DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:
WOODROW WILSON,
of New Jersey.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
THOMAS R. MARSALL, of Indiana.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN THE SIXTY-FIRST CONGRESS FROM THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:
JAMES HARRY COVINGTON, of Talbot County.

FOR CHIEF JUDGE OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT:
ALBERT CONSTABLE, of Cecil County.

Democratic Meeting.

The Wilson, Marshall, Covington and Constable Club of Kent county will meet at Firemen's Hall, in Chestertown, Maryland,

Wednesday, September 11th, 1912,
at 7.30 P. M.

Important business. Interesting meeting expected. Full attendance desired. Everybody welcome.

WM. F. RUSSELL, President.
HERBERT E. PERKINS, Sec'y. a31-2t

LOOK out, Teddy, Gov. Wilson is after you, and the Hobgoblins will get you if you don't watch out.

MADAME VERMONT has told Gov. Wilson's fortune. It says that about next March he will move into a large, white house. The Republican majority in Vermount on Tuesday was only 5,909, the smallest for years. The Democrats polled more than 20,000 out of a total of 65,033, while the Bull Moose candidates polled 15,860. It looks more like Wilson for President than ever.

WILLIAM H. ANDERSON, head of the Anti-Saloon League in Maryland, in an interview in the Sun on Thursday in reply to a question as to whether he would vote the Democratic ticket this fall, said: "Other things being equal I am a Democrat." The TRANSCRIPT would like Mr. Anderson to state when "other things are equal," and then we shall know whether he is more of a Democrat than he is Republican.

MR. JAMES M. WOOD, of the Fifth District, who was named as a member of the Advisory Committee by the State Central Committee in Baltimore last week will be unable to serve, and Mr. William T. Nicholson, whose name was submitted on the original list of five names has been selected by the State Central Committee as the substitute. Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Barroll attended the meeting of the committee in Baltimore yesterday when a chairman and other officers were selected.

THE public knows now how John D. Urie won the Republican primaries. He admitted in his letter last Saturday in his organ, the Kent News, that he "influenced" the colored voters. Did not Mr. Urie also virtually admit that he violated the Corrupt Practices Act? He admitted holding the colored voters in line by lending them Rev. Thos. B. Gardner' money at fabulous charges. Isn't it about time that somebody were taking an interest in the colored people when they are subjected to such treatment?

A MAN who would charge an ignorant colored man $56.62 for the use of a preacher's $200 for a little more than six months, pay the preacher $6 of that charge and would have pocketed the balance less costs had he not been prevented by the granting of an injunction by the court, has no moral right to call the editors of the TRANSCRIPT liars, assassins and murderers, and to attack a Democratic Board of County Commissioners, a Democratic School Board and a Democratic superintendent of schools through the columns of a paper that professes to be Democratic, simply because he was prevented from getting his clutches upon any more of the tax-payers' money when it is not needed.

IF URIE is unable to run the schools of this county on the same appropriation of $35,000 that the Democrats ran them for seven years and had a big balance at the close of each of these seven years, he should get out of the school board and let those run the schools who have demonstrated for seven years that they can be run on such an appropriation. It is a most serious reflection upon the Republican party, or at least that part of it allied with Urie, that as soon as he gets control of the school board he manifests the same spirit of extravagance that characterised his control of the Board of County Commissioners from 1895 to 1903. Let the tax-payers, both in and out of the Republican party, heed the lessons which the TRANSCRIPT has been endeavoring to teach, even though we have suffered abuse and slander in our efforts to warn the people.

ROOSEVELT DELEGATES.

The following delegates from Kent attended the "Bull Mocse" Congressional Convention which met in Easton on Thursday to nominate a Roosevelt candidate for Congress in opposition to Congressman J. Harry Covington, the Democratic candidate: Messrs. C. C. Brown, Lewis P. Atwell, Cornelius G. Hadaway, William G. Smyth, T. Barclay Kilbourn, T. H. M. Bramble and A. Parks Rasin. The name of Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., leader of the Rossevelt forces in Kent was prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination, but we understand that Mr. Townshend did not want the honor.

