THE LADIES' STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

COME HERE FOR FINE MILLINERY.

A GREAT FALL CAMPAIGN!

Plans are laid for great political activity this fall. We presume that every voter of the country will give expression to his best judgment of the merits of the contending parties.

Also, great preparation has been made at this store for a far-reaching campaign in valuable merchandise, and we fully believe that after a fair inspection of our goods, a comfortable majority of buyers will find it to their advantage to do their fall shopping here.

☞Everything is Ready for You Now!

SUITS!

To make provision for our growing trade in Ready-to-wear Goods, we now utilize one-half space of second floor for Suits and Coats.

Our Suits and Coats are made for us by the reliable firm, "STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER," and shipment of over one hundred Suits is here from which you can make a splendid selection.

☞Also, we take Special Measurements for Suits and Guarantee a Fit.

Wesuggest that you come in early before rush season comes.

Fashion's Authority Styles.

WE are now showing the advance style creations of the famous JK designers —the leading makers and originators of fashion footwear for young women.

J.&K. Shoes of Individuality.

All of the latest up-to-date models — in the most popular shapes and leathers— are represented in our varied assembly of JK style leaders.

We invite an early inspection while the line in complete.

Rock Hall Items.

Harry Price made a short trip to Baltimore this week on business.

Fishermen are getting their nets ready for winter fishing, the prospects are good for a large catch.

Mrs. Mary Ashley, Mrs. Geo. P. Ashley and Mrs. David Ayres were in Baltimore this week shopping.

James Stevens, of East Neck Island, reports that he raised 1800 bushels of sweet potatoes. This has been a good season on all vegetables.

Mr. Abe Casey has lately had some of the best looking beef cattle ever seen in this section.

While out hunting a few days ago Mr. Johns and Mr. Davis, had their valuable bird dog badly crippled. In jumping from a small hill down on the shore he cut his foot open.

Charles Middleton, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents in this town. He is enjoying his vacation hunting for rabbits.

J. J. Scoone will manage the Chesapeake House next year. Mr. Scoone should make a very popular hotel man.

Most all the farmers of East Neck Island are having phones installed. This will bring them into closer connection with the markets and news of the county. Joe P. Westcott is installing these phones.

It has been reported that the wrapper factory in Rock Hall would close and several of the operators failed to show up for work. This is a false report. They have all the work that they can possibly do and want operators very badly.

Capt. Thomas Hogans started to Baltimore in his bugeye, Crust Langhammer, was caught in a wind storm off man-o-war shoals, near North Point, which blew both masts out. He was picked up by Capt. Chas. Thomas, and towed into Rock Hall harbor, where he will have the boat repaired.

Captains Spence Urie and Charlie Harris, left Rock Hall this week for Love Point to start in for winter fishing, which they think will be a successful year. These are two of Rock Hall's old and reliable fishermen and report having had good luck at Tolchester hook and line fishing during the past summer.

Millington Items.
