THERE is never an election in Kent nowadays but that the Antis get far and away the best of the result. A word to the wise is sufficient.

THERE was less activity among the Organization forces throughout the entire county on Tuesday than has been seen for sometime. Wonder why?

THE TRANSCRIPT stated last Saturday that Governor Wilson would carry Kent county by 800. He carried it by 807. His majority in the county over Roosevelt and Taft combined is 345. What a splendid victory.

ALREADY there are murmurings of who will get the Chestertown postoffice and the rural routes. Useless to discuss these questions now, as the terms of the ncumbents do not expire for some time at least.

HON. JOSEPHUS DANIELS, chairman of the Publicity Bureau of the Democratic National Committee, will please accept our thanks for a very appreciative letter of thanks for our efforts in behalf of the election of Wilson and Marshall.

THERE does not seem to be much necessity for the Republican National Committee to fill the vacancy on the Republican ticket caused by the death of Vice-President Sherman, except to furnish President Taft with an escort on his trip up Salt River.

ONE campaign is hardly over before another is begun. Already there are mutterings of the approaching primaries in Kent next September. It promises to be a cacker-jack, but you will have to excuse the TRANSCRIPT for a few weeks while we take a rest.

WHEN you are handing out your praises, don't forget the man behind the gun—William Jennings Bryan. He won his fight at Baltimore, the country sanctioned what he did on Tuesday, and with Governor Wilson, he is enjoying the fruits of a glorious victory. All honor to William Jennings Bryan.

JAMES S. SHERMAN was the 5th Vice-President whose death in office shocked the nation. Vice-President King died during Pierce's administration, Vice-President Wilson during that of Grant, Vice-President Hendricks during the first Cleveland administration and Vice-President Hobart during McKinley's first term.

THE Anti-Organization forces worked like beavers in every precinct in the county to get out the vote on Tuesday, and the faction turned out almost to a man. Governor Wilson's great plurality is almost directly attributable to the effective efforts and fine "team work" of the Antis, who, whenever the burden of the polls is placed upon their shoulders perform their duty like men and make victory certain and decisive.

THE result of the election in Kent county so far as the Republican vote is concerned, indicates that Urie has lost his power over the colored voters, and that the rank and file of that party is distrustful of its present leadership. It is safe to say that if Roosevelt had had as "convenient" a place on the ballot as Taft had his vote in the county would have been larger by 200 votes. It looks as though the Republican party is in dire straits not only in Kent, but in the entire country, and to Col. Roosevelt, who emerges from the wreck "on top" belongs the task of creating a new party with himself as its boss.

RIGHT ABOUT PRESIDENT.

One of our esteemed subscribers residing in Philadelphia writes: "I can congratulate you on being right about Democratic President. When I last wrote you Maryland had stultified herself in the primaries by the machine choice of Clark."

BOND ISSUE DEFEATED.

The bond issue providing for the expenditure of $20,000 of the tax-payers' money at this time for improving the court house was overwhelmingly defeated, as it should have been. The tax-payers of this county are in no humor to expend so much money just at a time when they are getting a breathing spell from the burden of excessive taxes, and we were confident what the result would be before election.

LEARN A LESSON.

Those Organization leaders who framed those bills for passage in the last Legislature providing for the expenditure of $48,000 of the taxpayers' money for the erection of school buildings in various parts of the county, without referring the matter to the vote of the people, should learn a lesson from the fate of the bond issue to improve the court house. The Anti-Organization amended these bills in the Legislature so as to refer them to the vote of the people, but they were not allowed to go through the Senate in that form by Mr. Beck. The Organization wanted to spend this vast sum of money without giving the tax-payers the right to say whether it should be done or not, and because the Anti-Organization wanted to protect the tax-payers' interests Mr. Beck wouldn't let the bills go through the Senate in their amended form. We state this now so that the tax-payers may be on their guard. In the election next fall two legislaturemen are to be elected, and if the Organization forces nominate their candidates in the next primaries, and elect them in the following election next fall, they will be in a position to do as they please with the tax-payers' money, and the experience with those school bills proves that they were not willing to let the tax-payers have any say in the matter, and the Anti-Organization delegates in the House blocked the scheme to spend the people's money without their consent.

