An Interesting Letter.

The following interesting letter, especially to our farmers, was received recently by Mr. D. B. Stewart, of the Stewart Fruit Company, from a friend in the State of Iowa. The letter is significant in that it predicts the overwhelming election of Gov. Wilson to the presidency, notwithstanding the high price of all farm products. The prosperity boogaboo of the Republicans is entirely dissipated in the fact that Gov. Wilson's election will not interfere in the least with the continuance of high prices for all farm products. The letter is as follows:

August 18, 1912.

MR. D. B. STEWART,
Baltimore, Md.:

Have been very busy since I returned home. Haven't had much time to write letters. Haven't sold my farm yet, am not itching to sell it so very much. Crops of all kinds are good here. Although the weather has been very dry, you will probably be interested in the price of farm products. Everything here sells by the bushel. Corn sells for 78 cents per bushel of 70 lbs., oats 25 cents per bushel of 32 lbs., timothy seed $1.65 to $1.80 per bushel of 45 lbs. Am not posted on the price of wheat, not much raised here; although other parts of the State report heavy yields of wheat. Some are getting 50 bushels per acre. Oats were never better than this year as to either quality or yield. One neighbor had 82 bushel per acre. I had one piece that yielded 68 bushels. That is considered good for this country. Cattle of all kinds are the highest ever known here. Good fat steers are selling in Chicago as high as $10.40 per hundred lbs. I marketed a load of hogs in St. Louis Thursday for $8.30 per hundred. So you eastern people will probably not see the high cost of living reduced soon. Feeding cattle cost $6.50 per hundred, which is higher than fat ones usually sell for. Would be pleased to have you visit me. If you come to Iowa on a trip you would see corn as good as it ever gets in the corn belt. When I returned from the east I could hardly believe my eyes; everything had grown until the country did not look natural, all in less than three weeks time. There is no Bull Moose sentiment in this country. Think Wilson will carry Iowa, although Democratic candidates are usually strongest on the start. You ought to visit Iowa during the State fair, which commences Aug. 22 to 30 at Des Moines. If you can come write me and I will meet you. If I do sell out here, will come to the Eastern Shore and take a little better look at the country. With kind regards, will close for the time.

RICH NECK FARMERS

Hear Talk By Agriculturist of Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Rich Neck Farmer's Club, of Queen Anne's county, met at the Chambers farm as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter Thursday afternoon and evening of last week and discussed advanced agricultural methods, the members of the club having proved their knowledge of the subject by winning blue ribbons at every show in which they have exhibited.

H. S. Lippincott, agriculturist of the Pennsylvania Railroad, explained his work in connection with the experiment station at Bacon, Del., previous to his advancement to the present position, demonstrating to the farmers assembled that a few acres of white potatoes, onions or cabbage would produce more net returns than many acres of the crops now under cultivation, such as wheat, corn, hay, etc. Such crops, through the agency of an exchange, he said, would not only be a source of large income to the farmers, but by the selection of uniform seed and through a system of grading and inspection a recognized standard would be created. At the same time the consumer would have less waste and higher grade food products at a lower cost, which would solve one of the problems of the high cost of living complained of.

It is the intention of the club to incorporate as an exchange and to enter into the growth of more diversified crops.

The membership of the club is limited to 15 active and 3 honorary members, representing 10,000 acres of land under cultivation. The officers and members are: W. Irving Walker, president; H. P. Skipper, vice-president; H. H. Klinefelter, secretary; James B. Newman, treasurer; Charles H. Mckee, J. Thomas Smith, B. F. Potts, Charles A. Baxter, Josiah Massey, J. McC. Rochester, Clifton L. Jarrell, J. Frank Baxter, Owen C. Smith, E. R. Anthony and Charles H. Jefferson.

The club holds its meetings monthly. The October meeting will be under the direction of the wives of the members at Ripley Park, the home of J. McC. Rochester.

ELECTORS NAMED BY PROHIBITION PARTY.

Eight Presidential electors were chosen at the Probibition Convention held last week at headquarters of the party, 1715 Guilford avenue, Baltimore. The men selected were:

Findley C. Hendrickson, of Cumberland, and J. H. Dulaney, of Wicomico, electors at large.
Daniel W. Meile, First District.
John H. Grill, Second District.
Paul H. Stewart, Third District.
John M. Parker, Fourth District.
Claude H. Igiehart, Fifth District.
Thomas E. Watkins, Sixth District.

Chairman Holme presided at the convention, which was the first held by the Maryland Prohibitionists for a similar purpose. The formal appointment of the electors took place in accordance with the legal requirements.

FARMERS SHOULD SUPPORT WILSON

Best Equipped Man For Presidency Since Lincoln.

SENATOR GARDNER'S VIEWS.

The Maine Statesman, Himself a Farmer, Declares That President Taft Would Continue to Tax Farmers of the United States and at the Same Time Compel Them to Compete With Canadian Farmers.

