HAVE YOUR WATCH CLEANED OCCASIONALLY.

A WATCH will run without oil or cleaning longer than any other piece of machinery—BUT IT NEEDS BOTH OCCASIONALLY.

If you will consider that the rim of the balance wheel travels over fifteen miles a day, you will not grudge your watch a speck of oil and a cleaning once a year. It will increase the life and accuracy of your watch. Leave your watch with us to-day.

Simeon M. Taylor's Will.—The will of the late Simeon M. Taylor, of Cumberland, formerly of Gratitude, this county, was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. The will bequeaths all his property to his wife, Marie T. Taylor, and her daughter, Isa, share and share alike. The will was made December 10, 1899.

An Important Decision.—In overruling a demurrer interposed by Armour & Co. in a damage suit brought by Sopha Kolterer, who alleged that she had been poisioned by trichinae-infected pork prepared by the defendent, Judge Noyes, in the United States District Court, of New York, last week ruled that the packer, not the middleman or retailer, is responsible.

Grist Mill Burned.—During the severe electric storm of last Saturday night, the grist mill owned by Mr. J. C. Haggerty and known as the Sparks mill was struck by lightning and burned to the foundation. It is reported that the property was partially insured carrying about twelve hundred dollars. The corn crib and some little buildings attached and near were also burned.

A locomotive on the Queen Anne's Railroad exploded at Lewes, Del., on Friday and Julian Brown, of Love Point, fireman, was badly injured.

The western mules which Superintendent Quantz purchased in the west have arrived at the mill, and things are again getting busy out there.

Downie & Wheeler's Circus showed to good crowds morning and evening on Tuesday, and those who saw the performances say they were good.

Beginning Monday next the Chester river steamer leaves Chestertown same mornings at 8 o'clock instead of 7. See change of schedule in another column.

A steam-fitter from Winchester, Va., is installing hot water heat in Christ Church parsonage under the direction of the contractor, Mr. W. C. Sutton.

According to Automobile Commissioner Roe, there are 9,000 automobiles owned in the State of Maryland upon which $100,000 in taxes are annually paid.

In attempting to jump a fence to catch a horse, Mr. Wm. B. Davis, of near Cecilton, and well-known in this county, fractured a leg and sustained other injuries.

Rock fish are reported to be plentiful in the Susquehanna river now. One fisherman last week caught 325 pounds with hook and line. Two of the fish weighed 25 lbs. each.

The storm on Wednesday evening in the vicinity of Still Pond was attended by much hail and a terrific rain. The tomato crop was badly injured and corn was also damaged.

The tomato markets and canneries have been glutted this week. The season is now at its height, and the canneries and boats are taxed to their utmost capacity to handle the fruit.

F. O. Mitchell & Bro., of Perryman, Harford county, have made a record for a day's work in canning corn. In 11 hours they put up 63,800 cans, a rate of 108 a minute.

Mrs. Maude Elliott has accepted a position as seamstress with Mr. C. N. Robinson, the hustling tailor and clothing repairer. Mr. Robinson secured Mrs. Elliott through an advertisement inserted in the TRANSCRIPT want advertisement column. See!

When one awakes these fine mornings and hears the many factory, canning house and boat whistles blowing, he believes that he is in a big city. Well, he is at least in a busy town just about now.

Messrs. Schauber Bros. have the biggest run on their corn cutters they have had since they have been in the business. They are rushed with orders and are delivering numbers every day.

Mr. J. H. Sides, agent, has delivered to Prof. L. J. Smyth, county school superintendent, a fine new Maxwell five passenger touring car which the Professor will use in his visits to the schools.

Mr. Cavosa Willis, living on the Sandy Hill farm on Still Pond Creek, was the first farmer to begin cutting off corn in Kent so far as we know. He cut off about ten acres last Thursday.

The report that Mr. Stinchcomb, one of our popular bakers, has sold out, is incorrect. Mr. Stinchcomb states that a gentleman was talking with him about selling but he would not consider the offer.

The hay rick on the farm in Flatlands tenanted by Mr. Bert Sheppard and recently purchased by Mr. Harry Legg, was struck by lightning and burned during the thunderstorm on Wednesday evening.

One of our lady poultry raisers had 40 fine chickens hatched out some time ago. The rats killed a number and others ate the poison she put down for the rats and died, and so she only has nine of the forty left.

Mr. Walter H. Hadaway lost three of his most valuable cows from unknown causes recently. Mr. Hadaway has had the remainder of his herd tested by the State veterinarian, and they have been declared to be in excellent condition.

The State Roads Commission has designated the first Tuesday in every month as "counting day," when the road supervisors will count every team and automobile using the State macadamized roads. The State road is being oiled.

Mr. John Bailey, the well-known buyer of Millington, paid Mr. Stonewall J. Johnson, of near Massey, $50.30 for two calves last week. This price was net, and gives the first district the lead so far as we know this season in stock sales.

The stack yard belonging to Mr. John N. Bennett, near Still Pond was struck by lightning and destroyed on Wednesday night. Mr. Bennett and his men were kept up nearly all night fighting the fire to prevent its spreading to his outbuildings.

Mr. Spencer Comegys has rented the Green Point farm in Worton now occupied by Mr. C. R. Rasin, and he will remove there January 1. The sale of Mr. Comegys' personalty which was advertised in the TRANSCRIPT to take place Thursday was called off.

A scow loaded with 75,000 bricks from Baltimore for the new college gymnasium has been discharging its cargo at the county wharf. Between 150,000 and 200,000 bricks will be used. Mr. William A. Bell has the contract to do all hauling.

Ex-Sheriff Edward J. Plummer living in Morgnec, lost a valuable mare and colt by being struck by lightning during the storm on Wednesday night. The storm was particularly heavy in that section, the wind breaking off corn in a number of places and doing other damage.

Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., has been appointed referee in bankruptcy for the additional counties of Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester. These counties with those already under Mr. Townsend's jurisdiction comprise the whole of the Eastern Shore except Cecil.

Mr. A. S. Turner, the hustling Worton grain buyer, loaded a car with Keiffer pears at Worton this week. He paid 12 cents per basket, pears to be 2½ inches in diameter. The crop in this county will be large, but the dry weather will greatly affect the size of the fruit.

Listen to the school bell ring on Monday morning. The boys and girls will be glad, we are quite sure. There have been a number of changes among the teachers of the county. The Chestertown High School will have a new principal, Prof. Mark Creasy, who succeeds Prof. Smyth.

A gentleman who seldom comes to town was seen on our streets on show day. He was asked what he was doing in town on a warm day like that. He replied, "The children wanted to go to the show, and I had to come to bring them." He was one of the first to purchase a reserved seat where he could get a good view of all that went on.

The patrons of the Spry's Gate School are complaining about the pupils having to carry their drinking water a distance of some three quarters of a mile. There is no pump on the premises, and it is said that the pump at Spry's Gate is unfit for use. The school authorities should provide a pump on the premises, if conditions are as they are reported to be.

Dr. G. Allen Jarman has immunized 1,150 hogs with cholera serum in Kent and Queen Anne's to date. The serum was furnished by the State and also by the owners of hogs. The campaign begun last year exclusively by the TRANSCRIPT for the use of this serum as a preventive of cholera is bearing fruit and all our farmers should protect themselves against the great loss of hogs every year.

This is the season of the year when a sentimental mother appears at the school house with her sissy boy and tells the teacher he is very high spirited, and must not be whipped; that he can be ruled by kindness and kisses. And this is the time of the year when the boys in school make a note of what the mother of the sissy boy says, and resolve to thump the sissy boy as soon as they catch him on the play ground.

Judge of the Orphans Court Charles S. Hill has a sunflower growing at his home which measures 15 inches in diameter.

The pupils of Crumpton School will hold a festival Saturday evening, Sept. 21, on the ground opposite the hardware store. Public cordially invited.

The fall army worm has made its appearance in Chestertown and has destroyed over one-half of the beautiful grass on Mr. Wm. R. Maul's pretty grass lawn. He is afraid he will have to dig up the other half.

Mr. Walter T. Bramble is among the lucky ones. He has the best bred trotting stallion ever in Kent county. He was bred by Philips Bros., Delazan, Wis., and sold at Madison Square Garden, a yearling, when he trotted an eighth in 20 seconds. He is now a three-year-old, and is in Chestertown.

The State roads fund will receive not less than $90,000 from his office this year, according to a recent statement of motor vehicle commissioner. Thus far this calendar year the office has collected $96,037, an increase of about 25 per cent. over the corresponding period of last year. On the same ratio of increase the total receipts of 1912 will be about $109,000. From this the office expenses will have to be paid.

In an effort to save the life of his little grandson one day last week, Mr. Charles Clough, a farmer of Price Station, was killed by a falling tree in a woods on the Cahall farm. Just as the tree was to fall Clough discovered the child in its path, and as he made a leap to save the little one the tree caught him and he was crushed to death. Clough was 65 years old, and a family survives.

The Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals gives notice to all shippers and farmers in Kent county that the abuse of poultry by shipping them in low, over-crowded, or poorly ventilated coops makes them liable to a fine and imprisonment. The Society especially calls attention to the fact that tying legs or interlocking the wings of any living fowl is an act of cruelty, and that violators will be rigidly prosecuted.

Mr. Wm. H. Smith, of near Chester bridge, while driving on the State road, near Union school house, Queen Annes, had a narrow escape from serious injury. His horse became frightened at a passing automobile and shied, and another machine, which was following close behind his team, struck the rear of his carriage, causing the horse to run away and throw the occupants out of the carriage. Mr. Smith received a cut on his head and was badly shaken up.

The Deputy Automobile Commissioner arrested and heavily fined a number of automobilists in Havre de Grace last week for exceeding the speed limit. He may be in Chestertown any day and arrest somebody for doing the same thing here. The Town Commissioners have fixed the speed limit in Chestertown at 10 miles per hour, and if the commissioner should walk up Washington avenue some time and see a fellow going 12 or 25 miles an hour, he may be heavily find. Take warning.

The ownership of the blacksmithing and wheelwrighting business heretofore conducted by Mr. Samuel Hicks passed to Mr. A. J. Hackett, Jr., on Monday. The transfer comprises the purchase of tools and material on hand, and the renting of the shops. Mr. Hackett is an experienced horseshoer and wheelwright, and since he has been in the employ of Mr. Hicks he has built up a greatly increased trade. Try him and see for yourself that he knows how to shoe your horse or mend your wagon.

Town Officer Cooper reports that Chestertown was flooded with whiskey on show day, Tuesday, and he made four arrests for drunkenness. It is said that there was a rushing mail order business to a certain whiskey dealer in Wilmington by both colored and white people from here the day before, and it is the supposition that a great deal of the liquor was sold. 25 gallons are said to have been purchased and distributed here. We hope our authorities will keep a close watch on this illicit business and bring every violator to bar.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Visits Easton and is Enthusiastic Over Prospects for the Next Term.

Dr. James W. Cain, President of Washington College was in Easton yesterday, and seemed enthusiastic over the prospects for the forthcoming scholastic year at the old alma mater of many folks from the Eastern Shore.

Washington College was opened at the end of the eighteenth century, and its alumni numbers many among the prominent men of Maryland and other states. A $40,000 gymnasium will be completed by February, and the quarters are ample for 150 students this term.—Easton Gazette.