Wilson's plurality, 1,378,250. Taft's plurality, 1,263,352.

Since putting the above in type, Illinois has switched to Wilson, and his correct electoral vote is 439, Roosevelt 77, and Taft 12.

The Democratic victory on Tuesday was the greatest and most complete victory since the war. Indeed, Gov. Wilson's plurality in the electoral college is greater than that given to any president, though his popular vote is smaller than that for Taft and Roosevelt combined, but greater by far than any vote ever given to Mr. Bryan. Indeed, so complete is the victory that it is an undisputed fact that Gov. Wilson would have won if there had been only one candidate against him. Republican strongholds, like Maine, Massachusetts, Ohio, West Virginia and Wisconsin, tumbled into the Democratic landslide, and from north to south, from east to west, the States returned overwhelming Democratic majorities. Not only is Gov. Wilson elected president, but it is certain that both Houses of Congress will be Democratic, and the Governor will be in the house of his friends. Gov. Wilson carried 40 States, Roosevelt 5 and Taft 3. Maryland gave the Governor the greatest plurality in its history—54,000, and sends an entire Democratic delegation to Congress. Harry Covington's majority on the Eastern Shore is so large that we have stopped counting it, and he is returned to Congress for a second term.

Delaware gave Wilson its electorial vote but we are sorry to say the republicans elected their governor. Pennsylvania which generally gives 300,000 Republican majority, gave Roosevelt a plurality of 20,000. New York rolled up a majority of 150,000 for Wilson. Sultzer, Democrat, is elected Governor by over 200,000, and the Legislature is Democratic. West Virginia and Ohio also give Democratic majorities, yet Wilson's popular vote is smaller than Taft and Roosevelt's combined and greater by a million and a half than Bryan's 1908 vote. The Republican party has been annihilated. Its only foundation—protection—has been smothered in the avalanche of discontented American voters, and from the wreck Theodore Roosevelt, who beat President Taft to a frazzle on the popular vote, is expected to create a new party with himself as the leader and the old machine thrown in the ash heap. Mr. Roosevelt will be a powerful factor in the future politics of the nation. He emerges from this contest in a most strategic position. He occupies much the same position to-day that Mr. Bryan occupies in the Democratic party. Just as Mr. Bryan saved the Democratic party from destruction in 1908, and made possible its great and glorious triumph in 1912, just so may Mr. Roosevelt save the wreck of the Republican party from utter destruction in 1912, and make it possible for his new political organization, to achieve a signal triumph in 1916, if the Democrats don't keep their ears to the ground and listen to the voice of the people. The people of this country are its sovereign rulers. When their patience is exhausted they strike a blow of great significance. The Republican party has received the blow this time; it is down and out. It can't come back. Let us see to it that the hand that smote the Republicans in 1912 may descend upon the Democrats in 1916 in commendation of achievements for the people, and thus perpetuate itself in power.

The victory in Kent was a glorious one. Its plurality for Governor Wilson of 807 is the largest ever given any candidate, and its popular vote for the Governor is greater than that given to both Taft and Roosevelt by 345. Mr. Taft's vote in the county is 994, Mr. Roosevelt's 462. About 500 ballots were thrown out for various reasons, and there were over 600 stay at homes.

Governor Wilson's message to the people given out at 10.45 o'clock on election night through Chairman McCombs is as follows:

William F. McCombs, Democratic National Committee, New York:

"I deeply appreciate your telegram and wish to extend to you and the members of the campaign committee my warmest congratulations on the part you have played in the organization and conduct of a campaign fought out upon essential issues. A great cause has triumphed. Every Democrat, every true progressive of whatever alliance, must now lend his full force and enthusiasm to the fulfillment of the people's hopes—the establishment of the people's rights—so that justice and progress may go hand in hand.

WOODROW WILSON.

Governor Wilson's wife was the first to congratulate him. After the telephone operator told Mrs. Wilson of the result of the election, she went into the library of their home at Princeton where the Governor was entertaining a few friends, and placing her hand gently on his shoulders and kissing him, said "My dear, I want to be the first to congratulate you."

Governor Wilson's victory was so great because he is so great a man and the people love and trust him.

