GRAND

MASS MEETING

—AND—

Democratic Rally

—IN—

FIREMFN'S HALL, CHESTERTOWN,

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22d,

Afternoon and Evening.

SPEAKERS:
HON. ISAAC LOBE STRAUS,
HON. HENRY D. CLAYTON,
Congressman from Alabama;
HON. J. HARRY COVINGTON,
Candidate for Congress, and one other good man.

GEORGE E. NOLAND,
JAS. E. MORRIS,
CHARLES L. DODD,
State Central Committee for Kent Co.

Let him who is without sin cast the first stone, Mr. Dodd.

GOV. WILSON'S majority will be so big in November that Teddy and Bill won't be able to see over it. Even Pennsylvania will be included in the landslide.

GOV. WILSON is the people's candidate. What are you doing to help him? Those of you who did not give a dollar to the TRANSCRIPT fund, send it to Senator Blair Lee, treasurer. You certainly ought to do something more than cast a vote for Wilson.

DID we not tell you that when Senator Raynor and Congressman Cockran got together that the fur would fly? Senator Rayner got in some powerful licks, but one or two sallies from Congressman Cockran made the Maryland Senator a little groggy.

WE trust that the Anti-Organization forces will be driven from power forever in this county if any of its adherents ever resort to such dirty and contemptible methods of politics as have been exhibited through the columns of the Kent News by its contributing editors in the last two weeks.

GOVERNOR WILSON slept peacefully through a train accident on Friday in which his own car was slightly damaged, and arrived in Omaha on Saturday to be greeted by a large crowd at the railroad station. The Governor knew nothing of the accident until informed of it next morning.

AT a Democratic mass meeting at Towson on Tuesday last former Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus, in his speech on the tariff question referred to Senator John Walter Smith's record on tariff on lumber as follows:

"And in this connection I have often thought some one should speak a word of warning to the Democrats of this State. If these be Democratic principles that I have announced, Maryland should not be represented in the United States Senate by a man who voted for a tariff on lumber. Democrats are pledged to oppose special privilege; it makes no difference whose private interests are benefitted."

IF any one doubts the popularity of William Jennings Bryan he should have read of that wonderful meeting with Gov. Wilson on Saturday in Mr. Bryan's home town, Lincoln, Nebraska, when 100,000 people turned out to do honor to Governor Wilson and the Peerless Leader. One of the most remarkable facts of modern history is, that notwithstanding the three defeats of Mr. Bryan for the presidency, he is more popular with the people than ever before, and the politicians don't like him simple because he has the spunk to give them a jab in the fifth rib every once in a while. Only a great man could hold the esteem of the great mass of the people under such circumstances, and in our judgment Bryan is one of the greatest man ever raised in the United States.

WE ACCEPT MR. DODD'S DARE.

Mr. Charles L. Dodd in his characteristic article in the Kent News last Saturday stated that we would not dare publish the amount of money the TRANSCRIPT has received out of the county in late years. We accept his dare, and say that during the six years he was clerk to the Board of Commissioners, and had the disposal of some $250 or $300 worth of printing every year, a hasty glance at our books shows that WE RECEIVED $3.50 PER YEAR FOR EACH OF THE SIX YEARS OF HIS INCUMBENCY IN OFFICE. THE KENT NEWS GOT THE BALANCE. If Mr. Dodd wants an itemized account of this $3.50, we shall gladly furnish it. Mr. Dodd and others are making a great to do about what the TRANSCRIPT is getting. Better be honest and tell a little about what the other fellow has gotten and is still getting.

WILSON LEADS IN 23 OUT OF 29 "DOUBTFUL" STATES.

The New York Herald's straw ballot shows 69,046 voters polled—30,261 for Wilson, 20,748 for Roosevelt, 13,055 for Taft. This canvass is for the most part in States usually considered doubtful. For the first time, Pennsylvania is put in this column, for no one seems to know just what will happen in that State, which often piles up Republican majorities of 300,000.

Taft, the Herald finds, has become "noticeably stronger, Republicans in several States who have gone over to the Bull Moose camp having returned to the Taft fold." But he has not gained nearly enough to put him in the running, the canvass showing him still a bad third. Taft gains are reported in Maryland, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Minnesota and Michigan. "This movement is in part offset, however, by the apparent decision of many 'scared Republicans to cast their votes for Wilson.'"

