

The Telephone and the Farmer's Wife

"One of the main reasons why I would not be without my telephone," said a farmer, "is the pleasure it gives my wife and my knowledge of her security when I'm away."

The farm telephone dispels loneliness and summons aid when emergencies arise. Write for the booklet, "What Uncle Sam Says About the Rural Telephone." Write to-day. It will prove interesting.

POLL.

Taken in 11 States Shows That Governor Wilson's Plauralty Will be Unprecedented.

A straw vote, taken in 11 States by the New York Herald and published in its columns Saturday morning, indicates the complete elimination of President Taft from the great struggle of November. The real fight, according to the Herald's canvass, will be between Roosevelt and Wilson, with the chances favoring the latter.

The poll is the largest and most far-reaching ever attempted by a newspaper. Eleven States were covered, and the number of voters approached was over 24,000. The totals were: Wilson, 11,115; Roosevelt, 7147, and Taft, 4784. The indication is that President Taft will not carry a single one of the States in which the canvass was made.

TAFT RUNS THIRD.

In its summary of the result the Herald says:

"In the 11 States where these straw votes were taken.—New York, Connecticut, Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Wyoming—Governor Wilson ran first in nine. The Bull Moose candidate was first in Conneticut and Pennsylvania. President Taft was third in all but Ohio and Wyoming. In Ohio he polled 942 votes, as against 818 for the Bull Moose ticket. Governor Wilson received 1913.

In Maryland, the Herald's investigators confined their efforts to a poll of Baltimore city. A total of 377 voters filled out the ballots supplied. The figures, given in tabular form are as follows:

Taft	48
Roosevelt	126
Wilson	193
Debs	10

This vote according to the computation made by the compilers of the article would indicate a Wilson plurality of 41,875, with Roosevelt running second. It fails, however, to take into account the feeling in the counties, and it is generally conceded that Roosevelt is to make his strongest showing in the mountainous part of the State.

IN ROOSEVELT STATES.

The two States in which the straw vote shows Roosevelt to be in the lead at present are, as was stated, Connecticut and Pennsylvania. The result of the poll in these States was as follows:

CONNECTICUT:

Taft	85
Roosevelt	127
Wilson	96
Debs	50

Roosevelt's indicated plurality, 16,207.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Taft	543
Roosevelt	573
Wilson	567
Debs	34

Roosevelt's indicated plurality, 2456.

CLOSE IN NEW YORK.

The total in New York State promises a warm struggle between Mr. Roosevelt and Dr. Wilson. The Herald counted the votes of 2873 persons throughout the State. They were divided as follows:

Taft	583
Roosevelt	1011
Wilson	1147
Debs	132

Wilson's indicated plurality, 75,648.

In New York city, however, the result showed this:

Taft	362
Roosevelt	666
Wilson	739
Debs	84

In other States the totals were as follows:

Delaware—Taft, 266; Roosevelt 381; Wilson, 927, Debs, 56; indicated Wilson plurality, 15,475.

New Jersey—Taft, 245; Roosevelt 300; Wilson, 477; Debs, 102; indicated Wilson plurality, 71,929.

Ohio—Taft, 942; Roosevelt, 818; Wilson, 1,914; Debs, 489; indicated Wilson plurality, 257,248.

Indiana—Taft, 891; Roosevelt, 1711; Wilson, 2100; Debs, 620; indicated Wilson plurality 257,248.

Kentucky—Taft, 773; Roosevelt, 1452; Wilson 2764; Debs, 115; indicated Wilson plurality 124,352.

West Virginia—Taft, 232; Roosevelt; 530; Wilson, 775; Debs, 115; indicated Wilson plurality, 39,792.

Wyoming—Taft, 176; Roosevelt, 118; Wilson, 204; Debs, 134; indicated Wilson plurality, 1947.

STARTS BABY TO BREATHING.

Life Brought to Child Apparently Dead at Birth.

New York, Sept. 28.—Twin boys were born to Mrs. Maringola Lescio at her home, 387 Avenue A, yesterday afternoon, but the family doctor, who was with the mother, looked over the babies and pronounced one of them dead.

A policeman sent in a call for an ambulance from Bellevue Hospital. Dr. Arthur Krida, who came with the ambulance, was told there was nothing for him to do.

"The baby was born 15 minutes ago and was dead when it arrived," said one of the Lescio neighbors.

