Kilbourn & Bramble,

FAIRLEE, MARYLAND.

A GENTLEMAN said the other day—"where is the full dinner pail the Republicans used to talk so much about?" The other fellow said—"Why it takes so much money to buy food to fill it nowadays, that the Republicans ain't saying much about it." That's the truth brother. The full dinner pail is an "empty" argument with the Republican tariff protectors, when they know that ham is selling for 20 cents a lb., pork for 25 cents a pound that could be bought several years ago for 10 cents a lb., and the farmer sells meat and pork getting no more for his live stock than he did years ago.

NEED NOT MARK FOR ELECTORS.

The following instruction has been sent out by the Supervisors of Elections to the Judges of Election:

The judges are notified that a X in the box opposite the names of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates—Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall—carries with it all of the electors, so that only one cross-mark is necessary to vote for President. In other words, according to this instruction you will have to make only three X on the ballot in order to vote the Democratic ticket.

STANDPAT LOGIC.

The Republican National Committee is conducting an extensive advertising campaign in magazines and street cars. Here is one of the prize arguments advanced therein:

The population of the United States is, in round numbers, 100,000,000 people, 93,000,000, to be exact.

Receipts from tariff duties for the year ended July 1 were $312,000,000.

You pay just $3.46 a year for protecting the country and for insuring yourself against the competition of the cheap labor and huge surplus manufactures of Germany and England, France and Italy, and other countries.

Under absolutely free trade, with all duties removed you could not save more than this $3.46 a year. Under a tariff for revenue only you would save less than that.

What lovely logic!

It isn't what comes in the country that counts most, it's what doesn't come in.

The protective tariff is a high wall that bars out cheap commodities of all sorts.

You pay $20 or $25 for a suit of clothes that you would get for three-quarters that amount or less if no tariff was placed on woolen goods. By that one transaction you lose more than the $3.46 in question, and it is only an insignificant portion of the whole.

Cut down the tariff duties and these goods will flow into the country. The total tariff duties will be as great as they are now, or greater, perhaps, for more goods will be coming in, but the cost to the consumer will go down.

The tariff receipts per capita have as much to do with the cost to the consumer as the cobblestones of Baltimore have to do with the war in the Balkans.

Foot Ball Notes.

Washington College journeyed to Washington last Saturday and defeated the strong Catholic University team by the score of 7 to 2. A touchdown was made by means of a forward pass from Meekins to Lewis behind the opponents' goal line. Healy, the new man from Connecticut, made his initial appearance with the college team and added considerable strength to the squad by his consistent and heady playing.

The last game of the season on the home grounds will be played this afternoon with the deaf mutes from Gallaudet College. This should prove a mighty interesting game as the mutes are a strong aggregation and have been putting up a fine game all the season. A big crowd should be on hand to help Washington keep up its fine record.

St. John's defeated Maryland Agricultural last Saturday morning by the score of 28 to 0. Washington College last year beat the Aggies, and in Baltimore on Thanksgiving Day walloped St. John's to the tune of 12 to 0. Washington has yet to play both of these teams. Let us all hope that she may be able to duplicate her record of last season and clinch her title to the college championship of the State.

Hicks' Forecasts for November.

A regular storm period is at its center on the 1st and reaching to the 5th. The Moon is in perigee on the 3d, and on the celestial equator on the 5th. The temperature will rise, the barometer will continue to fall, cloudiness will increase, and about the 3d, 4th and 5th, rain, wind and thunder storms will culminate during consecutive days, passing eastward to the Atlantic. Behind the storms the barometer will rise, winds will change to westward, with snow squalls and much cooler weather.

A reactionary storm period falling on the 6th, 7th and 8th, with new Moon on the 8th, threatening weather will continue over from the 5th, bringing a return of falling barometer, change to warmer and increasing storms of rain and wind on and touching the 8th and 9th. These storms will end in dashes of early snow and change to very much colder, about the 9th, 10th and 11th.

A regular storm period involves the 11th to the 16th, being central on the 13th. The Mercury and Venus periods will both be felt in the disturbances of this period, and to the end of the month. Storms of this period will culminate on the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th—first to the west and thence progressively, day by day, to the eastward.

A reactionary storm period falls on and touching the 18th, 19th and 20th. There will be electrical storms centering on and touching the 19th, the date of the Moon's crossing the celestial equator. A regular storm period involves the 23d to 28th.

BRIEFLY STATED.

Some reasons why you should vote for Wilson:

Because he is a progressive with no temperamental disqualifications.

Because he will attack the high cost of living in the only way it can successfully be attacked through legislation—by lowering the tariff and by re-establishing competition.

Because his record in New Jersey proves him to be a most efficient executive and a fine judge of men.

Because he is a beliver in parties and party organizations who yet have never found it necessary to bargain with the bosses, and never will.

Because he is a splendid thinker as well as an efficient doer.

Because he has found out how to do things in office without unsurping authority not his own nor stretching the laws.

Because if he isn't elected the election will be thrown into the House, a deadlock will result and heaven knows what will happen.

