DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:
WOODROW WILSON,
of New Jersey.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
THOMAS R. MARSALL, of Indiana.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN THE SIXTY-FIRST CONGRESS FROM THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:
JAMES HARRY COVINGTON, of Talbot County.

FOR CHIEF JUDGE OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT:
ALBERT CONSTABLE, of Cecil County.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:
(At Large)
JAMES T. TRUITT, Wicomico.
ROBERT E. LEE, Baltimore.
(District)
1—ALBERT W. SISK, Caroline.
2—FRANK T. SHAW, Carroll.
3—WM. SHEPPARD BRYAN, Balto.
4—JAS. McC. TRIPPE, Baltimore.
5—LOUIS C. CARRICO, Charles.
6—E. A. BAUGHMAN, Frederick.

AT the Pythian Fair, in Baltimore, the vote for President was:

Wilson	553
Roosevelt	329
Taft	204

THE courts in California have ruled that neither by nomination as Republicans nor by petition as Independents can the Taft electors go on the ballot in that State.

UNITED STATES SENATOR ISIDOR RAYNER and former Congressman Burke Cockran, of New York, will engage in a spirited debate at the Lyric, Baltimore, next Monday night. The subject will be, "Col. Roosevelt, his administration, and his policies." You can just bet that the Lyric will be packed to the doors, and that Senator Rayner will do full justice to his subject.

WHEREVER you go and to whomever you talk there is general confidence in the election of Gov. Woodrow Wilson to the presidency. Col. William Jennings Bryan says that Taft will not carry a single State in the Union, and that Wilson will make a clean sweep. Predictions are freely made that the Governor will carry Maryland by 30,000, and we predict that he will carry Kent county by from 500 to 800.

A CONTRIBUTION of $1 enclosed in a working man's pay envelope was received by the Democratic auxiliary committee Saturday. The sender asked that it be used as a contribution to the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund. Senator Blair Lee, treasurer of the committee, was highly pleased with this contribution and showed the pay envelope to a number of callers at headquarters.

EVERY farmer and tax-payer in Kent county, regardless of his party affiliation, should become a subscriber to the TRANSCRIPT for two reasons: 1st, It is the one paper in the county which from week to week contains interesting and reliable notes concerning our agricultural interests; and 2d, it is the only paper in Kent county that has sufficient real interest in the tax-payers as to keep the tax-payers posted with reliable information concerning county affairs. A paper that keeps the people posted upon their real interests is the paper to sustain. If you don't take it, try it, and see if what we say is not true.

THE Kent News has changed management. It is no longer the Beck organ, but has passed under the control of Urie and Dodd, who are its contributing editors. Both the paper and it editors are suffering by the scandalous editorials that have appeared during the past two weeks. The Kent News is hopelessly lost to the Democrats. Urie is controlling its politics absolutely, and Democrats are looking in vain in its columns for Democratic encouragement. They must get that from the TRANSCRIPT, the only Democratic paper in Kent county now.

IT IS indeed gratifying that the Rich Neck Farmers' Club, one of the most progressive organizations in this section, has determined to organize and conduct a Farmers Exchange. For several years the TRANSCRIPT has been urging the organization of such an exchange as the most practical and successful means of disposing of farm products at a greater profit than is now being received. Our advice to the club is to organize an exchange in Chestertown in charge of an experienced and capable man, and it will undoubtedly be a paying investment.

THE DEBATE between Mr. Wm. H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, and Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico county, at Salisbury on Friday, drew a big crowd of people from all parts of the State. The debate grew out of an acceptance by Senator Price of a challenge from Mr. Anderson to discuss the Senator's record in the last Legislature on the local option question, and according to newspaper reports, while the "fur flew" on both sides, each side claimed the victory. A number of Senator Price's friends, including Mr. William W. Beck, of this county, were present to encourage Senator Price, while Mr. Anderson had many friends in the audience. As a result of the encouragement and sympathy bestowed upon Senator Price by Senators Campbell, Crody and Maloy, all of Baltimore, Mr. Anderson has callenged each of these Senators to a debate on his record on the local option question. Why did not Mr. Anderson include Mr. Beck, who was also present at the Price debate as a sympathizer of Senator Price, and challenge him to debate his record on the local option question, and give Chestertown some notoriety by having the debate here?

NEXT Tuesday is the last day upon which you may be registered or properly transferred. Democrats, don't fail to attend to this important matter next Tuesday. A number of Democrats failed to get their transfers last Tuesday, and we hope that they will keep it in mind next Tuesday, as it is the only time that transfers can be secured.

