

Because we're showing an array of smart new fashions that surpasses anything that this or any other local shop has ever shown.

Every new kink and novelty is here—the latest in toe shapes, the most favored lasts.

The best STYLE is combined here with best QUALITY and best values.

Come in and Look Them Over.

C. C. JONES—THE SHOE MAN,

PHONE 222A. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Steam Heating. Sewer Drainage.
Gas and Electric Fixtures.
Hot Water Heating. Bath Rooms Remodeled.

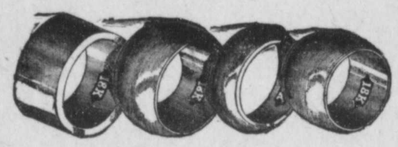

C. Kent Lambert,

SANITARY PLUMBER,

Chestertown, Md.

VENTILATING, BELL WORK, ELECTRIC WIRING, TIN ROOFING, SPOUTING, STOVE WORK.

☞First-Class Work at Moderate Prices.

A Wedding Ring

Should fit the finger. If it is too large it is a sign of shallowness of purpose. If too tight it suggests that the union pinches somehow. A perfect-fitting ring is symbolic of a perfect harmonious union. Start out right by getting your wedding ring from us. We keep the proper kind and proper SIZES, and engrave any inscription you may want free of charge.

Rote's Jewelry Store,

Phone 98D. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Ralston $4.00 to $6.00

Ralston Shoes are right up to the minute in style and "right up to scratch" in quality. Frankly we do not know any other $4.00 shoe which offers you the same splendid values you get in Ralstons.

If you like shoes which look and feel right—which are everywhere accepted as Authority Styles—wear Ralstons. Made on foot moulded lasts Ralstons do not require "breaking in".

THE "HOUN DAWG" MODEL,
PRICE $4.00.

We have had so many calls for Calf Skin Shoes that we determined to put them in stock, and now we are glad to state WE HAVE THEM—"GENUINE CALF SKIN." No frick last but a foot-moulded shape, pretty round toe and double sole. Price $5.00.

VANSANT & NEWSOME,

Progressive Out-Fitters, Chestertown, Md.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

We call the attention of our subscribers again to the requirement of the United States Government that all subscribers who are more than one year in arrears on their subscriptions must be dropped unless payment is made at once. We kindly call the attention of our subscribers to this matter, and hope that if there are any more than one year in arrears they will make prompt settlement, so that our lists will conform to the government requirements. Subscribers, please give this matter your immediate attention.

Milk Route Sold.—Messrs. John Schauber & Bros. have purchased from Mr. John N. Bennett his Chestertown milk route. The purchase consists of the Bennett wagons, cans and bottles. The Messrs. Schaubers are hustlers and are equal to the task of supplying the entire town with milk. Mr. Bennett, we understand, will sell his milk to the supply station.

New Books in Library.—The following new books have been added to the library: Miss Billy's Decision, The Delightful Miss Billy, Eleanor H. Porter; The Sanctuary, Maud H. Peterson; The Unofficial Secretary; Sharrow, Baroness Von Hutton; Their Yesterdays, Harold Bell Wright; Friar Tuck, Robert A. Wason; Davidie Birot, Rene Bezin; Almayer's Folly, Joseph Conrad.

Interesting Series of Lectures.—As exclusively announced by the TRANSCRIPT some weeks ago, the Fairlee Grange has made arrangements for a Lyceum of four entertainments during the fall and winter. Noted speakers have been engaged, and their subjects will be highly interesting to farmers and others. The first lecture will be given November 12th, an advertisement for which will appear in the TRANSCRIPT later.

Wedding Announced.—Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McShane, of Baltimore, announce the wedding of their daughter, Elizabeth Leonore Valliant, to Mr. Frederick Storr Chapman, of Albany, New York. The ceremony will be performed in the presence of only the immediate families and a few close friends at the home of the bride-elect's cousin, Mrs. William Walter Chapman, on Washington avenue, Chestertown, at high noon, on Saturday, October 12th. No cards.

The thoroughbred Guernsey bull owned by Mr. Walter T. Morris, hitched to a carriage and driven by a colored man, created much amusement on our streets last Saturday afternoon. The animal was very docile and drove like an old horse until he reached Queen street, where he espied an automobile. He then tried to wriggle himself out of his harness, but did not succeed. It was the first "Bull Moose" team seen during the campaign.

There was a killing frost in Western Maryland on Monday night, and ice formed in exposed localities. There was a light frost here on Tuesday morning.

The chestnut crop is ripening and it promises to be large.

Chestertown merchants are paying 32 cents per dozen for eggs.