And there are other good reasons.

Circuit Court.

SATURDAY.

Court convened at 9:30 o'clock, Judges Adkins and Hopper on the bench. The case of State vs. A. Merritt Spry for keeping a gambling house and for violation of the local option law was tried before a jury. Verdict guilty. A plea of guilty was entered in the other cases. The court sentenced the prisoner to 12 months in the House of Correction in each of these cases, and suspended sentence in two others. Vickers for State, S. S. and W. W. Beck for defense.

Case of State vs. George Erskine for violating local option law was next called. Plea of guilty entered. Verdict guilty. Parolled in the custody of S. E. Erskine, of Queen Annes. Vickers for State, S. Scott Beck for defense.

Case of State vs. John Edwards for larceny and for unlawful use of Mr. R. J. McWhorter's team was called. Plea of not guilty was entered on larceny charge, but accused was found guilty on second count and sentenced to six months in House of Correction. Vickers for State, W. W. Beck for defense.

State vs. Wm. Monroe for assault with intent to kill. Court trial; verdict guilty. Fined $10 and costs or committed until same are paid. Vickers for State, W. W. Beck for defense.

State vs. Marshall Butler for carnal knowledge. Court trial; plea of not guilty was entered.

MONDAY.

Court convened at eleven o'clock on Monday morning with Judge Adkins presiding. Judge Hopper was detained at home on account of illness. The case of State vs. Andrew W. Vansant for forging the name of Thomas C. Roe to a note in the Kent County Savings Bank for $100, was called and consumed the entire day and evening in trial. The case was given to the jury at a late hour on Monday night, and after some deliberation, a verdict of "not guilty" was rendered. S. Scott Beck and Wm. W. Beck appeared for Vansant and H. W. Vickers for State.

TUESDAY.

State vs. Edw. Lusby, colored, for larceny. Plea of guilty. Court trial; verdict guilty. Sentenced to six months in House of Correction. Vickers for State, W. W. Beck for defense.

State vs. Roy Butler for larceny. Court trial; verdict guilty; sentenced to six months in House of Correction. Vickers for State, W. W. Beck for defense.

State vs. George Sampson for larceny of pocketbook containing $14 from Other Rasin. Court trial. Verdict guilty. Vickers for State, S. Scott Beck for defense.

The case of State vs. Walter Byard for stealing a horse and selling it was tried before the court. Verdict guilty, sentence was suspended with the understanding that Byard is to pay Mr. Morgan, from whom Byard purchased the horse, the balance due him. Otherwise sentence will be imposed.

The case of State vs. Albert Turneau, a sixteen-year-old boy, for murder of Bud Simmons on Eastern Neck Island some months ago was tried before a jury. This is a case in which it is alleged that the little boy struck the man with the flat end of a spade in order to get from him his (the boy's') money which it was alleged Simmons had taken from the boys vest pocket. The case occupied the attention of the court and jury all day and until 9.25 in the evening when it was given to the jury. After being out all night, the jury came into the court on Wednesday morning and stated that they were unable to agree upon a verdict, and were discharged. It is said that the jury stood 9 to 3 for acquittal.

The jury was discharged by the court. Judge Adkins called the little boy before him and in a most impressive manner gave him some fatherly advice after which the case was stetted and the little fellow was allowed to go back to his home with his parents, who were present at the trial. The court room was crowded during the trial, and there was much sympathy for the boy.

WEDNESDAY.

State vs. Fred Thomas for violation of local option law. Jury trial. Plea of not guilty. Vickers for State, W. W. Beck for defense. Verdict guilty. Nine months in House of Correction.

State vs. Junius Smith for stealing a coat. Continued to next court. Prisoner released on her own recognizance.

State vs. John Sheppard for disorderly conduct on streets of Chestertown. Appeal case. Court trial. Verdict guilty, sentenced to 6 months in House of Correction.

The case of State vs. Andrew Vansant for forgery was tried before the court. Mr. Benj. Dill, whose name was alleged to have been forged appeared and confessed judgment and the court held Mr. Vansant not guilty. The State's Attorney stetted all the other cases against Mr. Vansant and he was released from custody.

After hearing this case court finally adjourned.

NOTICE TO All Persons Concerned

Hereafter the County Commissioners will neither recognize nor pay bills presented by any physician for any post mortem examination of bodies of dead persons. Nor will it pay any bills presented by Justices of the Peace for examining bodies of dead persons unless it can be shown that the Coroner is not accessible and unless the Coroner is first notified of any sudden death.

Only the bills of such physicians as the Coroner or Health Officer of the county may designate to make such an examination will be recognized or paid, and no other physician will be entitled to or receive pay for such services.

This action of the Board is taken because a practice has grown up in this county whereby the Coroner and his Physician examine bodies of the dead; and a Justice of the Peace in the county will summons a Physician and he and such physician examine the same body of such dead person; thus double bills are presented to the county for payment. The county will pay no charge of any physician for such service exceeding $5.00.