In the straw ballot Wilson leads in 23 States of the 29. And the reports of correspondents indicate an even greater lead than the straw vote shows. For instance, in Connecticut, where Roosevelt is one vote ahead, the politicians of all parties acknowledge that if the election were held now, Wilson would carry the State. Maine and Massachushetts are claimed for Wilson, leaving Taft in New England only Vermont and New Hampshire, and he is not certain of these. Rhode Island is considered very doubtful. One genuine surprise is Pittsburg, the Roosevelt stronghold, where Wilson is in the lead.

In California Wilson polled 11,433 to Roosevelt's 9,094 and Taft's 9,122. The exclusion of Taft's electors will undoubtedly have a considerable effect on the result, which is yet to be shown. Roosevelt in the straw vote is leading in Illinois, Michigan, Washington, Idaho; Taft in Utah and Wyoming. Yet the political experts expect Wilson to carry Illinois, Wyoming and Michigan. For in those States the Democrats could win if they merely hold their normal vote. But they are gaining considerably more from the Republicans than they are losing to Roosevelt.

If the straw votes show which way the wind is blowing, there's nothing to it but Wilson.

CHURCH WORK.

Three persons were received into membership in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday morning, one on probation and two by certificate.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham preached a strong sermon to a crowded house last Sunday evening on "The Peril of Fault-finding or Accusing Others of Evil."

Rally Day will be observed in Christ M. P. Church to-morrow (Sunday). A program of special interest will be rendered at the Sunday school service.

Rev. Mr. Connelly, the popular pastor of Piney Neck M. E. Church, was a welcome caller at the TRANSCRIPT office last Monday. He is impressed with his work in Piney Neck. He states that his congregations are large, his Sunday school is growing all the time, and the work generally is in splendid shape, all of which we were much pleased to hear.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M.. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday Oct 13th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject "The Dove That Came Home" 2.15 P. M. Sabbath school; 7 P. M., Epworth League Song Service followed by short sermon by the pastor, subject: "Safe to Land" 6th in series of "Seaside Reflections." All welcome.

The services in the M. E. Church last Sunday were interesting and deeply spiritual. A large congregation was present and the sacramental service following the pastor's short but pointed sermon was solemn and impressive. At the close seven persons joined the church. In the afternoon the Sunday school held Rall Day services. There were choruses and quartettes, nicely rendered and an address by Mr. Norman Jefferson. The missionary offering amounted to over $65.00. Mr. H. H. Klinefelter, the superintendent, had charge. The missionary banner for the month was awarded to Miss Bessie Stuart's class.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., pastor. Special Rally Day services on Sunday. Preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Morning subject: "Hard Places for the Christian." Evening subject: "God's Challenge to Unbelief." Rally Day exercises in the Sunday school and Missionary offering at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at 6.00 o'clock. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 o'clock. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Revival services will begin at Trinity M. E. Church, South, Millington, Sunday evening, October 13th, to continue for two weeks. Rev. J. P. Stump, of Ingleside, will be present the first week and do the preaching. Services will begin at 7.30.

THE GRIM REAPER.

MISS ANGELINA VENABLE.

Mrs. Angelina Venable, one of the oldest residents in this county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James French, near town, on Tuesday aged 83 years. Funeral services were held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. French, near town, yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

It is with much regret that we announce the death of the first baby in Kent county to be named for Governor Woodrow Wilson. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wheat, of near Worton, who had been given the name of Woodrow Wilson, died on Monday. Interment was made at St. Paul's. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

HAZEL M. NEWCOMB.

Hazel M., the 3-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newcomb, of Lynch, died on Saturday. Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon; interment in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

We received an interesting letter on Thursday from Mr. Samuel J. Comly who has been in the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, for eleven weeks for special treatment. He states that he is improving and hopes to get out of the hospital the coming week. His many friends will no doubt be glad to learn of his improvement in health.

Mrs. Woodford, mother of Rev. T. R. Woodford, of the Baltimore Book Concern of the Methodist Protestant Church suffered a second stroke of paralysis last week, and is in a critical condition.

Millie Christine Dead.—Millie Christine, said to be the greatest twin freak of human anatomy, exhibited in Chestertown years ago, once presented to Queen Victoria and possessing apparently two separate and distinct beings with one body, died on Wednesday at the old homestead, in Columbus county, North Carolina, where they were born in slavery. They were born to negro parents and died within a few hours of one another, aged about 60 years.
