LOCAL MATTERS

Wedding Invitations Out.—Mrs. Wakeman Bryarly Munnikuysen has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Annie Bryarly, to Mr. William Warwick Reynolds on Saturday November 16th, 1912 at four o'clock in St. Mary's Church, near Belair.

Old Pool Abandoned.—Owing to a crack which has recently developed in the wall and bottom of the pool near Mr. Edward Robinson's house, the water board has abandoned the use of this pool. They state that they have an ample water supply from the other two pools, without using the artesian well, which can be used if needed.

Improving Worton Track.—The old Worton race track is having a large amount of improvement being made to it, the home stretch being drained at the upper end, also the big barn is being repaired and large box stall's made on each side with a large drive way between, and an office room. Mr. George Sutton has now a fine string of 6 horses and is getting them in fine shape for the Chestertown Matinee. The track will be run another year under the management of Messrs. Edw. Stouffer and Geo. E. Sutton and also two other trainers. Mr. Sutton expects to train during the winter months and expects to give a large driving day and free Matinee this fall.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

The Worton Milk Station will pay $1.60 per 100 pounds for milk this month.

Worton school is closed by order of the school board on account of sickness.

Mr. Marcus Asher informs us that he will buy keiffer pears after the election for 10 cents per basket.

Mr. P. W. Carrier, who recently purchased the Wallis property in Worton, has opened a general merchandise store there.

Miss Laura Lusby has lost nearly her entire flock of 90 fine turkeys from the cholera. She has only three or four left for the winter.

Mr. Harry C. Stanley has returned to Still Pond and will re-open his barber shop there. He is a fine barber and deserves your patronage.

Contractor Walter T. Pippin is laying the foundation for Mr. J. F. Thompson's new garage, automobile paint and repair shops on his lot on High street.

The purchaser of the Joseph Guest property at private sale last week was Mr. George Bell. We were not at liberty last week to state who the purchaser was.

Dr. H. Benge Simmons, of this town, purchased the fishing property and outfit of Mr. Walter T. Jackson, his brother-in-law, of Havre de Grace, at Trustee's sale in that city last week.

The corn crop in certain sections of the county is reported to be very poor. It is also reported much shorter than usual in Queen Annes. Yellow corn is selling for 50 cents on the cob and 56 cents shelled.

To-day is the first day of the gunning season for rabbits and partridges in Kent. In Queen Annes the season opens on Nov. 15th. Rabbits seem to be plentiful in certain sections, but birds are very scarce.

Yellow perch are more plentiful in Chester river than for some years. Large quantities are being caught in pound nets, and hook and line fishing has been good up the river, off Chester bridge and down the river.

Mr. Harry Thompson, tenant on Doe Neck farm near St. James Church, has lost nearly every one of his 26 hogs from cholera. He will have only a few to kill, and will be compelled to buy most of his meat. Mr. J. Elwood Morris near town, has also lost over 100 hogs and shoats from the same cause.

A postal card from Mr. P. T. Hatcherson, Lynch, says: "Take out my advertisement for ducks, cow, etc. Have sold. Send bill." Don't you see what the TRANSCRIPT can do? Ask the ladies' of Lynch M. P. Church.

The Town Commissioners have appointed a number of additional police officers to serve on special occasions and emergencies. The following were sworn in on Friday night: Fred Robinson, Walter Wright, Hyland Crew, Mott Rollison and J. Bates Hendrix.

At the regular meeting of the Mount Vernon Litearry Society last Saturday night the following subject was debated:—Resolved that country life is better than city life. On the affirmative were Messrs. Selby and Roe. On the negative Messrs. Boswell and Ridgley. The judges decided in favor of the negative.

The Rock Hall Telephone Exchange was put in service last Friday. There will be 100 stations on this exchange. All subscribers in the Fifth District below St. Paul's Church will use Rock Hall exchange instead of Chestertown hereafter, and Chestertown exchange will be greatly relieved by the new exchange.

The Stam's Hall property has been sold by the trustees, Wm. M. Slay and R. Hynson Rogers, Esqs., to the Lyceum Theater and Amusement Company. Extensive improvements will be made to the property, making it an up-to-date theater in every respect. The bid at the public sale recently was $8600 by the same company.

The body of Archibald Evans was found lying along the track of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway, between Queen Anne and Willougby, Thursday morning. It was supposed that Mr. Evans was struck and killed by a passing train late the day before. He was about 60 years old and leaves a mother living in Denton.

District Deputy McCaffrey, of the Modern Woodmen, will be at Fraternal Hall on next Friday evening, November 8th, to confer with all members regarding the new rates to go into effect Jan. 1st, 1913. This is an important matter to the members of this order, as there are many who contemplate dropping out of the order because of what they believe to be excessive rates under the the new schedule. The late William R. Aldridge was a member of the local camp, and his claim will be promptly adjusted.

A Serious Business.