...Baltimore the other ...at the meeting of the State Central Committee as he should have been, he might have said in speaking of the organization of those Woodrow Wilson Clubs that his faction undertook to log that just as they do everything else. They advertised their call for the meeting in the Kent News, and never said beans to the TRANSCRIPT about calling a meeting. That's the kind of harmony "they have been trying to have over here in Kent, but the other fellows won't have harmony." Mr. Dodd might have told the State Central Committee while he was making his little speech, that not a single member of that Woodrow Wilson Club has contributed one penny to the campaign fund which the TRANSCRIPT has raised for Governor Wilson, simply because the Transcript was the first to suggest the idea of raising such a fund. That is another evidence of the kind of harmony "they have been trying to have over in Kent, but the other fellows won't have harmony." Mr. Dodd's idea of harmony reminds us of the attitude his faction assumed at the National Convention in Baltimore for the nomination of Champ Clark, and its subsequent effort to get into the Wilson band wagon by rushing home and organizing a Woodrow Wilson Club. And we imaging that Mr. Dodd's selection of Mr. Wickes as a member of the Advisory Committee for Kent will not be conducive to very great harmony in the Fifth and Third Districts.

FIVE years ago when Gov. Crothers was nominated for Governor in Baltimore, the Anti-Organization or progressive wing of the party had two members of the Kent county delegation to the State convention—Messrs. George E. Noland and Elmer E. Leary. Mr. Noland arose in the meeting and asked for a minority representative on the State Central Committee, claiming that the Antis had two members of the delegation and were therefore entitled to minority representation on the State Central Committee. Mr. Lewin W. Wickes, who had been selected by the Organization as one member of that committee, said in his characteristic manner if such a thing as that were done, he would forthwith resign from the committee. The Organization forces, notwithstanding a Governor and other State officials were to be elected as well as a county ticket, got the entire committee and the Antis got absolutely no recognition from the State leaders. That was their idea of harmony then. We happen to be in a position to be morally certain that the State Central Committee in Baltimore last week intended to hand out another raw deal to the Antis, for we are in a position to know that one of the leaders is reported to have been favorable to the rejection of the Anti list of names and wanted to select all three names from a list which he had in his possession. We were perfectly justified in making the fight we did for what are the rights of the controlling faction in this county. The State leaders have ignored the dominent faction in Kent county long enough and that faction means to assert its rights. If it cannot get it without a struggle, count on the struggle. Kent county's State Central Committee demands the same rights and privileges that are accorded to the State Central Committee of other counties. If other county committees were given the unmolested privilege to name whom they pleased on the advisory committee, why should Mr, Talbott, or Mr. Anybody else want to interfere with Kent's rights? If Mr. Wickes could have his way five years ago, why could not our State Central Committee's request be granted? The people of Kent county ask only fair treatment, and they mean to have it, even if they have to fight for it. If Mr. Wickes serves as a member of the advisory committee, he will have to sit with two Antis now. Will he sit? You just bet.

LET THE PEOPLE JUDGE.

Chestertown, Md., August 26, 1912.

JOHN D. URIE, ESQ.,

Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to say that in the more than twenty years in which you have been my representative in Kent county, and during which time you have managed my property and funds here, I am sure that I have received every dollar of the funds invested by you for me with legal interest, or if still outstanding that interest is being collected and paid over to me on same.

I have always found you entirely correct in all our dealings and you have full authority to make such invetments as you deem proper.

Very truly yours,
T. B. GARDNER.

Since reading the above letter we have been convinced that the people who read Mr. Gardner's letter fully understand now the kind of business that Urie has been conducting among the colored people, and a number of unfortunate white people. Mr. Gardner admits that he has been receiving only legal interest from the investments of money in his name in these judgments which Urie has been securing, and this admission carries with it the fact that Urie has been getting the balance of the charges less the costs in each case. For instance, in the case of the colored man, Jones, of Morgnec, who was loaned $200 for a little more than six months by Urie in Mr. Gardner's name, the charges and costs amounted to $56.62. Mr. Gardner admits that he got legal interest on this loan, which was a little more than $6. Urie then would have gotten $50.62 less the costs had he not been restrained from doing so by the granting of an injunction by the court. Now if Urie's fee and commission in the loan of $200 of Mr. Gardner's money to Jones for a little more than six months amounted to $50.62, what do you suppose he got out of the other 45 judgments which we published on August 24th showing in each case that he had loaned the money in Mr. Gardner's name? Mr. Gardner failed to state in reply to our question on August 24, whether this money which Urie is using in his name is his individual money, or whether it is the fund which Urie holds in trust for Mr. Gardner. If it is Mr. Gardner's individual money and he thinks that ...is proper, so ...his legal rate of interest, that is a matter which Mr. Gardner must settle with his conscience. If it is the trust fund which Urie is investing in judgments in the name of Rev. Thomas B. Gardner, we call upon Urie to produce the orders of the court giving him permission to invest this trust fund in these judgments, or if Urie refuses our request, we ask the court to investigate the investment of this trust fund held by Urie in Mr. Gardner's name. Mr. Gardner's letter has opened the eyes of the people to the kind of business Urie has been doing, but Mr. Gardner owes it to himself to state whether this money is his own, or whether it is the trust fund which Urie holds in his name.

