NUPTIAL EVENTS.

CHAPMAN—VALLIANT.

A quiet though beautiful wedding was solemnized at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Chapman, on Washington avenue, at high noon on Saturday last, when Miss Elizabeth Leonore Vailiant, daughter of Mrs. H. D. McShane, of Baltimore, and a cousin of Mrs. Chapman, became the bride of Mr. Frederick Storr Chapman, a prominent young business man of Albany, N. Y. The home was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, potted plants, palms, ferns, chrysanthemums, and with the soft light streaming from pink shaded candlabras, presented a most charming setting for the happy event. Promptly on the hour, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, skillfully rendered by Mr. Harold Chapman, of Hartford, Conn., brother of the groom, the bridal party consisting of the groom and his best man, the matron of honor, and the bride, leaning on the arm of her step-father, Mr. H. D. McShane, proceeded to the parlor where the beautiful ring ceremony of the Protestant Episcopal Church was impressively performed by Rev. Dr. H. B Martin, rector of Emmanuel Church. The bride wore a handsome gown of white charmeuse, elaborately trimmed with old point lace and pearls, and tulle veil, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman, wore a beautiful gown of pink charmense, trimmed in velvet of the same shade, and a large picture hat of black velvet. She carried a large bouquet of pink roses. The groom and his best man, Mr. Wm. Sloane, of Hartford, Conn., wore frock coats, with gray trousers and tie and gloves to match. Masters Walter and James Chapman were ribbon boys, and were dressed in white. Immediately following the ceremony, an elaborate luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left on the afternoon train for an extended wedding tour and for their future home in Albany, N. Y. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McShane, Master Carlton McShane, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, mother and father of the groom, Mr. Beardsley, a college friend of the groom, and Mr. Harold Chapman, brother of the groom, of Hartford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Valliant, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Valliant, Jr., and the Misses Faithful, of Church Hill, Mr. Earle Withgott and friend of Easton, Mr. and Mrs Curtis E. Crane and daughter, Miss Louise, Miss Hallie Westcott, Mr. Samuel Vannort, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers, of Chestertown.

ALDERMAN—GRAVES.

On Wednesday evening, October 16th, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levinus C. Graves, Blacks, Maryland, was married at Shrewsbury Church to Mr. Haywood L. Alderman, of Greensboro, North Carolina. The church was decorated with beautifuly colored autumn leaves, potted plants and cut flowers and the altar bright with lights in silver candelabra. To the music of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Mary Janvier and preceeded by the ushers, Mr. William Graves and Mr. William Janvier, and the maid, Miss Mary Graves, the bride approached the altar with her father, where they were met by the groom and his brother, Mr. Charles W. Alderman, as best man. The cousin of the bride, Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, assistant of Old Trinity, New York, and the Rev. H. W. Robinson, rector of Shrewsbury, performed the ceremony. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played as the recessional, the bridal party returning to the home of the brides parents where relatives and friends soon greeted them with wishes for a long and happy life together. Many handsome and useful gifts in silver, cut glass, linen and household ornaments attested the esteem in whith the bride is held, and after a pleasant evening enjoyed by all, the wedding party was driven by automobile to Middletown, Delaware, enroute to Baltimore, Washington and other points before returning to Greensboro, where they will be at home after November 1st. The bride's going away suit was a dark blue tailor made, her wedding gown, charmense satin trimmed with chantilly lace, her veil of bridal illusion and her ornament a crescent of pearls and sapphires, the gift of the groom. The maid wore pink messaline with lace and carried white carnations. The bride's shower bouquet was of bride roses and lillies of the valley. Guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Alderman, Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Mary Graves, Wilmington, Del.; Miss Carrie Merritt, Miss Rose Comegys, Millington, Md.; Miss Mary Wallis, Georgetown, Md.; Mr. Richard Price, Middletown, Del.

STEINBACH—WATKINS.

Miss Edna May Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Watkins, of Baltimore, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, of Chestertown, was married to Mr. Rozier L. Steinbach, of Baltimore, on Wednesday. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 2621 St. Paul street, at four o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. J. W. Kirk, of St. John's M. P. Church. The home was decorated with flowers, plants and streamers of ribbon. The bride wore a blue traveling suit and a black picture hat. After a brief reception, Mr. and Mrs. Steinbach left for a southern wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside at 723 East Forty-first street. Mrs. James Btice, grandmother of the bride, attended from Chestertown.

SIEGEL—WHALEY.

After having spent several years in India as a missionary, Miss Cora Roberts Whaley, of Church Hill, returned six months ago and was married on Monday at the Methodist Protestant parsonage, in Centreville, by Rev. J. L. Nichols to Herman Arthur Siegel, of Philadelphia.

NOTICE TO

All Persons Concerned

Hereafter the County Commissioners will neither recognize nor pay bills presented by any physician for any post mortem examination of bodies of dead persons. Nor will it pay any bills presented by Justices of the Peace for examining bodies of dead persons unless it can be shown that the Coroner is not accessible and unless the Coroner is first notified of any sudden death.

Only the bills of such physicians as the Coroner or Health Officer of the county may designate to make such an examination will be recognized or paid, and no other physician will be entitled to or receive pay for such services.

This action of the Board is taken because a practice has grown up in this county whereby the Coroner and his Physician examine bodies of the dead; and a Justice of the Peace in the county will summons a Physician and he and such physician examine the same body of such dead person; thus double bills are presented to the county for payment. The county will pay no charge of any physician for such service exceeding $5.00.