Nevertheless, the young doctor went to the Lescio apartment. His stethescope showed that the one baby was without heart beats; the other twin was a lusty youngster.

Instantly the hospital doctor picked the apparently dead baby up in his arms, pressed his lips close to the child's and began forcing his own breath into the lungs of the baby, inflating them.

Fourteen times ever minute for 45 minutes Dr. Krida blew into the child's lungs, at the same time working artificial respiration. Then the baby sneezed, drew in a breath and exhaled. His heart action began and in a few seconds it was as regular as the pulse beat of his crying brother.

"Your child will live," said Dr. Krida, as he started for the street.

Maryland C. E. Societies are Arranging Elaborate Program for October 13.

Plans were announced recently for what is expected to be a red-letter day for members of the Christian Endeavor Societies of the State. October 13 will mark the twenty-eighth anniversary of the launching of the organization in this State. Elaborate programs are being prepared for that date.

There are in Maryland 275 young people's societies and 150 junior societies, with a total membership of 20,000. These organizations not only hold religious services on Sunday or during the week but engage in all religious and civic activities. In their local churches these societies are engaged in the missionary, temperance, social and financial activities, as well as the spiritual life of the Church. The Society is one of the largest contributors to the children's Fresh-Air Society.

The celebration will be observed by all societies with the same program. This program has been prepared by the State president, Rev. Edgar T. Read, and the general secretary, James O. Moul. It will open with a service of song, followed by prayer and Scripture reading. Letters from the State officers will be read. Two short talks on Christian Endeavor principles will follow and special music will be sung by the choirs of the local societies.

In many of the county societies and in some of the city societies the entire evening service is given up to the Christian Endeavor celebration.

The Christian Endeavor efficiency campaign will be the mark of special emphasis this year. It will have its culmination in the international convention to be held at Los Angeles in July, 1913. Maryland societies are hard at work now in an effort to get good representation at that time.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

FORD—SCHWATKA.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Virginia Schwatka, daughter of Doctor and Mrs. John B. Schwatka, of Baltimore, to Mr. John T. Ford, Jr., took place at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the Church of Holy Nativity, Forest Park. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Hugh W. S. Powers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin veiled in hand-embroidered chiffon with touches of pink and a black picture hat faced with pink. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Her only attendant was Miss Julia Wells, of Delaware, who wore a costume of white voile and lace and a black picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The best man was Mr. Robert Imbuer and the ushers were Messrs. E. G. Ziegler, Bernard J. Flynn, J. Arthur Richardson and George McG. Benson. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Ford left for a wedding journey and on their return will live with Mr. Ford's father, Mr. John T. Ford, until their own home, at Bonner road and Oakland avenue, Forest Park, Baltimore, is completed.

WHITE—BRYAN.

Miss Nina Estelle Bryan, daughter of Mrs. Annie E. Bryan, 1703 St. Paul street, Baltimore, and formerly of Centreville, was married to Mr. James St. Paul White, of Baltimore, in the parlors of St. Ignatius' Catholic Church at 10.30 o'clock Saturday morning. The Rev. William C. Ennis, rector of Loyola College, performed the ceremony. Only the immediate families and a few friends were present. The couple left on the noon train for New York and Boston. They will spend some time in the Berkshire Hills, returning via the Hudson river and Atlantic City. Mr. White is a son of Mr. John J. White, of Baltimore.

FRANCIS—HOWARD.

Miss Helen Howard, daughter of Mr. John Howard, of Washington, was married to Mr. Jack Francis, son of Mr. Luther Francis, of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, in Washington last Saturday. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Francis will reside with the former's father at 78 Prince George street, Washington.

NOTICE TO All Persons Concerned

Hereafter the County Commissioners will neither recognize nor pay bills presented by any physician for any post mortem examination of bodies of dead persons. Nor will it pay any bills presented by Justices of the Peace for examining bodies of dead persons unless it can be shown that the Coroner is not accessible and unless the Coroner is first notified of any sudden death.

Only the bills of such physicians as the Coroner or Health Officer of the county may designate to make such an examination will be recognized or paid, and no other physician will be entitled to or receive pay for such services.

This action of the Board is taken because a practice has grown up in this county whereby the Coroner and his Physician examine bodies of the dead; and a Justice of the Peace in the county will summons a Physician and he and such physician examine the same body of such dead person; thus double bills are presented to the county for payment. The county will pay no charge of any physician for such service exceeding $5.00.

By order of the Board,
