OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

COME HERE FOR FINE MILLINERY.

A GREAT FALL CAMPAIGN!

Plans are laid for great political activity this fall. We presume that every voter of the country will give expression to his best judgment of the merits of the contending parties.

Also, great preparation has been made at this store for a far-reaching campaign in valuable merchandise, and we fully believe that after a fair inspection of our goods, a comfortable majority of buyers will find it to their advantage to do their fall shopping here.

☞ Everything is Ready for You Now!

SUITS!

To make provision for our growing trade in Ready-to-wear Goods, we now utilize one-half space of second floor for Suits and Coats.

Our Suits and Coats are made for us by the reliable firm, "STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER," and shipment of over one hundred Suits is here from which you can make a splendid selection.

☞ Also, we take Special Measurements for Suits and Guarantee a Fit.

We suggest that you come in early before rush season comes.

Fashion's Authority Styles.

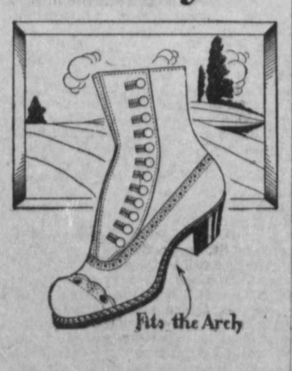

WE are now showing the advance style creations of the famous J&K designers—the leading makers and originators of fashion footwear for young women.

J.&K. Shoes of Individuality.

All of the latest up-to-date models — in the most popular shapes and leathers—are represented in our varied assembly of J&K style leaders.

We invite an early inspection while the line in complete.

Miss Susie Jones was the guest several days last week of relatives and friends in Wilmington, Del.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church met on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. C. M. Hurtt.

Mrs. J. S. Barwick, of Sudlersville, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey.

Mrs. B. W. Duling returned home Tuesday after spending several days in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. W. N. Pippin, of Middletown, Del., spent Friday of last week at Central Hotel.

The town was shocked on Tuesday evening at the news of the sudden death of Dr. N. M. Jeter, a prominent physician of this town. After eating his supper Dr. Jeter went up to his bed room with a lamp in his hand, he set the lamp on the mantel in his room and it was supposed that he started to go to a chair which was sitting near the mantel, but before reaching the chair he fell to the floor. His wife, hearing the fall, rushed to his room and found him lying unconscious on the floor. She called her son, Julian, who stayed with his father, while she, herself, ran for the assistance of Dr. Brice, and when they returned life was extinct.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Taylor and daughter, Dorothy, spent Wednesday of last week in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Elsie Dixon, of near town, is visiting friends in Philadelphia, Pa., and Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Sudler G. Weist, who has acted as clerk in the postoffice for the past 18 months, has resigned. Mr. Homer Walls, of near town, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. The change will take place about Nov. 1st.

Little's Cross and Crown System is being used in Asbury M. E. Sunday school.

Miss Mary Hackett, of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Ella Boyer, of Dover, Del., were guests this week of Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

Mr. Thomas S. Faulkner died at his home near town last Sunday, aged 58 years. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Ella. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon. Interment in Galena cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Mrs. F. C. Numbers and daughter, Miss Helen, spent Wednesday of last week in Wilmington, Del.

The Sunday School Convention of Kent county will meet in Asbury M. E. Church on Tuesday, October 29th. A hearty welcome is extended to all. Come and spend the day with us and help to make it a pleasant one.

Still Pond Notes.

Miss Ida Jewell has returned to her home in Baltimore after a pleasant visit to Misses Elizabeth and Sallie Jewell.

Mr. Willie Ford spent the week-end with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Ida Wood is spending sometime with friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Anna Parsons, of Baltimore, visited her cousin, Miss Ethel Robinson, over Sunday.

Mr. A. J. Hackett and son, Nelson, spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

We are going to have a concrete walk laid from Mr. Parr's corner to Mr. Thos. Bradley's. The work will begin right away, and it will be a great improvement to our little town.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Atwell and children, of Millington, visited their many friends here.

Mr. Jewell Thompson left Monday for Baltimore, where he will learn his trade as barber. We wish Jewell success.

Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore visited Baltimore during the week.

Mrs. Caleb Jarvis, of Baltimore county, spent sometime with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Ricards.

Mrs. Hawkins visited Chestertown this week.

Don't forget Reopening and Home Coming Week begins this Sunday, October 20, lasting until November 3rd. Everybody invited to be present. The Calendar Club will give a reception Saturday night, Oct. 26, to the months, weeks and days. Try to be present.

Big fall opening at Kramer's store next Wednesday. This is the first time they have had an opening of this kind and by the looks of cases being opened it bids fair to be a success.

The workmen for the Bell Telephone Company, who have been running wires, installing phones and switch board, will finish up the work this week. There were about one hundred phones installed in this section besides party lines.

The schools of Rock Hall will be closed next week on account of Teachers' Institute.

Spence Urie and Charlie Harrison had a party of three sportsmen, from Baltimore, out last Tuesday for a fishing trip. They had good fishing; catching perch and rock.

George Ashley and son, John, spent several days in Baltimore this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Buckler, of Baltimore, spent a few days this week with Mrs. Buckler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Satterfield.

The faculty of the Rock Hall High School have recently added to their reference library 22 volumes of the international encyclopedia. This is one of the latest publications and has interesting reference up to date.

Matinee races here to-day.

A large crowd attended the festival held here Saturday evening. A splendid supper was served and quite a large sum realized.

A party of young folks went joy-riding to Church Hill Sunday evening.

Miss Ella Fowler has been spending the past two weeks with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rasin, Mrs. P. B. Rasin and daughter, Miss Helen, and Mr. Carroll Loller, spent Sunday with friends in Rock Hall, making the trip in Mr. Loller's automobile.

Miss Eunice Cooper visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moffett near Kennedyville a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rash and Miss Florence Jewell spent Sunday in Betterton.

The Mite Society was entertained in a most hospitable manner at the home of Mr. John Duyer on Wednesday afternoon.

Revival services are still being held at Union M. E. Church, and will continue throughout next week.

The weather man says that the weather thus far in October has been abnormally warm. That's all right. It is past and gone, and fishing is still fine, and just so we don't have an abnormally cold winter, we can get along nicely.
