We feel a just pride when it comes to the matter of Shoes. The praises of the JK Shoes have been sung ever since the line has been represented in our store. Their wearers in this locality are getting acquainted with their merits as to style and quality, and are swelling the chorus in their praise, so that this season we expect to distribute just double the number of fine Shoes as was sold last season. There is no need to go to the city now—for no better Shoe than the J. & K. is to be found.

HELEN FRANCES TAYLOR.

Helen Francis, the four-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, of Chestertown, died on Friday last. Funeral was held Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd in charge.

MR. WALTER B. USILTON.

Mr. Walter B. Usilton died in New York August 31st. The deceased was born and raised in Chestertown, being the son of the late John and Sasan Usilton and a nephew of the late H. Clay Usilton. He left Chestertown about 20 years ago and for the past ten years had been manager of one of Child's large restaurants in New York. When last in Chestertown about two years ago he was in splendid health weigning near 200 lbs., but tuberculosis developed resulting in his death within six months. He leaves a widow and one child.

MR. WILLIAM H. BOLTON.

Mr. William H. Bolton died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Peters, Cecilton, on Saturday morning, after an illness of several years, aged seventy-seven years. Besides a widow, four daughters, Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. Charles Peters, Mrs. Scott Knight and Mrs. Henry Eisenhart, and one son, Mr. William Bolton, survive him. Funeral services were held from his daughter's residence on Tuesday afternoon, interment being made in St. Paul's Cemetery, Cecilton.

MR. JOSEPH LEMONT THOMPSON.

Mr. Joseph Lemont Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Thompson and a prominent young farmer of the Fifth District, died at his home, the Page farm, near Edesville, on Saturday, from abscess on the liver, aged 33 years. The deceased was born in Chestertown where he lived until his parents removed to the farm where they now reside in the Fifth District. Lemont was a young man of splendid manner and genial disposition. He was a faithful boy to his parents, and even after his marriage, he looked after their interests and considered their wishes in everything. Mr. Thompson was taken sick about two weeks ago, and from the first seemed to realize the seriousness of his condition. He remained conscious until his death, bade all his loved ones good-bye and as he breathed his last in the arms of his devoted wife, who had done everything for his comfort, he sang the hymn "I Want to see Jesus," and expired with these words on his lips. Besides his wife, who was before marriage a Miss Warner, of Rock Hall, he leaves an interesting little girl. Funeral services were held from his residence on Tuesday morning conducted by Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers, assisted by Rev. A. B. Dupuy, of Wesley Chapel and G. A. Morris, of St. James, each of whom spoke lovingly and fittingly of the young man's life, and Mr. Morris sang a touching solo. The attendance was one of the largest ever seen in the county, more than sixty carriages being in the line from the house to the church, thus attesting Mr. Thompson's great popularity and the high esteem in which he was held by everybody. Interment was in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. John C. Wood, Marion Downey, Herman Crew, Herbert Urie, Nelson Rodney and Thomas Dowling. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH IVENS.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ivens, wife of Mr. Charles Ivens, of Worton, died at a Baltimore hospital where she had been for special treatment, last Friday, aged about 35 years. The deceased was before marriage Miss Mae Usilton, daughter of the late Joseph Usilton of Worton. She was a young lady of wide popularity, and her large circle of friends regret seriously her early demise. Besides her husband she leaves an infant child. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon from her late residence in Worton conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. C. Romie Skirven, William B. Willis, H. Stockton Startt, Walter Ivens, Wm. J. Ivens, Jr. and George Cooper. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. SUSAN PETERSON.

Mrs. Susan Peterson, died near Chestertown, on Wednesday aged 75 years. The deceased was the widow of the late Charles Peterson, of this town, and leaves one son, Mr. Charles Peterson, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held on Thursday with interment in Chester cemetery. Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham officated. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. J. B. McIntire, John H. Simpers, A. S. Crawford, J. D. Bacchus, W. S. Carroll and Wm. A. Burk. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

An Educated Pig.

One of our progressive young farmers living near town has a pig which has shown evidences of good mental capacity. The other morning the farmer went to Mr. P. M. Brooks' Radcliffe Mills with some grain to be ground for feed. When he reached the mill, there was Mr. Pig. The farmer was surprised as well as alarmed to see his pig at the mill, and made a desperate effort to catch him and take him home in his dearborn. He failed, and went on back home, to leave his pigship to his fate. When the farmer turned into his gate and started to drive through the field where his hogs were grazing, there was that contemptible pig standing in the midst of the herd as happy as a lord, "And just to think," said the farmer, "I had a notion to shoot that pig; but after this he can stay. He's a smart pig allright, and some showman should have him."