Mr. Edgar J. Watson lost a valuable mule from the affects of hydrophobia.

The Worton Milk Station is paying $1.50 per hundred pounds for milk this month.

The apple crop is reported to be large and the prices offered by buyers are high.

It is stated that the Queen Anne's farmers have sold 85,000 pounds of wool this season.

Nearly all of the labor formerly employed at the strawboard mill has returned to work there.

The storm of last week put a sudden end to tomatoes and a number of our canneries have closed.

Keiffer pears have been going to market in great quantities and railroads and steamboats have been busy.

Thirty-five prisioners are confined in the Centreville jail, the largest number since the new jail has been erected.

Mr. Walter T. Pippin of this town, has been awarded the contract for the erection of a $6000 bungalow on the Suplee water front at Betterton.

Mr. P. A. M. Brooks, who sold his launch last week to Mr. Thomas Massey, has purchased a new launch much larger and with cabin, in Baltimore.

Mr. Maurice Auerbach, a well-known newspaper man from Baltimore, has accepted a position as manager of the Hub Department Store of Millington.

A dog supposed to be mad, made its appearance in Flatlands last Friday creating some excitement. It is reported to have bitten several dogs.

The Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday appointed Mr. Samuel L. Merchant, of Millington, a constable for the First District. Excellent appointment.

The all important business for farmers to attend to now is their seed wheat. You can't expect a good yield next year from poor seed. Only the best seed make the best yield. Pay a little more for it and get it.

Mr. George W. McWhorter has purchased from Mr. Robert R. Hatcherson the property on High street, known as the S. F. Smith property, and including the livery stables occupied by Mr. McWhorter for $3800.

The property and paraphernalia of the Diamond State Telephone Company has been transferred to the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company. This includes all lines and exchanges in Maryland. The consideration was $515,586.88.

Mr. P. M. Brooks, the hustling proprietor of Radcliffe Mills, received from the West this week 1900 bushels of No. 2 yellow corn and 300 bushels of prime oats which will be used to supply his greatly increasing trade. Mr. Brooks is a hustler, and he is making the kind of stuff at Radcliffe Mills which finds ready sale all over the country.

[illegible], Baltimore, is erecting a handsome monument in Chester cemetery to the memory of the late Prof. Thomas H. Topping.

Comptroller Harrington has made the quarterly distribution of the public school tax, the school book tax and high school tax to the schools of the State. Kent's share is $5,434.86 school tax; $604.76 school book fund, and $925 for high school fund.

We are advised by Mr. Thos. Bryan to say that he will occupy the farm near town now occupied by Mr. Oliver Cleaver next year. Mr. Cleaver has rented Mrs. Hope H. Barroll's farm near Kennedyville occupied by Mr. Wooleyhan.

The price of coal was advanced 25 cents a ton on October 1, and it is reaching famine prices. This is what the Republican papers and campaign speakers call prosperity. Yes, for the mine owners, and it is extortion and robbery of the people.

Through the efforts of Dr. H. C. Hughes the Government Hatchery on Tuesday turned several hundred black bass loose in Radcliffe Mill Pond. There is a very drastic law against catching bass in any other manner than with hook and line.

As reported exclusively several weeks ago by the TRANSCRIPT, the deal for the sale of Mr. C. G. Hadaway's farm in Quaker Neck, is about completed with a New York gentleman for $14,000. The deal was "engineered" by Mr. H. L. Boyd, who knew the New York party.

A shortage in the Maryland Free School Book Fund is threatened. The State was short $30,065.74 in this fund last year, the estimate being $495,500 and the actual payments amounting to $465,434.26. Comptroller Harrington will make one more payment this year. It will come this month.

The sale of the Thomas Plummer personalty advertised in the TRANSCRIPT exclusively for last Tuesday drew a big crowd and prices were good for everything sold. Auctioneer John Jester has proven himself to be a popular auctioneer, every sale called by him this season having been very successful financially.

The weather prophet is around with his impressions. He says the goose bone shows lots of snow; the squirrel and other like animals are laying in a big store of nuts and other food; the fur on their backs is unusually thick, and there is snow and extremely cold weather in England, all of which goes to show that we are to have a long, cold winter.

Mr. Charles P. Hodgkins cows got out of their pasture lot in the rear of the home of Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., on Thursday night of last week and were found at Goose Hill this week. It is believed that some one turned the cows out, as the gate was shut and the cows gone on Friday morning.

