Gertrude Leimbach

Ladies' Apparel Shop

230 N. HOWARD STREET,
BALTIMORE,
Third Floor, Eisenbrandt Building.
(Take Elevator).

THE NEW SERGE DRESSES

She was tired and just a wee bit fretful. She had been down town all morning searching for a one-piece dress, sweet and pretty and chic as blendid with the charming personality she possessed.

A few minutes' rest in the big comfortable rocking chairs at The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach, Baltimore, soothed her spirits and refreshed her body.

AND THEN, in 15 minutes she had found a serge dress to her liking, fitted it, paid for it and said: "Next time I am coming to The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach FIRST. I've been all ovor Baltimore and couldn't find anything near as nice, to say nothing of the extremely reasonable price, which is a revelation to me."

When it comes to style, it takes a woman to know what women like—that is why dresses shown by The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach, Baltimore, are more pleasing and satisfactory. Besides this, not having heavy rents and enormous operating expenses to add to the initial cost, the prices are decidedly lower, the savings correspondingly greater.

$4.89 to $15.00

For Serge Dresses Worth $6.00 to $25.00.

A young college student by t... of Charles E. D... Cain, the president of the college, m... this statement on Wednesday to t... Sun and American reporters, who go... on the trail of a "dandy subject for ... sensational writeup," which statement ... proves conclusively that there is noth... ing in Ebberts' story.

"I recall distinctly the circumstances of the case," Dr. Cain said, "Ebberts, soon after he entered college, complained of a sore throat and I told him to keep to his room until he was well. The doctor said the boy had tonsilitis.

"A few days after that I went away, and when I returned I found a letter from a brother of Ebberts, in Baltimore. This stated that the boy had been hazed. I immediately called young Ebberts and asked him if he had been hazed. He denied emphatically that such was the case. When I showed him his brother's letter he admitted that he had been 'guyed' by the upper classmen.

"Shortly after that the youth asked permission to go home and he notified me from Baltimore that he wished to resign, giving as his reason the advice of his physician. That his ill health had had anything to do with his supposed hazing I had no idea.

"I have made a rigid investigation, but have failed to find any indications of hazing. I have done everything in my power to discourage such a thing."

Dr. Cain's version of the matter has been substantiated by several of the Sophomores and other students, who declare that Ebberts was not initiated at all, but simply a homesick boy and didn't know what other excuse to make.

QUEEN ANNE'S TO HAVE FAIR.

First Show of the Kind for County in Centreville November 23.

At a meeting of representative business men of Centreville, held in the Courthouse Tuesday night, an organization looking to the promotion of a county agricultural fair was formed. The fair will be held in Centreville Tuesday, November 23, and farmers from all sections of the county will be asked to contest for the various prizes. About $500 in cash prizes will be awarded and the day will be considered a sort of a home-coming day for old residents of the county, falling as it does just before Thanksgiving holidays.

The officers of the organization named Tuesday night are: President, J. L. Nichols; first vice-president, W. T. Wright; second vice-president, William McKenney; third vice-president, Thomas J. Keating; fourth vice-president, Senator J. Frank Harper; treasurer, Z. R. Collins; secretary, S. Charles Walls.

The executive committee is: First district, Dudley G. Roe; Second, W. Irving Walker; Third, R. T. Earle, Prof. T. S. Luck, Prof. B. J. Grimes, R. W. Thomas, J. T. Holland and Z. R. Collins; Fourth, W. T. Stevens; Fifth, James H. Carter; Sixth, J. Milton Arringdale; Seventh, Charles W. Clements.

The object of the organization will be to promote greater interest in the growth of farm products. Last spring a corn-growing contest was started through the schools of the county and about 20 boys entered. Cash prizes will be given the boys making the best exhibits. There will be prizes for poultry and flowers and a special for the best showing by a district. Other prizes will be in the literary department for public school pupils.

This is the first fair of any sort that was ever attempted to be held in Queen Anne's county and the residents have much concern as to the outcome. The county executive committee will outline plans next Tuesday.

Birthday Party.

Liftle Miss Emma Jarrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell, entertained twenty-six or more of her little friends at a "moving picture party" in Stam's Hall on Friday evening last, the occasion being her seventh birthday. After the show the guests were invited to Titter's restaurant, where dainty refreshments of ices and fancy cakes were served. The birthday cake was the principal decoration. It was decorated with pink icing and surmounted by seven pink candles. The color scheme at the tables was pink to correspond. The little folks were chaperoned by the grandmother of the hostess, Mrs. Emma Snitcher, and by Mrs. J. H. Sides. They enjoyed a royal good time.

Everybody's Doing It,

DOING WHAT?

Why the best and only thing they can do—to save the "pennies," which, owing to the stringency of the times, are so hard to get.

Thompson knows how hard it is to make both ends meet, and now that his annual reduction sale is over, we propose to continue to give the very best bargains for the smallest amount of money obtainable. The proof of the pudding is chewing the string, and if you will give our stock an inspection and allow us to quote our prices we will cheerfully accept the result.

At last we have found the "one thing needful," and that is a guaranteed rubber boot, the ARROW BRAND, used by lumbermen and miners all over the United States to the exclusion of other brands. One merchant's sales increased from one season to the next over 500 per cent., showing the absolute reliability of the article.

Thompson is not in business for glory, but to make an honest, square livelihood, and it is his endeavor to give you your money's worth every time. Recollect, if a shoe does not wear as it ought, it is not his fault, and he will do everything to right the matter if possible. Any complaint, come right back and see if you cannot be satisfied. All dealers have complaints, and he is not an exception, but all he asks is to let him help satisfy you.

We know you cannot do better than with us. We will guarantee your money's worth, good treatment and satisfaction every time.

So do what others are doing, try us and be convinced.