THE exposures which the Baltimore American and other Taft papers of the country are making of the contributions to the Republican campaign fund of 1904 and 1908 are the most scathing arraignment of the Republican party that can possibly be made. The fact that Harriman raised a compaign fund of $250,000 for Roosevelt is simply an incident of the most shocking disclosure of wholesale corruption in the use of fabulous sums of money filched from the great corporations of the country to keep the Republican party in power in the government in order to give these corporations the benefit of a policy of protection which has simply taxed the masses of the people to the utmost of their ability to get money enough to pay the excessive charges for the necessities of life. What kind of a party is it that will enable a few coal barons of the country to charge $7.50 for a ton of coal that isn't worth more than $3.25 and then accept in exchange for this protection a fabulous campaign fund to perpetuate it in power? The Republican party and no single individual of that party will be the sufferer by the exposure of its campaign contributions.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

USILTONISM IS URIEISM.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT—Gentlemen: When one, who has earned the character which John D. Urie has always deservedly born in this county, writes such a letter as was published in the Kent News on Saturday last, then the editors of that paper, Frederick G. Usilton and William B. Usilton, who publish it, stamp themselves to be identically two such men as every one knows John D. Urie to be. These three men have held themselves out in this community to be brothers in heart and mind, and in words and deeds.

I am willing to let what, with the aid of many others, I have done politically for the welfare of Kent county be the answer to such an attack. Beyond this, at present, I have nothing to say.

Very respectfully yours,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

Chestertown, Md., Oct. 3, 1912.

MESSRS. EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—Dear Sirs: I notice in last week's issue of the URIE ORGAN, the KENT NEWS, one the of most slanderous letters which has ever appeared in the public press of Kent county, barring one printed in the same angelic sheet about one of the now County Commissioners.

I may in the following devulge some. thing that under ordinary circumstances would be locked in a confidence of man to man although this was not in confidence; but there are occasions in life where your fellow-man is attacked slanderously by such a man as the one whose name I am now going to give to the reading public of Kent county. The following was told to me in the past spring:

The Hon. ex-Judge Joseph A. Wickes, told me that John D. Urie came very near being disbarred for some of his transactions while he was on the bench and but for his age only, he was saved. He said he called him before him and gave him a severe reprimand. Then Urie, as he called him, thanked him for saving his good name. Is this the man who is allowed the columns of the Kent News? I notice the Enterprise does not publish his foul letters, but the Kent News does. What does it mean? Can you guess?

Respectfully,
SAMUEL HICKS.

WOODROW WILSON FUND FORWARDED.

Transcript Received one Hundred and Eight Dollars in Voluntary Subscriptions of One Dollar Each.

The fund which the TRANSCRIPT has been raising in one dollar subscriptions during the past three months has been collected and forwarded to Governor Wilson for use in the national campaign. The fund was called in on the first of September, and would have been forwarded before but for the fact that we were unable to get all the money in hand from those who had subscribed until a few days ago. One hundred and seven citizens of the town and county voluntarily subscribed to this fund, and we are quite sure that had a systematic canvas been made more than five times the amount would have been subscribed. The amount does not include the $25 check which a good friend of Governor Wilson offered. It consists only of those who voluntarily gave us the dollar. The check, with the list of names, and the following letter has been forwarded to Gov. Wilson:

Chestertown, Md.
October 4th, 1912.

HON. WOODROW WILSON, Governor,
Princeton, N. J.

DEAR SIR:

Enclosed please find our check for $107. This represents the voluntary contribution of one dollar each from one hundred and seven of our citizens who are deeply interested in your election and in the success of the entire Democratic ticket in November. These contributions have been made very cheerfully by those whose names are appended and represent every section of Kent county. In every case we declined to accept any contribution over $1 in amount, though in many instances we were offered larger contributions. We trust that you will accept the offering, and use it in assisting to defray the expenses of your national campaign. Hoping you are well, and having every confidence in your triumphant election, we remain

Very truly yours,

Foot Ball Season Begins.

The foot ball season at Washington College begins this afternoon with a game with Rock Hill College on Washington field. For a week and more Captain Meekins and Coach Porter have had 50 or more candidates on the gridiron and they have about selected a team that will give any of the college teams a hustle for victory. Porter, Jones and Ciminera are the old men whose places are to be filled with new material, and there seems to be some excellent material from which to pick the successors of these good men.

Wilkinson, Washington's giant tackle, will play the prominent part at the kick-off. Captain Meekins probably will do the drop kicking.

The line-up for the first game of the season to-day with Rock Hill, will be: Long, c.; Davis, r. g.; Wilkinson, r. t.; Frantum or Wallace, r. e.; Meredith, l. g.; Garrett, l. t.; Lewis, l. e.; Meekins, (capt.) q. b.; Biddle, f. b.; Strong, Pfitsch or Branham, h. b.
