, which were held Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in Greenmount Cemetery. The honorary pall-bearers were Messrs. Franklin J. Morton, Capt. William C. Eliason, Jacob Bates, G. Fremont Clark and George A. Lee.

MR. JULIAN DUYER.

Mr. Julian Duyer, son of the late Edward and Ada Duyer, died on Monday at the home of his aunt, Miss Minnie Hudson on Mill street, of tuberculosis, aged 18 years. Julian was a young man of the most exemplary character. For sometime he was secretary to Mr. Wm. W. Beck, and he performed his duties with an eye simple to the welfare of his employer, and made friends with everyone with whom he came in contact. He struggled manfully to conquer the dreadful disease which had fastened its hold upon him, and his aunt and uncle, Mr. John Hudson did everything in their power for his recovery and comfort. He finally became reconciled to his condition, and with that resignation which marks the life of a christian such as Julian was, he awaited his summons to join his father and mother. Julian never missed a Sunday from Sunday school when he was well. He was faithful to his church and to his duties, and his short life is a beautiful example to all his friends. Funeral services were held from the home of his aunt on Mill street at 3.30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham. Interment was male in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall bearers were: Herbert Usilton, Harry Hadaway, Preston Ivens, Lewin Howard, Herman Blackway and Colin Duyer.

MRS. SARAH W. HUBBARD.

After little over a week's illness Mrs. Sarah Wiley Hubbard, wife of Mr. William L. Hubbard, the president of the Hubbard Fertilizer Works, died at her home at 846 West North avenue, at 11.30 o'clock yesterday morning. Death was due to a complication of diseases and came as a surprise and shock to her many friends and her relatives in the city. Mrs. Hubbard, who was 67 years old, was born in Delaware, but spent the greater portion of her life in Baltimore. She made her life a useful one and took more interest in the work of charitable and church organizrtions than in society. For many years she was a prominent member of Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. Besides her husband, Mrs. Hubbard is survived by four children, Messrs. Howard Hubbard, president of the Maryland Transportation Company; William L. Hubbard, Jr., of the Hubbard Fertilizer Works; Mrs. Walter B. Summers and Mrs. Joseph S. Garrison, of Chillicothe, Ohio. Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, vice-president of the Hubbard Fertillizer Works, is a nephew of Mrs. Hubbard. Funeral services will be conducted at the North avenue home at five o'clock this evening. To-morrow morning the body will be taken to Easton, the former home of the Hubbard family, and burial will take place in the family lot at the Easton Cemetery.—Wednesday's Balto. Sun.

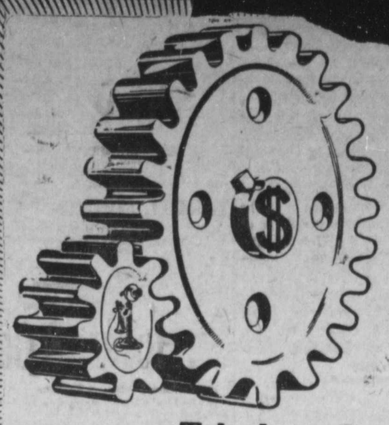

CARNETT—GEMMILL.

As announced exclusively by the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday, Miss Alice Gemmill, formerly of this county, but now of Philadelphia, and Dr. John Berton Carnett, a well-known surgeon of Philadelphia, were married in I. U. Church, near Worton last Saturday at noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Hepburn, the rector in the presence of the families and a few close friends. After the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Carnett and the bridal party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks on Washington avenue, where they were entertained at luncheon. They took the afternoon train for a wedding tour and their future home.

STEPHEN FORD POTTS.

Stephen Ford Potts died Monday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Potts, Queen Annes, aged seven years. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning, interment at Crumpton. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd in charge.

Mr. John T. Jester has rented the residence on Queen street now occupied by Mr. Charles W. Kibler and family for next year. Mr. Kibler and family will discontinue housekeeping and board with Mr. Jester and his family.

Telephone Service—
The Power Behind the Dollar

Throw your business into "high." Gear up by Bell Telephone. Telephone-usage and profit-dollars are so related—"tooth and gear"—that to idle along on the "loose pulley" with inadequate telephone equipment, or with none at all, is like having no rating and expecting large credit. Royal Worcester and Bon Ton

CORSETS

The BON TON is the "Corset du Luxe" for well-groomed women—the recognized standard of Corset perfection. The prettiet woman lacks charm unless she has the wit to be well-groomed—that is neatly, becomingly dressed—and above all, trim of figure.

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS emphasize a naturally good form and create attractive curves where none existed. A superb figure is within every woman's power if she will but wear the Royal Worcester Corsets. Scores of the most exquisite and fashionable new designs now on display at CARMINE'S.
