LOCAL MATTERS

Grange Meeting.—There will be an important meeting of the Chestertown Grange in Fraternal Hall on Monday afternoon next at two o'clock. All members of the grange are urged to be present.

Jurors Excused.—The following jurors for the October term of court which begins on Monday have been excused—George E. Albee, Walter M. Kenley, T. B. Durding and Charles M. Bacon. There have been drawn in their places—Samuel G. Caldwell, Samuel S. Hurlock, Edwin R. Wallis and Thomas Rasin.

Boston Wins Championship.—The Boston Red Sox won the title to the world's base ball championship by winning four games to three for the New York Giants and one tie. This has been one of the most successful series financially in the history of the great national game, and each of the Boston players will receive over $4,000, while the New York players will get about $3,000 apiece.

College Wilson Club.—The Woodrow Wilson Club of Washington College has been re-organized and will at once begin work for the Wilson cause. Political spirit is waxing high on College Hill this fall. And since the club has been fortunate in securing an office in town for its headquarters where all the students, irrespective of party affiliation, are cordially invited to meet and discuss party issues, the club should prove beneficial both to its constituents and to its peerless leader.

Wilson Headquarters.

Woodrow Wilson headquarters have been established on Court street, and a young lady, Miss Halbert, of Baltimore, stenographer and typewriter has been employed to look after correspondence, etc. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., has kindly donated the use of his vacant store room adjoining his office. It has been nicely furnished with chairs, tables and with a quantity of campaign literature, which is at the disposal of all Democrats of the town and county who care to go in and take a seat. It is understood that this headquarters is for the pleasure and enjoyment of every Democrat in the town and county, and the members of the Woodrow Wilson Club of Washington College are especially invited to come down and enjoy the reading, and hold a business meeting there, if they desire.

While sewing wheat on Wednesday on his Fancy farm, a piece of the drill flew up and struck Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson a severe blow over the eye, inflicting a gash which required the attention of a physician.

Mr. Wm. H. Lambert, watchman at the Court of Appeals building in Annapolis, will please accept our thanks for two cuts of himself and his big 12 pound rock, whose capture by Mr. Lambert with his ten foot pole and night line off the Severn river bridge has set the ancient city wild. In one of the photos Mr. Lambert and Col. Gadd, another enthusiastic fisherman, are seen with the big fish suspended from the rod between them. Fishing is still fine.

Messrs. Edwin S. Valliant, Sr., Edwin S. Valliant, Jr., Arthur Reed, and W. D. Wallace, all of Church Hill, hold the record for the finest catch of fish made on Swan Point this season, perhaps. Last Friday, piloted by Capt. Henry Urie, they caught 275 fish—150 perch from 10 to 13 inches long, 15 fine rock, one 5 pound trout and the balance good medium perch. Mr. Valliant, Sr., landed the trout, and proved himself to be a skilled fisherman. It was a great day's sport.

CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M.. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

The Rally Day service in Christ M. P. Sunday school last Sunday afternoon was of a very interesting character. There were interesting exercises and recitations by the junior and primary scholars, and the musical selections, with Mr. Arthur Bacon as cornetist Miss Anna Smyth pianist and Miss Marghuerita Dodd organist, were inspiring and beautifully rendered. An important feature of the exercises was the missionary collection by classes. The total collection amounted to more than $36. Class No. 1, taught by Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard won the banner, contributing $13. It was presented in a splendid speech by Mr. Landing, of the College. The total attendance for the afternoon was 150, among whom was Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort who, on account of continued illness, had been unable to attend Sunday school and church for nearly three years. Mrs. Stewart Matthews class won the attendance banner. Every one present received a dainty souvenir and Rally Day button.

Horse Notes.

Trainer E. H. Johnson, of Delaware and well-known here, has returned home with his string of horses from the fairs, having participated in 41 races and secured purses in 38 races. This has been the best season that Mr. Johnson has had with his horses. The horses he has campaigned were Silver J. 2.14¼; Dr. Volman 2.16½; Queen Marie 2.17¼ and Somerset Boy, trial 2.13¾.

Herman R. Tyson, the Wilmington horsemen who is now on the Southern circuit, has had a most successful week at Richmond, winning four races, finishing second in one and third in one. This represented considerable money, as none of the purses were less than $300, and one was a $2,000 purse. The result of the week at Richmond was as follows:

Miller Boy, entered in 2.20 trot, $500 stake race, won first money, fastest heat being 2.20¾.

Harry J. S., entered in 2.15 trot, $1,000 stake, won first money, time 2.13¾.

Prince Helico, entered in 2.18 trot, $600 purse, won first money, time 2.16¼.

Areo, entered in 2.20 trot, $300 purse, won first money, time 2.21¼.

John W., entered in 2.17 trot, purse $300, second money, time 2.17¼.

Dago, entered in 2.17 trot, $2,000 purse, third money, time 2.12½.

Mr. Rising, who has leased Radcliffe Park track for two years, and has his fine string of seven horses with more to follow, quartered in Mr. Owen B. Crow's stables on Calvert street for the winter, may be seen every favorable day driving some of his string on our thoroughfare.

Our Advertisers.

Wm. Medders, of Still Pond, has just returned from New York where he has been making preparations for his great 1912 Christmas display. You know Christmas is always a big feature with Medders, but from what he tells us this year his Christmas display and assortment will be the best ever. That is saying enough, and Medders guarantees it.

When you visit Baltimore in search of up-to-date and attractive suits, coats or dresses of any style, do not forget to visit the Ladies Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach. She leads the leaders. If you do not intend to go to the city send for catalogue. She attends to all orders promptly.

William A. Burk, the shoe maker, has recently installed a full and complete line of one of the most reliable makes of men's, women's and childrens' shoes. If anybody knows what a good shoe is, certainly a shoemaker knows, and when you go to buy a pair of shoes you have the advantage of Mr Burk's knowledge of shoes. Give him a chance to suit your foot.

Wednesday, October 23rd, next, is the date of the great fall opening at M. Kramer's big department store in Rock Hall. We ask you to read M. Kramers advertisement on page 2. His advertisement is absolutely reliable, and if you don't get things there as they are advertised, Kramer will return your money. Get a handsome souvenir with every purchase of $1 or more.

How foolish it is to buy a so-called custom suit, made by a woman on a sewing machine, when you can save from $3 to $5 on the Adler-Rochester tailored suits, ready-to-wear sold by Bordley & Son.

15 per cent. and over is a good investment and the opportunity is at hand in the property offered at public sale by Joseph Guest, Oct. 26th, if not disposed of by private sale before above date. This is calculated on a value of $5000. See his advertisement in this issue.

TO PROSPECTIVE

Tomb-Stone Buyers

Anyone who may desire a duplicate of the Topping Monument can get it here at home for considerably less than what was paid for this one. I will save you all extra expense that a dealer away would have in erecting one here. You will not be asked to pay a penny until the work is completed. Then if it is not as good in every respect as the one now erected, you are not obliged to accept it. You take no chances whatever when you deal with me.

In all classes of Monument and Tomb-Stone Work you will find my prices lower than city prices. We are always glad to give estimates.