Fishing has been fine on Swan Point bar during the week. Capt. Billy Thompson, Wm. F. Wink and Benjamin Rust caught 50 doz. fine perch Wednesday. Capt. Edward W. Emory, Clifton L. Jarrell, Edward Wilkins, Wm. S. and Richard H. Collins had fine luck on Thursday, and Capt. Thomas D. France, J. Hydie Thompson, Edwin S. Valliant, Jr., of Church Hill, and Thomas D. Bowers broke the record on Friday.

The first large chrysanthemum to mature in Chestertown was cut by Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers from her flower yard last week. It was the "Unaka", a beautiful shade of pink and usually blooms the first week in October. It came a little early this year. This with another fine pure white one of the Mrs. David Syme variety were cut and sent to Mr. William H. Blakeney on the occasion of his 75th birthday last Wednesday week.

The race track on Mr. Walter Wright's farm, near town, now in course of erection, will be completed in one week, after which commodious stables will be erected. The track and grounds have been leased to Mr. Rising from Idaho for a term of two years. He will bring a string of fifteen fine horses with him, reaching here to-day, and will occupy the McMinamin stables during the winter. We may expect a matinee on the track before the cold weather sets in.

CHURCH WORK.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Oct. 6th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, followed by Sacramental Service—Reception of New Members; 2.15 P. M. Rally Day Service in the Sunday School, consisting of Singing, Recitations, and Addresses—Also special missionary Collection. All the teachers, scholars, parents, and friends are requested to be present; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service followed by brief sermon by the pastor, subject: "Wrecked;" 5th in series of "Seaside Reflections." Be sure to be present at all these services.

Rev. Carroll Maddox, pastor of Rowlandsville M. P. Church, has been transferred to Fieksburg by Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the conference, to succeed Rev. S. F. Cassen, who was transferred to Towson.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, preached a most able sermon last Sunday morning on the theme "Making the Most of Circumstances". Dr. Graham is a most excellent preacher and those who fail to hear his sermons from Sunday to Sunday, miss real intellectual treats.

The new heating plant recently installed in Christ M. P. parsonage by contractor Wm. C. Sutton, was tested last week, and it is ready to keep the pastor and his family warm as soon as the weather gets cold. The system is hot water, and the plant cost something over $600.

The series of sermons which Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, of the M. E. Church has been preaching recently upon impressions from his trip to the seashore this summer, have been greatly enjoyed by large congregations. Dr. Barrett is an able preacher, and is popular with his people and the community generally.

The meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society has been transferred from Friday to Sunday evening, the Christian Workers Service having been discontinued. The first meeting under the new arrangement will be held tomorrow evening at 6.45 o'clock. The intermediate C. E. Society, which has grown rapidly under the leadership of Miss Clara Usilton, will hold its meetings on Friday evenings.

Bishop Adams will officiate at I. U. Church Sunday afternoon, Oct. 6th, at the 3.30 o'clock service.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., pastor. Services on Sunday at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Subject of the sermon by the pastor at the evenidg service: "The Peril of Fault-finding or Accusing Others of Evil." Sabbath school 2.30 P. M., Christian Endeavor service Sunday evening at 6.45 o'clock. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Rt. Rev. William Forbes Adams, bishop of the Diocese of Easton, will preach at St. Paul's to-morrow (Sunday) morning at 11 o'clock and administer the rite of confirmation.

Mrs. C. M. V. Fallett, representative of the Florence Crittenton Mission work who is authorized to present the work, organize circles and receive subscriptions, is in Chestertown. This work is "devoted to the protection of the young, the rescue of the fallen, and the maintenance of a single standard of morals equally binding on men and women." "One of the most striking examples of what a man can do for God and humanity if he will give himself up, wholly and unreserved, to the Master's service is the life of Charles N. Cuttenton, the modern founder of this great work. Jesus Christ was the first to establish Rescue Mission. He said "I come not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."

A Pentecostal tent meeting will be held in Millington opposite the depot, beginning Sunday, October 6th, at 10 o'clock A. M., also 3 and 7 P. M. Week nights at half past seven. Will continue as long as weather will permit. If weather is inclement will begin again when fair.

People You Know.

Other personals on page 2.

Mrs. S. A. Dodd has been on the sick list during the week, suffering with a heavy cold.

Mr. Wheat, keeper of Chester bridge, was attacked with a severe chill on Monday, and has not been well during the week.

Mrs. Buckman, of Baltimore, has been visiting relatives and friends in the town and county during the week.

We are very glad to state that Mr. Edgar J. Watson, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, is greatly improved and is able to sit up. His many friends hope soon to see him in town.

Miss Julia Nicholson has been on the sick list during the week, and her sister, Miss Daisy Nicholson, has been substituting for her as teacher at Fancy school.

