75c buys a Waist that anybody might feel proud to wear, embroidered, looks like real hand work.

Royal Worcester and Bon Ton
CORSETS

The BON TON is the "Corset du Luxe" for well-groomed women—the recognized standard of Corset perfection. The prettiest woman lacks charm unless she has the wit to be well-groomed—that is neatly, becomingly dressed—and above all, trim of figure.

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS emphasize a naturally good form and create attractive curves where none existed. A superb figure is within every woman's power if she will but wear the Royal Worcester Corsets. Scores of the most exquisite and fashionable new designs now on display at CARMINE'S.

The boys and young men of our community had a jolly time on Monday evening serenading Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Colloway.

Kennedyville Items.

Kennedyville Grange had a very interesting meeting on Monday night. On next Monday night after the regular business is over the meeting will be turned over to the young folks for them to have a social time. A large attendance is the past record of these gatherings.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. and their friends gave a splendid dinner and supper in Weer's Hall on Tuesday, and a large number partook of them.

The gunners are shooting some these days, and the rabbits and partridges come their way sometimes.

Our farmers are getting their corn in while the good weather lasts. Quite a number are done or nearly so.

Mr. James Pote, of Wilmington, and Mr. Charles Nickerson, of Philadelphia, spent Tuesday with relatives here.

We do not claim to be a politician, but we were like everybody else, with the exception of a few scattered ones here and there, we voted for Wilson and Marshall. The other fellows were not running, they were only trying too crawl and beat one another, and they did it to perfection.

A large number of the farmers of this vicinity attended the Farmer's Club monthly meeting at Mr. Robert Hill's on Thursday of the past week. The attendance of both ladies and gentlemen was unusually large, and our hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, with their accustomed whole heartedness and kind hospitality made all feel perfectly at home. There were about three double sittings at the two long tables at noon, which fairly groaned under the weight of so many bountiful blessings. A number of problems were brought before the business sessions of the afternoon, such as the importance of people losing hogs from cholera at once burying the dead carcass. For quite a while the question of better public roads engaged the business session of the club. The November meeting is to be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer. Three new members were received.

Mrs. Wm. Jewell and daughter, Miss Eva, made the trip to Baltimore the end of last week.

Mr. Tilghman Shafer was in Wilmington the past week, while Mrs. Shafer and Miss Emma Shafer made a visit to Baltimore.

The fishermen are making very good catches of fish but prices are poor.

The Habit of Ordering Goods by Mail has developed in a marvelous way in the past ten years. This is not due to accident, but because of vastly improved methods of filling mail orders promptly and accurately. The out-of-town customer finds that she can get just as good values by mail, through a store like Hutzler's, as if she were in the city and made personal selections.

Our shoppers' knowledge and experience are always at your command, without charge.

We WANT your mail-order business, and we can give you the SERVICE to deserve it.

Write to us freely and ask us to send you samples, prices and any information you desire.
