WOODROW WILSON, of New Jersey.

THOMAS R. MARSALL, of Indiana.

PRESENTATIVE IN THE SIXTY-
CONGRESS FROM THE FIRST
NGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:
ES HARRY COVINGTON, of Talbot County.

CHIEF JUDGE OF THE SECOND
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT:
ALBERT CONSTABLE, of Cecil County.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:
(At Large)
ES T. TRUITT, Wicomico.
ERT E. LEE, Baltimore.
(District)
ALBERT W. SISK, Caroline.
FRANK T. SHAW, Carroll.
WM. SHEPPARD BRYAN, Balto.
JAS. McC. TRIPPE, Baltimore.
LOUIS C. CARRICO, Charles.
E. A. BAUGHMAN, Frederick.

E can win with Wilson, but we must working all the time.

MR. TAFT says he can't understand w voters can fail to vote for him. He l know all right after November 5th.

CE MARKS ONLY are neces- vote your ticket in the election. make one mark for President and ce-President, as they will be in the ame group; one for Congressman and one for Chief Judge. You need not mark for the eight electors.

HON. J. HARRY COVINGTON made a fine impression upon the voters by his splendid speech on Tuesday night. Mr. Covington has made a most capable representative in Congress, and he should, and we are confident that he will, receive an overwhelming majority on vember 5th.

ONG those who have forwarded butions for the Democratic cam- fund other than those mentioned week are R. H. Collins and T. D. vers, each $5; Geo. E. Noland, $3; an A. Harris, C. E. Noland, S. H. odd, Rev. S. S. Hepburn and Alwyn Stavely, $1 each.

THE mass meeting and Democratic rally in Firemen's Hall on Tuesday afternoon and evening was one of the most enthusiastic ever held in the town. Large crowds attended each meeting, and the speakers aroused much enthusiasm for the success of the Democratic ticket in November 5th.

CHESTERTOWN has been an unusually interesting place this week. Kent's able and efficient corps of teachers have been assembled in annual institute, court has been in sesion and a great Democratic mass meeting was held in Firemen's Hall on Tuesday afternoon and evening. Business has felt the boom.

THE election is one week from next Tuesday. The date is November 5th. No good Democrat can afford to remain away from the polls on that day. A man who has his country's interests at heart, and who prizes the welfare of himself and family, owes it to his country and his family to cast a ballot on November 5th for what he believes to be for his and his country's best interests.

FORMER Attorney General Isaac Lobe Straus, is his masterly address at the mass meeting here on Tuesday, said: "I am in favor of Woodrow Wilson for President because he stands on a platform of equal human rights, broad enough for all humanity to stand on with him, and because, if elected, he will be guided by sympathetic and enlightened understanding of the interests of the whole people and by a supreme determination to maintain their general and universal welfare through a common, equal all-prevading justice."

EUGENE W. CHAFIN, Prohibition candidate for President, stated in Baltimore the other day that, from his observation of conditions in parts of the country where he has spoken, Gov. Wilson will win a sweeping victory in November. President Taft says that either he or Governor Wilson will be elected. Colonel Roosevelt says that the fight is between him and Wilson, and that Taft is not in it. Governor Wilson is "sawing wood." The logical deduction from such reasoning as this is that Mr. Chafin, President Taft and Col. Roosevelt, all believe, yea, even know, that Gov. Wilson will be elected by an unusual majority.

MESSAGE FROM JUDGE WICKES.

We are in receipt of a message from Hon. Joseph A. Wickes in which he requests us to say that as soon as he has sufficiently recovered from his illness to write, he will send a letter in reference to the conversation which he had with Mr. Hicks concerning Mr. Urie and the account which he as State's Attorney presented against the county. Judge Wickes requests us to say that he has been delayed writing in reference to the matter by sickness. The Judge also states to us that he read on the 10th of October for the first time Mr. Hicks' letter, a copy of which had been cut from the TRANSCRIPT.

Judge Wickes is an esteemed subscriber to the TRANSCRIPT, but had left town for Baltimore before the issue containing Mr. Hicks' letter appeared. Hence he did not see Mr. Hicks' letter until two days before Mr. Urie's letter appeared in the Kent News, which said that Judge Wickes had authorized a denial of Mr. Hicks' statement.

