A Wedding Ring

Should fit the finger. If it is too large it is a sign of shallowness of purpose. If too tight it suggests that the union pinches somehow. A perfect-fitting ring is symbolic of a perfect harmonious union. Start out right by getting your wedding ring from us. We keep the proper kind and proper SIZES, and engrave any inscription you may want free of charge.

LOCAL MATTERS

Granted Absolute Divorce.—Mr. John Clarence Coleman, of Chestertown, has been granted an absolutely divorce from his wife, Bessie Biggers Coleman.

The Transcript Brings Results.—The following letter was received by us Tuesday last: "Inclose 25 cents; please continue advertisement for eggs one more week. Just received another order. The people must read the TRANSCRIPT as we had our order filled by 8 P. M. Saturday.

Mr. Brown Suffers Fire Loss.—Early last Saturday morning fire destroyed the large new barn on Mr. Henry Brown's farm in Quaker Neck, completely destroying it together with three cows, two caives, one horse, 40 tons of hay and all of his seed wheat. The origin of the fire is unknown, as are most of the fires at this time of year. The loss is estimated at $3,500 with a partia insurance of $2,000. in the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company and James G. Beck agency. Four years ago Mr. Brown suffered the loss of his outbuildings in the same manner.

Operated Upon for Cataract.—After nearly a quarter of her long life spent in blindness, Mrs. Amanda Garrett, 84 years old, of Chestertown, underwent an operation for cataract on the eye in Franklin Square Hospital, Baltimore, on Tuesday, which, it is believed, will restore her sight. Although weakened by the shock, Mrs.Garrett stood the operation well and Tuesday night was reported resting easily. Anxiously waiting the result of the operation was her granddaughter, Miss Edna Copper, a senior nurse in the hospital. When her grandmother was removed from the operating table she was taken to the ward over which Miss Copper had charge.

Wedding Announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Eliason, of Mt. Pleasant, Del., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Blanche Lodge, to Mr. John Boyt on Thursday, October 24th, at 4 o'clock P. M. The ceremony will take place at Forest Presbyterian Church, Middletown. A reception will follow immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mt. Pleasant.

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Edith W. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Scott, of Elkton, and McCullough Walmsley, of New York. The wedding will take place in the Elkton Presbyterian Church on October 30.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Bertha N. Jump to Mr. Clinton C. Jones. The ceremony will be performed in Salem Methodist Episcopal Church, Fairlee, on Saturday, October 19th, at 9 o'clock in the morning. No cards in the county.

As announced exclusively by the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Leonore Valliant to Mr. Frederick Storr Chapman, of Albany, N. J., will be solemnized at high noon to-day at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman, on Washington avenue. A luncheon to the bridal party, the immediate families and a few close friends will follow the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will leave for a wedding tour and their future home in Albany.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

You can hardly give keiffer pears away this year.

Not even the days in June are any rarer than the grand October days.

Messrs. Needles Bros. are painting the woodwork of the M. E. Church.

To-day is Columbus Day. It has been declared a legal holiday by the Governor.

The Chestertown Gas Company has contracted with Mr. C. Kent Lambert to do its plumbing work.

Mrs. Wm. E. Ringgold had in bloom on Sunday night a night blooming Cereus with 13 blooms. It is the second time it has bloomed this year.

Robert Anderson, son of Mrs. Mary B. Anderson, of Cecilton, left last week for San Francisco, where he has accepted a position as teacher.

The pupils and teacher of Chesterville School will hold a festival and county store on Friday evening next. Miss Pauline Copper is the teacher in charge.

There were so many guests at the Voshell House on Monday night that proprietor Ferguson was compelled to sleep several in rooms secured from neighbors.

The thermometer registered 84° in the shade on Tuesday. It was the hottest October day for many years. Thursday also was not a cool day by any means.

We would respectfully suggest to the Board of Town Commissioners that Main street from the Voshell House to Front Street be oiled to protect it from wear and tear.

The Pomona Grange will meet at Kennedyville Tuesday, October 22, 1912. The annual election of officers will take place at this meeting and a full attendance is desired.

William L. Smith, of Cecilton, has made an assignment to John H. Black for the benefit of creditors. Mr. Black has filed his bond in the amount of $2,000, with R. B. Merritt and John Anderson as sureties.

Sheriff Wm. H. Mckee went to Galena on Saturday and arrested two negroes charged with stealing a horse and selling it. He got his men. He also landed in jail a colored man and women presumably of unsound mind.

The Volunteer Fire Company entertained its members and a number of friends at an elaborate oyster scold on Wednesday evening. More than sixty members and friends were present and the oysters were fine and served in splendid style.