The young Democrats of the town held a great dmonstration and parade with bonfires on Wednesday night in celebration of the Democratic victory, and there was a spirit of genuine patriotism pervading the streets and homes of the people.

ELECTION NOTES.

The Wilson headquarters in charge of the TRANSCRIPT were thronged until a late hour on Tuesday night with people from all parts of the county listening to election returns. Two phones were kept busy receiving returns and answering calls for information. The telephone service was fine, the operators were as accommodating as could be, and the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company, which furnished long distance and local information free of charge, deserves the thanks of everyone for the excellent manner in which they furnished the news. Mr. Joseph H. Nichols, the local superintendent, did everything in his power to serve the patrons promptly and accurately.

Election night in Chestertown reminded us of the days of Cleveland's election. There were the shouts of victory from enthusiastic Democrats, and the flare of huge bonfires, and yet the celebration was orderly and quiet and the election passed off so quietly that you would scarcely know an election was going on.

A substantial purse was "made up" for the young ladies who gave such splendid service at the telephone exchange on election night. The purse was raised by Mr. D. A. Bacchus and used in providing a midnight lunch for the operators.

Notwithstanding the fact that Gov. Wilson carried Kent county by 807 plurality, yet there was an unusually large stay-at-home vote. The total vote cast in the county was 3,900. There are 4,442 voters in the county. This shows that there were 542 stay-at-homes.

A large number of votes were thrown out because there was no mark on them. The voters were not at all pleased with the makeup of the ticket, and Wilson and Roosevelt were undoubtedly the sufferers.

The TRANSCRIPT had "extras" on the streets before nine o'clock on the morning after election giving the county vote by districts and also the latest news from the country at large.

The Senate will be Democratic by a majority of from 6 to 12.

The sixty-third congress will be composed of 288 Democrats, 115 Republicans, 12 Progressives and 20 doubtfuls. The total membership of the House is 435, of the Senate 96.

Everybody in Kent county is an "original Wilson man" now.

William T. Warburton received one vote for chief judge, and R. B. Dixon, of Talbot county, received one vote for elector in the Fourth District.

THIS certainly is a funny world. The other day two gentlemen were talking about what's in the papers. One said: "Well, there is so much back-biting and wrangling in the papers that it is disgusting. The people are tired to death of it." Shortly after that the two gentlemen were in conversation again, and their talk drifted to newspapers. The other gentleman said to the one who gave his opinion about the papers: "Well, J——, what part of the papers do you read?" "Oh, H——," said the first one, "I never read anything but the editorial page. That's the only part of the paper that interests me." That's the page that most generally has the scrapping on it, mind you. Oh, well, what is the use of nothing? It takes all kinds of people to make a world.

THEY say the brains of the country are in the Republican party. There never was a greater mistake. Only folly of the rankest sort could have produced such a choatic condition as exists to-day in the Republican party, and the brains of the country are in the Democratic party, whose Congress and great leaders took advantage of the Republican's folly and shortsightedness, and put Woodrow Wilson in the White House, and gave him a Democratic Senate and House to enable him to put the affairs of government upon a safe and sane basis, by the passage of laws and the adoption of measures in the interest of the great mass of the people instead of a few favored individuals. The folly of the Romans caused Rome's fall, folly gave birth to the American nation by causing England's downfall, and so history is but repeating itself in the downfall of the Republican party.

IT'S A FUNNY THING, but nevertheless it is so. Every time the TRANSCRIPT takes a stand to protect the interests of the tax-payers, either in the town or county, the tax-payers are made to suffer by the folly of those whose sole aim and purpose seems to be to "get even with the TRANSCRIPT." The abandoned pool in Barroll's Hollow, which cost the tax-payers of this town $3,500 to repair, and which is now useless, is a living monument to just such folly. Keep on censuring the TRANSCRIPT for its efforts to protect the people's interests. Accuse us of always knocking somebody or something, as much as you please. The tax-payers will get a mess of it some day, and there may come a time that when the TRANSCRIPT knocks its warning will be heeded. None are so blind as they who will not see. It is the blind who are always censuring the TRANSCRIPT for endeaving to protect the people against somebody else's folly and prejudices.
