BISONS' LONE TD—On the first play of the second period, Howard Halfback Howie Williams slices off tackle for a 10-yard gain and the only touchdown scored by the Bisons in the 20-8 loss to Delaware State College Saturday on the home field. A 40-yard pass play set the stage for the TD run and Williams had a big hole to plunge through as the Bison forward wall cleared the path.

Trojans' Moody tops CIAA rushers; H. U. leads teams

DURHAM, N.C. — George Moody of Virginia State College with 129 yards average rushing (21 plays) in two games, is this week's CIAA rushing leader.

Moody replaces last week's leader, Leander Howell of Bluefield, who averaged 244 yards in 41 plays.

Joe Buggs of Elizabeth City continues scoring leader, advancing his total points this week to 26. Teammate Jerry Harper is runner-up with 20. Buggs is the only repeat leader this week. He scored four TD's and registered one conversion for a two-pointer.

* * *

HOWARD UNIVERSITY'S Bisons are tops in team offense averaging 429 yards in two games while yielding only 86 yards per contest to take total defense honors also.

Other individual standouts, in addition to the Trojans' Moody, who rushed 21 times for a total of 258 yards, are Passing: Jack Denis of Morgan, completing 33.8 (7 of 13); Pass receiving: Bob Carr of Elizabeth City with 6 catches for 89 yards, one TD in three games.

* * *

TOTAL OFFENSE leader is Howard Williams of Howard University with 246 yards in two games.

As Bob White's Bisons dominate this week's statistical columns, other team leaders are A. and T. in rushing and Morgan in passing.

Bert Piggotts' Aggies piled up 573 yards in 114 rushes in two games for an average of 286.5.

Coach E. P. Hurt's Bears completed 7 of 13 heaves (53 percent) for 85 yards and one TD.

Union thumps D.C. eleven in 1st win

By JOHN B. HARRIS

RICHMOND, Va. — Tom Harris' Panthers of Virginia Union University, long overdue for a win, recorded their first victory of the season Saturday night by dumping D.C. Teachers College of Washington, 34-21, before some 1,100 chilled fans at Hovey Field.

This was not a Central Intercollegiate Athletic contest but it was good scrimmage for both teams as they kill take on does next week end.

Union will meet Lincoln here and D.C. will encounter the Agricultural College of Pennsylvania there.

* * *

THE PANTHERS opened up a 19-0 halftime advantage and increased their margin to 26-0 before the D.C. eleven could register its first six - pointer.

Alex Harris Yalloo tossed his final two Union touchdowns, one on a 25 - yard pass from Milton Marshall and the other on a 17 - yard run which came on a handoff from Marshall.

Marshall who seemed to have been in tip - top shape, connected on a 50 - yarder with John Martin, who also scored two touchdowns. His second TD came in the 4th quarter when he aetied the pigskin on a kickoff return and galloped 88 years for the score. The conversion was a run around left end by Chris McGlone.

D.C. TEACHERS finally got its attack going in the third period with George Sperrors' arm paving the way. Sperrors hit Lu Luce on touchdown serials of 53, 23, and 22 yards. Luce converted a run successfully on the 23 - yard TD.

During this period the underdog team stacked up a safety when Union could not hold at the 1 - yard line.

The final Panther score came when Johnny Bryant plunged over from the one on a handoff from Marshall. This was Union's deepest penetration, however successful.

Union will play Lincoln University in a night game at Hovey Field, Saturday.

Bolling AFB rolls to 38-0 grid triumph

WASHINGTON

The powerful Bolling Air Force Base Generals rolled to a convincing 38 - 0 victory over the Fort Lee Travellers at Post Field Friday night.

The game, played before 5,000 fans, was no contest as Bolling took the opening kick-off and marched 65 yards in ten plays for its first touchdown. Joe Heap drove up the middle for the score from four yards out and the extra point attempt was no good.

THE GENERALS added three touchdowns in the second period, with three different backs scoring. Halfback Blake Tucker culminated a 74 yard drive to score from the three-yard line. The PAT was no good.

After the kickoff, Lee was unable to move the ball and punted out of bounds on the Generals 35. On the next play quarterback John Roach fooled the entire Lee team by passing to Joe Heap 20 yards behind the Travellers secondary. The play covered 65 yards. Don Schaefer added the extra point on a place kick.

FULLBACK Don Schaefer intercepted a Lee pass on the Bolling 47 to set up Bolling's next touchdown, with a halfback, George Rice, going over from the three and Schaefer adding the extra point by placement.

Quarterback Jimmy Carmer Auburn ace, scored from the seven yard line. Cap a 33 yard drive in the third quarter.

The Generals last score was made by quarterback Leroy Phelps who played with Oregon and the 'ders on a working 42 yard run after Phelps was unable to find any receiver open.

Bolling has won all games without being scored on and will play the Camp Lejeune Marines Saturday Oct. 18 Hap Arnold Field at 1:45.

Hub scribe lauds tan ball players

BOSTON, Mass. (ANP) — Harold Kaese, sportswriter with a Boston paper, commented that the National League's greater number of colored players has made that league the stronger of the two major leagues, in the opinion of baseball experts.

Kaese asserted that the feeling was likely to persist, though the Yankees won the World Series.

"The Series," he commented, "again emphasized the importance of colored ball players, as well as the competitive qualities of the New York Yankees. Even they could not win without one."