That party that went to Swan Point fishing, composed of Messrs. Edwin S. Valliant, Jr., Medford Walls, of Church Hill, T. D. France, J. Hydie Thompson and T. D. Bowers, ciceroned by Capt. Maurice Wilson, got 31 dozen fine perch and 18 fine rock, the largest rock weighing 7½ pounds, and several others weighing 5¾ pounds each. It was one of the greatest day's sport ever enjoyed with hook and line, and don't say we didn't enjoy the fun, so much so that we went again on Wednesday, and broke the record.

Mr. Charles W. Kibler has accepted the position of buyer of straw with the American Strawboard Mill.

The case of Pennsylvania Railroad Company vs. William Foster Clark, an appeal from the Circuit Court for Kent county was argued in the Court of Appeals this week by William W. Beck for the railroad and Hope H. and L. Wethered Barroll for Mr. Clark.

Mr. Samuel Burgess, superintendent of tomato shipments from Shipyard Landing in the Fifth District, says that all estimates of tomato shipments from Kent county are entirely too low. Mr. Burgess states that 90,000 baskets have been sent from Shipyard alone. Somebody get up the correct estimate.

Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell, the well-known stock dealer, of Galena, and Democratic Supervisor of Elections, fell out of his stable loft one day this week and injured his shoulder quite badly. He is arranging for another big cattle sale next Thursday at his stables in Galena. The advertisement appears in another column.

S. Scott Beck, attorney for Mr. Harry Richardson, whose horse was badly damaged on the county road, near Lankford by falling in a hole, resulting in a suit against the county, has taken an appeal. The case will be heard in the Court of Appeals during the fall term.

At the regular meeting of the Mount Vernon Literary Society last Saturday night, the following subject was debated: Resolved, that hazing should be abolished. On the affirmative were: Messrs. Landing and Keller; on the negative, Messrs. Pardew and Wheatley. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

Mr. Rising, who has leased the new race track at Radcliffe Park for two years, arrived in Chestertown this week with a string of seven or eight finely-bred colts one and two years old. He has rented Mr. Owen C. Crow's stables on Calvert street, pending the erection of the track stables. The track is being put in condition this week, and it is hoped to have the first matinee this month.

Oysters are reported to be scarcer on Swan Point Bar this year than ever. Many of the oystermen declare that all the large oysters were killed by the severe cold of last winter, and that the oysters being caught are small. The oystermen say that where it was possible last season for two men to make $15 and 18 bushels a day, on [illegible] or 10 bushels can be caught at present. The price has also been low.

Mr. John Silcox has on display in the Lofland & Culp show window four mammoth quinces which were grown on a four year old tree in his yard on Mill street. The fruit is a beautiful golden color, without spot or blemish, and it may be a contestant for a prize at the New York Land Show. The tree bore eleven quinces whose combined weight is 8 pounds.

The ladies were encouraged in their effort in selling old papers and magazines, and have determined to make another collection. They ask for the co-operation of every one. Collins, Charles Satterfield, Walter Bennett, Charles S. Smith, T. D. France, R. F. Parks, W. H. Waddell, H. F. Jefferson, Jervis Spencer, W. F. Russell, Horace Reed, Hope H. Barroll, Ralph Barnett, Wm. McKee, W. B. Copper; Misses Hope Sappington, Anna Lewis.

Base Ball Notes.

Chestertown and Galena base ball teams played a rattling good game of ball on Thursday afternoon on Ford's field, the victory going to Galena by the score of 5 to 3. Horsey, one of the best pitchers of the Tri-State League was in the box for Galena, and Jarman, one of the crack pitchers of the Ohio State League pitched for the locals. Both pitchers showed professional class of the big league sort, and were well supported. A good crowd attended the game and saw a hot contest.

In the first game of the great series for the World's Base Ball Championship in New York on Tuesday, the Boston team defeated the New York Giants, score 4 to 3. Tesreau and Crandall pitched for New York, and Wood for Boston. More than 35,000 people saw the contest.

The second game which was played in Boston on Wednesday before a crowd of 30,148, resulted in a tie score of 6 to 6. Mathewson pitched for New York and Collins for Boston.

The third game was played Thursday and was won by New York by a score of 2 to 1.

RAG-TIME AND CLASSIC

opera or the latest song, sacred or popular music, it matters not what, all can be enjoyed and reveled in by the player who has a good piano. The choosing of a good piano is a serious problem; one cannot go into every detail of the manufacture, therefore the easiest solution is, buy of a reliable house, a standard make of piano, and bank on the reputation of both to give you satisfaction.
