My dear Sir

I hope you arrived safe in Washington, and found your friend Gen Scott in good health. I am doing all I can for his election, and I do not hesitate to say that he will be the next President of this Great Republic; all that is necessary for all & every Whig now to do, is to go to work, and my word for it, we will succeed. I have an idea of coming up through your section of the Country shortly and make a speech in his favor; what do you think of the idea? I think I could make a very good stump speech. I invested the whole of that Money ($10) you gave me, in purchasing a ticket, and what do you suppose I drew; Well Sir I drew nothing, and you may rest assured that it is the last & first ticket I shall ever purchase. I did not intend to lay out the whole, but I was advised to buy the ticket by the Lottery Man, and I done it. I will not however let that occur again with me. I am very anxious to see you, when will you be in the City again, I wish to have a long Conversation with you about my future prospects &c, Could you not at your earliest convenience inform me when you will be in the City, anything I can do for you here, my dear and esteemed friend will be cheerfully done at anytime by

Yours very Truly
