THE NEW FALL WAISTS

You'll like them, every one—there are the soft white waists developed in fancy nets, hand-made laces and allovers of fine imitation patterns—there are the Robespierre waists that appeal so strongly to smart dressers, as the Robespierre collar with its high-neck finish in the back and slightly cut-out section in front is decidedly "smart"—there are waists with lace revers or frills used in connection with the Directorie collar—there are fascinating Charmeuse waists, with two-toned and contrasting buttons—there are dressy blouses in bright colors—such as cerise, king blue, flame and gold—the style, the material, the workmanship and THE LOW PRICES combine to make them remarkable values.

Usual prices, $10, $5, $3.50. Not having the heavy rents and enormous operating expenses of the large department stores, The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach sells them for

$2.29

The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach, Baltimore, stands absolutely pre-eminent for waist styles and values.

in our methods of testing the eyes and fitting glasses. We use the latest and most approved instruments and do not use any drugs or drops to paralyze the muscles of the eyes as more satisfactory results can be obtained by the more modern methods without the dangerous after-effects of drops. Only those who have made a study of Optics and Anatomy of the eyes can fit glasses correctly.

If you break your glasses bring us the pieces and we will duplicate them for you.

Church Notes.

Other Church Notes on page 3.

Rev. Dr. Oliver H. Murphy, rector of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, North East, for the past six years, has tendered his resignation to the vestry and accepted a call to Christ Church, Millville, N. J.

The Methodist Protestant ministers of the Eastern Shore have organized a ministers meeting with Rev. A. W. Mather as president.

As a mark of his true christian character and brotherly spirit, Rev. G. A. Morris, the popular pastor of St. James Church, went to the assistance of Mr. Harry Thompson when news reached him of the death of his brother, Mr. Lemont Thompson, by going in Mr. Thompson's tomato patch, helping to pick tomatoes and hauling them to the shipping point in order that Mr. Thompson might drive to the home of his brother and render assistance there. These are acts of kindness which count for so much in this life, and our hearts go out to a man who does an act of kindness like that. Brother Morris also went to the brothers funeral, spoke beautifully and sang a touching solo and all this out of the spirit of friendship and brotherly love.

Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, Rev. A. B. Dupuy, pastor; services Sunday Sept. 22nd as follows: 9.30 A. M. Sunday school; 10.30 preaching by the pastor, subject, "God's Mighty works". Evening service at 7.30 o'clock, subject, "Bruised reeds and Smoking flax". Mid week service Thursday at 7.30 P. M. All welcome.

If the Chautauqua Returns.

Ciricillo's Band, which made such a hit at the Chautauqua here, is already signed with this association for next year, and if the Chautauqua is returned will be one of the features. They will also have an orchestra next season and will arrange their concerts accordingly. Mr. Paul M. Pearson, manager of the association, is endeavoring to obtain Wm. J. Bryan for the Chautauqua platform of next season and is now hopeful of success. In that case the Chautauqua will have a wonderfully strong drawing card. Those who have not subscribed for tickets for next season should do so as early as possible either through Mrs. J. Lane Finley or Mr. L. Bates Russell, in order that the committee may know as soon as possible that the 700 season tickets necessary to insure the return of the Chautauqua next year have been subscribed for.

HONEST AND CLEAN.

If a wholesome, honest, clean play that alternates pathos and laughter with gatling-gun rapidity is what theatre goers want, they will go and see "A Western Girl" at Opera House, Friday, Sept. 27, it is said to be entirely different from any other play and advantageously so. It gives an honest story of wholesome people brightly told with great human interest. These are some of the qualities that are pleasing to the immense audiences everywhere. Each of the four acts is lavishly mounted with special scenery. The company is a large and competent one. A superb Cornet Band and Orchestra is also carried with this attraction.

We carry SHEARS for Vulcan, Oliver, Syracuse, Imperial and South Bend Plows. We grind shears for any make of plow, and we grind all sizes for only 10c. They do as good work after they are ground as they do when new. We have a good outfit now and can grind them very promptly.

We have on hand all the leading sizes of American Fence, and all this Fence has been stored since its arrival last spring in our large warehouses at the depot.