REMEMBER, YOU ONLY HAVE TO MAKE THREE CROSS-MARKS ON YOUR BALLOT NOVEMBER 5TH. ONE FOR WOODROW WILSON FOR PRESIDENT AND THOMAS R. MARSHALL FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, ONE FOR J. HARRY COVINGTON FOR CONGRESS AND ONE FOR ALBERT CONSTABLE FOR CHIEF JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT.

THE GREATEST ISSUE.

The greatest issue in this campaign is the Tariff. Mr. Roosevelt, the Progressive candidate for President, is just as much of a stand-patter on the tariff as is President Taft. He did nothing more to reduce the burdens of the tariff from the great mass of the people during his administration as President than President Taft has done. The great moneyed interests of the country have divided their support between Taft and Roosevelt, so that in the event of the election of either their interests will be protected. THE ONLY WAY, THEREFORE, FOR THE GREAT MASS OF THE PEOPLE WHO SUFFER THE INIQUITIES OF THE TARIFF, TO PROTECT THEMSELVES AGAINST THE GREAT MONEYED INTERESTS, IS TO VOTE FOR WILSON AND DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMEN AND LEGISLATUREMEN WHERE THEY ARE TO BE ELECTED, SO THAT A DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT MAY MAVE A DEMOCRATIC SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES THAT WILL WORK IN HARMONY IN THE INTEREST OF THE PEOPLE, That is the only way the people can ever hope for relief from the burdens of an unjust tariff law.

NEED NOT MARK FOR ELECTORS.

The following instruction has been sent out by the Supervisors of Elections to the Judges of Election:

The judges are notified that a X in the box opposite the names of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates—Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall—carries with it all of the electors, so that only one cross mark is necessary to vote for President. In other words, according to this instruction you will have to make only three X on the ballot in order to vote the Democratic ticket.

SAMPLE BALLOT.

Here is how you must mark your ballot on the day of election. Remember, you don't have to vote for the electors. We said you did last week, but we were in error. You simply put three marks on your ballot. Here is a sample of how it should be marked:

FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT:
WOODROW WILSON AND THOMAS R. MARSHALL X
PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.
AT LARGE.
JAMES T. TRUITT, Wicomico county.
ROBERT E. LEE, Baltimore city.
DISTRICT.
ALBERT W. SISK, Caroline county.
FRANK T. SHAW, Carroll county.
WILLIAM SHEPPARD BRYAN, Baltimore city.
JAMES McC. TRIPPE, Baltimore city.
LOUIS C. CARRICO, Charles county.
E. A. BAUGHMAN, Frederick county.
FOR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:
J. HARRY COVINGTON X
Talbot county,
FOR CHIEF JUDGE:
ALBERT CONSTABLE X
Cecil county.

You have no marks to make except one for President, and Vice-President, one for House of Representatives and one for Chief Judge.

To the Hon. Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Md.

We, the grand jury for Kent county for the October term of 1912, beg leave to make the following report:

We have been in session five days; have carefully considered 35 cases; have had the three constables of the county before us; have examined 74 witnesses, for a few of whom we have issued summons; have made 30 presentments and found 29 true bills.

We would recommend the different Treasurers of the funds for political purposes to be more careful in the future to render their reports in itemized forms concerning all expenditures and receipts in compliance with the law.

We also recommend that the Pennsylvanio R. R. Co's. attention be called to the crossing at Lambson and Massey stations, and others that need repairs and danger signals.

We made a visit to the jail and inspected the whole premises and the different cells inside. We found 26 prisoners whose quarters were comfortable and clean. On the whole we congratulate ourselves that we have done our best to bring to justice every violator of the law, whether the offence be a crime or a misdemeanor.

We further recommend that the Board of County Commissioners for Kent county appropriate sufficient funds to aid the State's Attorney in securing assistance in the prosecution of his duties in apprehending and convicting violators of the local option law.

We thank the State's Attorney and officers of the court for their courtesy and assistance in the performance of our most responsible duties.

Respectfully submitted,
HARRY C. WILLIS,
Foreman.