Some months ago one of our farmers living near Lankford attended a sale of personalty and purchased four cows. He took the cows to his home and shortly after they reached their new home, the owner detected signs of illness. A vetrnarian was summoned and he pronounced the cows affected seriously with tuberculosis. He ordered the cows killed and awarded the owner $15 for each cow. He paid $40 a piece for them at the sale. The purchaser was a loser from this one personalty sale of $100. This is not the first occurrence of this kind in the county, and it will not be the last, unless some means can be employed to require all those who hold personal property sales to give a certificate of health from an accredited veternarian on the day of sale. This means of protection is profitable, both for the seller and the buyer. It will make the owner's cows sell to better advantage at a sale, and it will protect a buyer from getting a diseased cow, and running the risk of having his whole herd infected. Dr. Jarman, our veternarian, drew up such a bill at the last session of the Legislature, and sent it to Annapolis. So far as we know the bill is still there, as no action was taken upon it. Our farmers should demand that such a law as this be passed for this county as a means of mutual protection, and we shall be glad to lend our aid in securing such legislation.

LOOK for Wilson and Marshall's names in the third column, near the middle, of the official ballot; Albert Constable's at the bottom of the first column and James Harry Covington's in the bottom group of the second column and put a X mark in the square to the right of these namas. That will mean a vote for all the Democratic candidates.

Found Dead in Woods.

The body of Mr. George Harrington, one of the oldest residents of Millington, was found in Mr. William Naylor's woods on Thursday of last week by two young men who were out squirrelling. Mr. Harrington left his home on Monday morning to go to Mr. J. E. Spear's to husk corn. He had been in the habit of going away to work and not returning until late in the week, and no alarm was felt for his absence. His family and the community were shocked on Thursday when the finding of his dead body in the woods was telephoned to Millington. He was 73 years old, and leaves a wife and four children: Mrs. Eldridge Wilson, of Millington, Messrs. William and George Harrington, of Bear, Del., and Mrs. Edward Pinder, of New Castle. Funeral services took place on Sunday from his late home at 1 P. M., Rev. A. E. Owens officiating. Interment was in Millington cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. W. J. Tolson, George Dixon, George Newnam, Chas. Robinson, George Parvis and C. M. Hurtt. Undertaker J. L. Smith had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Sleep on, dear father, sweetly rest,
We needed you, but God knew best.
God's will be done, he doeth well,
But how we miss you no tongue can tell.
Gone but not forgotten.
By his daughter, ISA.

CHURCH WORK.

Other church notes on page 3.

The ladies and friends of Lynch M. P. Church held their annual autumnal festival and supper on the 26th inst. The affair was a pronounced success and easily eclipsed any event of its kind in the past, the proceeds amounting to over $100. The ladies wish to thank all who so generously helped them. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the evening was the absence of the pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris, who was confined to his home with rheumatism. [Know the reason the supper was a greater success than ever? Because it was the first time the church had advertised in the TRANSCRIPT and the paper proved its great value. Eds.]

Rev. Dr. Manly Sharpe, the honored rector of St. Paul's in Kent, has resigned his charge and accepted the rectorship of St. Luke's P. E. Church, in Church Hill. He leaves St. Paul's carrying with him the universal regret of his parishioners.

Invitations have been issued to attend the service of installation of the Rev. William Clews in Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, on Sunday November 7th at 2.30 P. M. The following is the programme: Rev. Joel S. Gilfillan, D. D., presiding. Organ prelude. Hymn. Scripture. Prayer. Hymn. Sermon by Rev. Joel S. Gilfillan, D. D. Constituting the pastoral relation. Installation prayer. Anthem by the choir. Charge to the pastor by Rev. E. A. MacLaury. Charge to the people by Rev. F. A. Moore, D. D. Hymn. Benediction by the pastor.

The subject of Rev. G. A. Morris' sermon at St. James to-morrow morning will be: "The Unpardonable Sin." Go and hear it.

Rock Hall M. E. Church and Wesley Chapel M. P. Church will hold union services to-morrow, (Sunday). The Wesley Chapel congregation worshiping at Rock Hall in the morning and the Rock Hall congregation at Wesley in the evening.

A Mistionary Rally Day service will be held in Chesterville M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning Nov. 3, 1912. The public is invited to attend.

The King's Daughters will present the "Rainbow Kimona," a delightful comedy of school girl life, in Firemen's Hall, Tuesday evening, Nov. 12th. See adv. in this issue.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church will hold a festival in the Eliason building on High street, next Saturday evening.

Our Advertisers.

The first excursion to be run to see the great exposition, The World in Baltimore, will be run by the steamer Annapolis, Thursday, Nov. 7. See advertisement in another column.

TO LOVERS—There are lovers of music and lovers of art. They naturally frequent those places where music and art abound. There are also lovers of good perfect-fitting clothing and overcoats, and they have found that "Adler-Rochester clothing" more than satisfies them. The result is that they go to Bordley & Sons and have their eyes opened to faultless tailoring. See them for yoursleves. Advertisement in this issue.

The American Strawboard Company is advertising for straw. It is hoped that our farmers will co-operate with the company and dispose of their surplus straw. The only danger that confronts the continuous operation of the mill is the lack of straw. The mill is a great benefit to the merchants and laborers, and it is hoped that you will communicate with Mr. Charles W. Kibler, buyer for the company, about selling straw.

The 11th annivesary sale of Stewart & Co., of Baltimore, has broken all records. There are thousands of bargains on the counters and tables which have attracted great crowds. Read what they have to say in their advertisement on page 3.

Read M. Kramer's change of advertisement on page 2. He is having a big cut price sale at his store in Rock Hall. It will pay you to read about it and profit by purchasing your wares there.
