WILSON FUND GROWS.

Money for Campaign Now Amounts to $175,000.

New York, Septembr 8.—Twelve thousands persons have contributed thus far to the Wilson and Marshall campaign fund. The fund at present totals $175,000.

This was stated to-night at Democratic national headquarters, which at the same time made public a list of names of all who had contributed the sum of $100 or more to the fund.

W. G. McAdoo, acting chairman, declared that a new political standard had been set by this action.

"The American people," he said, will never elect another president without knowing the sources from which financial support is drawn."

Rolla Wells, treasurer of the committee, declared that while the sum received was encouraging, it was "totally inadequate" to conduct the campaign properly, but he believed that contributions would continue.

The largest contributions thus far have been made by Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the National Executive Committee; F. C. Penfield, a wealthy Democrat of Germantown, Pa., and Henry Goldman, a New York banker. Each gave $10,000.

Five $5,000 contributions were received. The givers are: Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, who is vice-chairman of the National Finance Committee; Rolla Wells, former mayor of St. Louis, the national treasurer; Cleveland H. Dodge and Jacob H. Schiff, New York, bankers, and Hugh C. Wallace, of Tacoma, national committeeman from Washington.

Among other large contributors are: James B. Regan, D. W. Hyman and Jacob Wertheim, $2,500 each; J. D. Phelan, former mayor of San Francisco, $2,000; William J. Bryan, Norman D. Mack, of Buffalo, New York national committeeman; John B. Stanchfield, of New York, former Democratic candidate for governor of New York, and Perry Belmont, $1,000 each.

Dr. Julian S. Carr, Durham, N. C., $200; Dr. Robert S. Young, Concord, N. C.; Josephus Daniels, Raleigh, N. C., each $100.

Many of the hundreds of newspapers which are collecting funds for the Wilson campaign have sent in their checks, but in the majority of cases failed to include all the names of their readers who gave the money. Rolla Wells wrote to the various papers for the name of each giver to the fund so they can be duly entered on the books.

Among the newspapers which sent in their names of contributors are the following given out by the committee: New Orleans State, $3,500; Raleigh (N. C.) News and Observer, $2,395; Arkansas papers, through National Committeeman Kavanaugh, $1,006; Atlanta (Ga.) Journal, $2,300; Roanoke (Va.) Times, $122; Salem Times-Register, Salem, Va., $122; Times Despatch, Richmond, V., $674; Elizabeth (N. J.) Times, $1,800. The TRANSCRIPT fund will be forwarded the latter part of this month.

Why Wilson is Needed.

There is one argument for the election of Woodrow Wilson as President which should appeal with especial force to every independently inclined voter. With the next House of Representatives practically certain to be overwhelmingly Democratic, and with the Senate either Democratic or safely controlled by a Democratic-Progressive combination of members, it is in the highest degree desirable, in order to secure a harmonious government capable of carrying out definite policies of reform, that there should be in the White House a President in sympathy with the two branches of Congress. It is obvious that if Roosevelt should, by some sudden abberation of the American people, again be made President, he could accomplish little with a House and Senate hostile to him. Such a condition of affairs existed in the last year or two of his second term, when he had largely alienated many of his own party, and the result was a period barren of fruitful legislation.

With Woodrow Wilson in the White House and a Congress in hearty sympathy there would be present all the elements for successful co-operation which have been lacking in the existing relations between President Taft and the House and Senate. A clean-cut policy of legislation could be outlined and carried through, and the Democratic party could be held to a rigid responsibility for its act. If these should prove bad for the country, there would be no trouble about placing the blame directly where it belongs and inflicting deserved punishment. If the Democracy makes good, the voters will know to whom to give credit. The present situation, with a President of one political faith and Congress of another, should not be perpetuated. A vote for Woodrow Wilson will be a vote for symmetrical government, of one political faith, which can be held to a strict accountability. With a Democratic Congress assured through Republican division, absolutely nothing of permanent value could be accomplished through the election of Taft or Roosevelt as President. It would simply be continuing the present unsatisfactory deadlock.—Philadelphia Record.

Bravery and Honesty Count.

In speaking editorially of Governor Wilson's statement in reference to the candidacy of Mr. James Smith for the Senate in New Jersey, the Sun on Tuesday said:

He knew that his words would be taken as serving notice on all the bosses and that is what he meant them to do. His comment on Straus' nomination in New York the other day indicates that he will be just as frank with Mr. Murphy as he has been with Mr. Smith if the former attempts to name a discreditable ticket in New York. He has no sympathy with the bosses or bossism and is willing to have the fact known.

It takes a brave man and a man sure of his ground to make a stand like this. Yet in the end we do not think it will work to Wilson's disadvantage. The people want bravery and they want sincerity and straight thinking. We have faith for every vote lost to Wilson by reason of this declaration of war against the bosses he will gain one, and perhaps two.
