

The Dry Land Life-Saver

A hurriedly given number, a pause, a deep bass answer, a reassuring word, and the telephone receiver is hung up. That is all—before you know it the doctor's car is "throbbing" before the door.

Yes—at such times, accidents, sudden illness, and such—the Bell Telephone's value can no longer be measured in dollars.

Take this to heart yourself. How about your home? Residence rates are low. It would be wise to call up the Business Office right now. Use any Public Telephone—the message is free.

Kennedyville Items.

A few light showers of rain reached our village Saturday night, very much refreshing the atmosphere and laying the dust. Notwithstanding the dry, hot season, the health of the people of the community continues very good.

The oil spreader has returned to Kennedyville, and for the past few days has continued the distribution of oil over the state road between Goose Hill and Locust Grove.

The corn fodder is fast drying up, and a few of the farmers have been cutting and shocking their crop for the season.

Quite a good deal of plowing is yet to be done in the neighborhood for wheat, but the ground is too dry to work.

The many kind friends of Mrs. Elias T. Othoson are happy to know that she is doing nicely under the skillful treatment at the Maryland University, Baltimore, with Mrs. Grace Eareckson as nurse.

The infant daughter, Catharine Hessner Baker, of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Baker, of Chestertown, was baptized Sunday week, in the home of Mrs. Hessner, mother of Mrs. Baker, of Kennedyville, by Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, assisted by Rev. Mr. Paynter, of the Presbyterian Church. Little Catherine has been very delicate for several weeks, but seems now to be in improved health.

Master Bonwell Dukes, of our village, who has spent a great part of his vacation in a position at Chester, Pa., left on Sunday for Denton, where he will continue his course in the Denton school.

Last week and this are the rush weeks of the tomato crop and the stock has been crowding the canneries to their utmost capacity for the past few days, and will continue to do so for about a week to come. Good pealers are in demand.

Services in the M. P. Church, Kennedyville, for Sunday, the 15th, inst., as follows: Sunday school at 9 30 A. M., Supt. Medders and the pastor urge a full attendance, with a warm, hearty welcome; sermon at 10.30 by the pastor topic: "The Withered Hand Healed, or Sleeping Giants, and How to Awaken Them." Service of song and brief sermon in the evening, beginning at 7.30 o'clock; topic: "Lessons from the Life of Moses, or How to Help the Leader." Come and add ble sing to the service.

Mr. Paul Boggs, railroad agent at Ellendale, Del., spent Sunday last with his parents in Kennedyville.

Mr. Hartley C. Weer, of Sparrows Point, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Weer.

Celebrate Golden Wedding.

John D. and Mary A. Carter, formerly of the Cliffs and Quaker Neck, of Kent county, but now residing at Townsend, Del., will on Sunday, 15th inst., leave Townsend for a golden wedding trip to the mountains, with a stop off in Baltimore and Washington. Fifty years ago on September 16th they were married in Philadelphia. On a visit to the Cliffs in 1864, they were so pleased with the situation and the low cost of living, on wild ducks, oysters, terrapin, etc., that Mr. Carter bought the property from Richard Nicols. After living there a couple of years, he went to California as superintendent of some mining property. On his return in 1870, he engaged in business in Townsend. In 1880 he returned to the Cliffs and built a new house, etc. In 1905 he sold the Cliffs to John McNanny, of Baltimore, and returned to Townsend, where after regaining his residence he was appointed Alderman and later Justice of the Peace and Notary Public by Governor Penniwell.

Notice to Democrats.

Registration days this year will be as follows:

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1st,
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8th.

On these two days transfers from one district to another will be given and registered voters will be placed on the books. This is not a new registration, but every Democrat who has moved from his last residence since last registration day into another district, must get a transfer from his old voting district and register in his present district where he is now living. This must be attended to on one of the above dates or your name may be erased from the voting lists. Every young Democrat who has become of age since last election should register on one of the above days in October.

Crothers Estate Divided.

The will of the late Governor Crothers has been adjusted and his estate distributed among his nephews, State Senator Omar D. Crothers and Emerson R. Crothers, the sole beneficiaries. The estate is valued at about $50,000, of which $30,000 was in life insurance. Years before he was nominated the former Governor carried on his life $15,000 in insurance. Shortly after his inauguration he took out an additional $10,000 policy and a little later his two nephews had issued a $5,000 policy on his life. The remainder of his estate which consisted of stock in several banks and five mortgages, amounted to about $20,000. There was an indebtedness of $10,000 against the estate.

New Bank at Elkton.—Elkton will shortly have a new bank, making the third one in the town and the eighth one in the county. The new institution will be known as the Elkton Banking and Trust Company, the charter for which was granted by the Legislature four years ago. It will have a capital stock of $50,000. It is understood that John M. Tucker, former chairman of the Maryland Good Roads Commission, will be made president of the new bank. Emerson R. Crothers, private secretary to the late Governor Austin L. Crothers, is also interested in the bank.

The Adams Express Co., has entered upon a new plan of operation. The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered this new system, in order that there shall be no overcharges. If there are any overcharges, the customer can take the case up directly with the Interstate Commerce Commission which in turn makes the employe of the company responsible.