The reasons why those engaged in agricultural pursuits should support Governor Woodrow Wilson for president are strongly set forth by Senator Obadiah Gardner of Maine in an address to farmers.

Senator Gardner is a practical farmer, one who farms his own farm, and he is probably in closer touch and sympathy with country life and its environments than any other man in public life.

For twenty-five years Senator Gardner has been actively interested in the national grange, and for ten years he was the master of the state grange of Maine. A few years ago he came within a close margin of being elected governor of the Pine Tree State.

A little less than a year ago, when Senator Frye, who had represented Maine in the senate for thirty years, died, Governor Plaisted honored Mr. Gardner and recognized the agricultural interests of the country by appointing him to the United States senate, where he has made a most creditable record, devoting particular attention to the welfare of the great rural population of the country. He is now a candidate for re-election and will undoubtedly be successful.

In his address Senator Gardner says:

To the Farmers of the United States.

Greeting:

Being one of you and for the greater part of my life having been engaged in the practical everyday duties of my own farm, having been for twenty-five years past officially at work through boards of agriculture and the national and state granges, having served four years as second officer of the national grange and as master of the Maine state grange ten years, during which time the order in Maine added 35,545 members and attained a power and influence never held before, I feel I am in a position to speak from the standpoint of one who knows the farmer and his needs, and it is solely because of this that I am prompted to address you.

For years farmers have justly complained of being required to pull at the short end of the yoke because of unfair and unjust discriminations in legislation and transportation, and at the present time the farmers are charged with being the cause of the high cost of living when as a matter of fact, taken collectively, the amount invested in their business, the hours devoted to hard labor and everything connected with the details of agricultural life—they are, as a whole, the poorest paid class of people in this country while relatively the most important.

During all recent years farmers have been told what a great blessing has been theirs through the so called protective tariff, and yet to find a market for their principal crops they have had to compete in the markets of the world where the price is fixed. But suddenly it is discovered that the farmer is the sole cause for the high cost of living, and what happens? The president (Mr. Taft) with a total disregard for the interests of the farmers, submits a plan to open up to competition with the farmers of the United States the products of Canada while being careful to preserve the tariff or more correctly speaking, the tax on all the farmer has to buy, which as clearly as anything can exposes the hypocrisy and "humbuggery" of the claim that the tariff is any benefit to agricultural as compared with manufactured products.

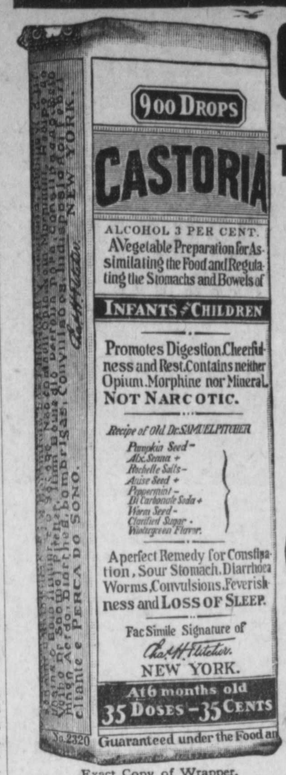

Now, the farmers of this country have an opportunity to benefit themselves that has never appeared within my recollection, as the Democratic party has been compelled by the force of public opinion to nominate a man for the presidency who is the best equipped for that high office of any that have been nominated or elected since Lincoln—a man that I speak of from a personal acquaintance with and a knowledge of his fitness; a man of great natural ability, splendidly educated, not theoretically, but practically; a keenness of intellect remarkable for its grasp of every condition with which he is confronted; an indomitable courage to do right, and, above all, a great, broad tendency with and sympathy for all classes. He will make one of the most accessible presidents ever in the White House and through whom none will be refused a hearing, however humble, nor fail to receive justice at his hands. He is truly a marvelous man, and I wish every person in the United States could know him as I know him. And supplementing all these qualities is the addition that his home is one of perfect balance.

None can meet the splendid Mrs. Wilson and her three refined, cultured daughters with their perfect naturalness but must feel that the whole family of Woodrow Wilson was especially prepared to fill a great need in the present crisis in the history of our country, as were Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln, and I would advise the farmers upon my reputation as a man if you want to protect your own interests and those of your families, if you want to render the greatest possible good to your country and future generations, if you want to contribute your part to the end that popular government under God shall not perish from the earth, then see that the Hon. Woodrow Wilson is elected president.

THE PEOPLE AND THE CURRENCY.

In dealing with the complicated and difficult question of the reform of our banking and currency laws it is plain that we ought to consult very many persons besides the bankers, not because we distrust the bankers, but because they do not necessarily comprehend the business of the country, notwithstanding they are indispensable servants of it and may do a vast deal to make it hard or easy. No mere bankers' plan will meet the requirements, no matter how honestly conceived. It should be a merchants and farmers' plan as well, elastic in the hands of those who use it as an indispensable part of their daily business.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

"Wilson and Marshall" looks good, sounds good as good.