Record of Senator John Walter Smith, of Maryland, as to How He Voted on the Infamous "Payne Tariff Bill."

The Record shows that on this bill the total number of votes in the Senate were 129. It also shows that Senator John Walter Smith did not vote on the different amendments and schedules of the bill as they were offered in the Senate 56 times.

Were these 56 votes "dodged," or does Senator Smith have a good reason to give his constituents for failing to vote in the framing of such an important measure 56 times? If he does, let us have his reason.

As infamous as this bill was, Aldrich, its sponsor in the Senate, had a coworker and co-voter, Senator John Walter Smith, of Maryland, in 12 of his votes. These votes were notably on an effort to reduce the tariff on coal from $.50 to $.40 a ton. Senator Smith voted against this reduction, against the interest of the poor man, and in favor of the "COAL TRUST."

When there was a motion made by Senator Aldrich to take hides from the free list on the House Bill and lay a duty of 15 per cent. ad valorem, Aldrich voted for this duty on hides and so did Senator Smith, thus voting against the consumers and in favor of the "BOOT AND SHOE TRUST."

On an amendment taking the tariff off of lumber and reducing the tariff on lumber, Aldrich voted "nay" five times; Senator John Walter Smith, of Maryland, voted "nay" five times. Once on this schedule Aldrich voted "yea" and Senator John Walter Smith voted "yea." But that was when board lumber was taxed $1.50; planed on one side $2.00 and planed on both sides $2.50; on four sides $3.00 per thousand feet; thus he voted as a lumber man in favor of the "LUMBER TRUST," of which he is a conspicuous member.

Is this a record for a Senator from Maryland to be proud of, or is it not one that his constituents should condemn? Senator John Walter Smith's vast fortune was made from the "Bull Pine Industry." But none of us have any pine, bull pine or any other lumber industry or trust from which to help swell our Democratic fortunes.

He clearly misrepresents his constituents. Some one else should be sent to the Senate who will represent us, not only as to lumber but as to coal, boots, shoes and on all the other schedules where the burden can and ought to be removed from the poor man's shoulders.

POPULAR FUND FOR WILSON.

Enthusiastic Response to Chestertown Transcript's Movement.

"A popular Wilson campaign fund," started on the Eastern Shore some time ago by the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT, of which Messrs. R. H. Collins and T. D. Bowers, are the editors, has increased until it includes more money than was asked for.

"Editors Collins and Bowers suggested voluntary contributions of $1. One Wilson enthusiast sent his check for $25.

While the fund has been oversubscribed contributions are still coming in. These, with the contributions being received by Joshua W. Miles, show strong Wilson sentiment on the Eastern Shore.

"It has been purely a voluntary movement on the part of the contributors," says Mr. Bowers, "no special effort having been made to secure a dollar from anyone. The plan has been worked out by the original friends of Governor Wilson in Kent county and they alone have contributed, though the invitation was extended to the Clark supporters as well."—Wednesdays Baltimore Sun.

WILSON COMING TO MARYLAND.

Governor Wilson, of New Jersey, Democratic candidate for President, has given Gen. Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, a partial promise that he will speak in Baltimore during the campaign. General Vandiver has placed Governor Wilson's name on his list of prominent speakers, and as soon as he can secure the date for his appearance he will arrange for one of the greatest Democratic demonstrations ever witnessed in Baltimore.

Mr. J. F. Thompson delivered to Mr. Lemuel Leager, of near St. Paul's Church, this week a fine new Ford touring car. This is about the 14th car that Mr. Thompson has sold and delivered this season.
