SELLS IT FOR LESS

Means that you can buy the same goods for less money than you can buy it anywhere. Some of our competitors try to imitate us and go as far as to try to compel the drummers not to sell us any goods, so that we shouldn't undersell them. Makes no difference how hard they try to stop us, we will always sell it for less, that is the way we do business.

SPECIAL SALE ON WAISTS

49c buys a Waist that will not pay for the material that's in it—mannish style.

65c buys a Waist worth easily $1.00, cool and comfortable for these extreme days.

75c buys a Waist that anybody might feel proud to wear, embroidered, looks like real hand work.

Royal Worcester and Bon Ton

CORSETS

The BON TON is the "Corset du Luxe" for well-groomed women—the recognized standard of Corset perfection. The prettiet woman lacks charm unless she has the wit to be well-groomed—that is neatly, becomingly dressed—and above all, trim of figure.

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS emphasize a naturally good form and create attractive curves where none existed. A superb figure is within every woman's power if she will but wear the Royal Worcester Corsets. Scores of the most exquisite and fashionable new designs now on display at CARMINE'S.

CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M.. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

Preparations are being made for an interesting Harvest Home service at St. James M. P. Church to-morrow. The church will be elaborately decorated with the fruits of the garden and field, and a committee has been appointed to distribute the products to those who may be in need.

Interesting revival services have been in progress at Wesley Chapel during the week. Mr. Dupuy, the pastor, has had the assistance of Rev. Mr. Rice, of Ruthsburg, and the meetings have been spiritual and helpful. Rev. O. H. Connelly, of Piney Neck M. E. Church, will assist next week.

The Wilmington M. E. Conference has been invited to hold its next session in Crisfield. The invitation was extended to the entertainment committee through the pastor of Crisfield church, Rev. W. E. Habbart. The invitation carries with it free entertainment.

The appearance of Rev. Aaron S. Watkins, of Ada, Ohio, Prohibition candidate for Vice-President, at the weekly meeting of the Wilmington Methodist Preacher's Association in Grace Church on Monday stirred up a hornets' nest in that body.

The association comprises all the Methodist Episcopal preachers of Wilmington and vicinity. When the nominee appeared there was objection, and before he began his remarks all three members of the curators' committee resigned.

The aspirant for the Vice-Presidency made his speech and was listened to by more than 30 prominent clergymen. Its effect, however, is doubtful.

A number of the preachers are Progressives. When Rev. Mr. Watkins arrived, escorted by a committee of local Prohibitionists, with several ministers as a furthur bodyguard, Revs. W. A. Wise, formerly of Centreville, F. F. Carpenter and T. F. Beauchamp, all of Wilmington, members of the curators' committee, who direct the procedure of the ministerial body, objected to the candidate speaking. They demanded that the program originally outlined be carried out, but were voted down, and then they resigned.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., pastor.—Regular services on Sunday at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. The subject of the sermon for the evening service: "Religion Used by Those Who Do Not Believe It." Sabbath School 2.30 P. M. Juniors meeting at 6 o'clock. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor.—Services next Sunday, Nov. 3rd, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject: "A Voice From the Other World"; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League Song Service, followed by short sermon by the pastor. All invited and welcome.

The services last Sunday at the M. E. Church were very impressive. The chancel and pulpit were tastefully decorated with flowers, grain and fruit. The sermon of the pastor was in keeping with the occasion—direct, spiritual and positive. At the close of the sermon a class of young people were admitted into full connection into the church, and three joined on probation. The collection for benevolent purposes was large. At the close of the evening service a young man came to the altar and was converted. Revival sevices will begin Nov. 10th.

Miss Sue Dumbracco presided at the pipe organ with skill on Sunday at the M. E. Church servicess in the absence of the organist, Miss Mabel Toulson.

Kennedyville Items.

The fine weather of the past week will give the tillers of the soil an opportunity to finish sowing their wheat.

Mr. Walter Hill is shipping corn from Kennedyville station.

The school bell is again heard in our village, calling the girls and boys to the place of learning.

Mrs. Rachel Hill and Miss Ada Hurlock made a trip to Baltimore on Saturday last.

Rev. William Clews, the newly called pastor for the charge including Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton, with his wife and son and household goods, arrived in our village on Monday evening of this week. The new minister and family will occupy the dwelling portion of the old hotel building, owned by Mr. W. A. Pote, and which has been put in order for the family named above.

In the M. P. Sunday School last Sunday morning the popular superintendent, Mr. John Medders, and two of the efficient teachers, Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux, in addition to those named some weeks ago, were awarded the beautiful gold buttons and certificate of the "Little Cross and Crown System" for their attendance for thirteen consecutive Sundays.

The evangelistic revival services at the Methodist Protestant Church, begun last week, are being well attended and the interest seems to be increasing. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Mullineaux, is being assisted this week by Rev. H. S. Johnson, pastor of Dover M. P. Church.

Mr. Robert Fogwell and Miss Ford, of Galena, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell, near Kennedyville, and attended services at the M. P. Church Sunday morning.

Order of services for next Sunday at the M. P. Church: 9.30 Sunday school, subject, "The Sign and the Leaven:" 10.30, Decision Services, following brief sermon by pastor; 7.00 Christian Endeavor and song service: "The Christian Virtues" [illegible] Zeal; [illegible] services. A