Mr. Griffith Clift, miller for Mr. P. M. Brooks, is quite sick with typhoid fever at his home here.

Mrs. Marian Skirven, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mrs. George W. Hatcherson, on High street during the week.

We regret to state that Mrs. J. M. Sheridan, mother of Mrs. Walter T. Morris is in the Maryland General Hospital, critically ill with what is feared to be a malignant case of blood poisoning. An operation was performed on Wednesday which was successful, but Mrs. Sheridan was taken suddenly worse in the afternoon and her case is critical. Her daughter, Mrs. Morris, is with her, and Mr. Morris and little son visited her on Thursday.

Our Advertisers.

Moody & Lusby are now displaying their usual large assortment of new fall and winter suits, overcoats, hats, caps and furnishing goods, and solicit an early call to insure best selectious.

To-day is the opening of the great display of fall and winter goods in the big double stores of the Hub, Millington. Mr. Hollins, the proprietor, has spared no effort to make this one of the greatest events in the history of his big stores, and the quality and character of the assortment is as rich as it is reliable. Go in and inspect the display to-day. You'll be sure to buy some thing that is on sale.

The choosing of a good piano is a serious problem. Wm. P. Newnam the well-known music dealer, has had years of experience in the business. Let him assist you by selling you one of his well-known makes.

E. Radnor, the reliable and popular harness dealer of Millington, has a fine assortment of street and stable blankets, Plush Robes, Harness, etc. Mr. Radnor is a practical harness maker. Let him fit your horse for the winter.

Bordley & Son's give you in their advertisement this morning two good standards for the character and quality of the brands of clothes they sell. Read then see their styles of fall and winter hats, walkover shoes and fine furnishings for men.

Fodder yarn 6¢ cents at Kilbourn & Bramble's, Fairlee.

Mrs. George W. Smith is the agent for the celebrated Spidella corset. Selection and fitting done in your home. Phone or send post card to Mrs. Smith, Chestertown, Md., and she will respond promptly.

Read A. Cohen's new advertisement. Bagains in every department. He has added a new department of clothing, and it is full of goods at way down prices. He will pay 30 cents per dozen for eggs all the week.

Fall shoes are in great demand at C. C. Jones', the shoe man, and he has a fine assortment of styles and lasts. Get fixed up for winter.

RAG-TIME AND CLASSIC

opera or the latest song, sacred or popular music, it matters not what, all can be enjoyed and reveled in by the player who has a good piano. The choosing of a good piano is a serious problem; one cannot go into every detail of the manufacture, therefore the easiest solution is, buy of a reliable house, a standard make of piano, and bank on the reputation of both to give you satisfaction.

NEWNAM'S MUSIC STORE,
CHESTERTOWN, MD.
Phone No. 224.

LOUIS K. STAM,

Manager Marine Department
SOUTHERN AUTO AND MARINE SUPPLY CO.,
23-25 Light Street, Baltimore,
STATE AGENCY FOR
Buffalo and Ferro Marine Engines.

Carries a full line of MOTOR BOAT and AUTOMOBILE SUPPLIES.
☞SPECIAL ATTENTION given to county orders. Mar. 30-6m.

THE CAMPAIGN FUND
—OF—
THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE

GOVERNOR WILSON is the people's candidate and the people should pay the expenses of his campaign. The INTERESTS would not do it—Wilson is not their candidate—and they will not be permitted to do it.

Subscriptions in larger sums are earnestly solicited and also popular subscriptions in amounts of $5.00 and under.

The undersigned is bonded as Treasurer of the Auxiliary Committee, appointed to promote the candidacy of Wilson and Marshall and bonded Treasurer of the Campaign Committee of the Democratic National Committe.

Contributions received without directions to the contrary will be expended "subject to the order of the Executive Committee of the Auxiliary Committee and of no other person or body."

(Resolutions of Executive Committee of Sept. 19, 1912.) The Executive Committee is as follows: Geo. N. Numsen, W. Cabell Bruce, James A. McQuade, B. Howell Griswold, Baltimore city; Z. Howard Isaac, Baltimore county; John B. Gray, Calvert county; Walter J. Mitchell, Charles county; Sterling Galt, Frederick county; Charles A. Andrew, Harford county; John W. D. Jump, Talbot county, and Joshua W. Miles (Chairman) Somerset county.

Any accompanying requests or directions of contributors for special application of contributions received will be carried out or the contributions will be returned.

BLAIR LEE,
Treasurer.

Address, Royal Arcanum Bldg., Saratoga St., Baltimore, Md., or Silver Spring, Maryland.

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8217-0345