Stilt happy, praised by Globetrotter boss

NEW YORK — Hailed as a sensation after his professional debut with the spectacular Harlem Globetrotters in Chicago and Madison Square Garden over the weekend, Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain is the happiest man connected with basketball player in the game these days.

He should be, naturally. The brilliant seven-foot Globetrotter rookie is being paid $65,000 this season by owner-coach Abe Saperstein, the biggest salary in basketball and one of the highest in all sportsdom.

* * *

BUT, as "The Stilt" puts it, money isn't everything. "I was a little worried," he confessed after the Trotters played the Philadelphia Sphas in Chicago and New York, "because probably basketball is lot tougher than college. I couldn't help wondering if I'd make a good showing.

"But on the basis of those York and Chicago papers afterward, I'm satisfied that I did. It's playing with the Globetrotters."

Chamberlain, who quit Kansas University to play with the Globetrotters, is perfectly with Hemisphere Treetystimer of play. He has learned the hilarious technique surprisingly fast. Saperstein says:

* * *

"IT TAKES some fellows years to learn our style, but Wilt is just a natural. He adds more fun than ever to our famous floor show. Naturally I don't need to expand on his ability as a basketball player. He's absolutely great."

Fans in other sections of the country and Canada will have their first opportunity next week to see "The Stilt" in action with the new 1958-59 edition of the Globetrotters in the following cities:

Oct. 24 Schenectady, N. Y.; 25 - Rochester, N.Y.; 26 - Saratoga Springs, N.Y.; 27 Toronto, Ont.; 28 - Des Moines, Iowa; 29-Omaha, Neb.; 30 - Kansas City, Mo.; 31 - Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Win over Beecham renews Boyd aim for the future

CHICAGO (ANP) — Shortly after winning a unanimous 10-round decision over Jimmy Beecham of Miami in the Chicago Stadium last Friday night, Bobby Boyd told reporters he intends to keep fighting as long as his body holds up.

"I don't care if I lose 10 straight fights," he declared stubbornly. "I'm not retiring. I've never done anything else but fight and I've always preserved my body so I can continue fighting."

BOYD'S REMARKS were prompted by a pre - fight statement by his manager, Bernie Glickman, that he would have retired the angular 24 - year-old Chicago middleweight had he lost to Beecham Friday.

Glickman, wealthy awning manufacturer who manages fighters as a hobby, is also manager of Virgil Akins, worldweight champion.

Beecham had defeated Boyd in a previous fight in Miami. However, Friday night he couldn't cope with Bobby in the early rounds and as a result lost the decision.

Garner concert thrills DC throng

WASHINGTON

Erroll Garner brought his piano wizardry to Washington Friday night and for two and one - half hours a capacity crowd at Lisner Auditorium hung on to his every note.

For the 2,300 jazz devotees in attendance, Garner could do no wrong.

They applauded the old standards, like "Blue Heaven" and "Old Soft Shoe," and they received with wild enthusiasm the solo spots devoted to bassist Edward Calhoun and percussionist Kelly Martin, while Garner chorded and improvised accompanying beats.

AT THE CONCLUSION of each segment in the three - part program, the goateed artist had to return onstage for bows. And at the close, Garner made three trips back to the phone - book cushion on his piano stool for encores.

Although much of the program followed the Garner pattern of playing extemporaneously, the audience loved it. Little fault was found in the fact that his improvisations often lost both accompanist and spectator. To those assembled, it was all good listening.

Among the numbers receiving the warmest response were "Funny Valentine," "Nearness of You," "I've Grown Accustomed to Your Face," "Where Or When," and excerpts from the "Porgy and Bess" score.

The program also included "Oh What A Beautiful Morning," "It's All Right With Me," "People Will Say We're In Love," "I Could Have Danced All Night," "Street Where You Live," "I Can't Get Started With You," "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," "Surrey With the Fringe On Top" and touches of "Frenesie."

Despite the humid evening and a demand for constant mopping of the head and face, the artist appeared to enjoy the occasion as much as his fans—SAM LACY.

'Roy Hamilton' Day Nov. 7 in Jersey City

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — This city plans to pull out the stops on November 7 when it honors singer Roy Hamilton, a product of its own communities.

On that day, Mayor Charles S. Wikowski will issue an official proclamation declaring it "Roy Hamilton Day."

The affair will be highlighted with a reception at City Hall and a parade through the main streets. Prominent business and civic leaders have been forged into a Roy Hamilton Committee to make this perhaps the most outstanding interracial demonstration any city has ever known.

SCHEDULED as a two - day event, the Roy Hamilton Day will be culminated on Saturday with a gala benefit for the Central Baptist Church at the Jersey City Armory. The official committee for the benefit performance includes Dr. Marcus Carpenter, Honorable Chairman, Mrs. Ruby H. Brent, Chairman, Mrs. Mary M. Smith, Co - Chairman, John Clarke, James Smith, Miss Raphael Cole, Miss Doloris Smith, Miss Clara M. Augustus, Miss Hattie Cole, Millard Jackson and Joseph Howard.

Many stars of stage and screen have already expressed their willingness to participate in the Armory affair. Heading the list are Joe Louis, Lillie Uggams, the teen - age singing star, Cab Calloway, Herman Ruth, the famous Gospel D. J., and a number of famous gospel singers including the Central Baptist Choir from which Hamilton graduated.

STAR GAZING:

Can't find 'passing' heroine; A nod and Sallie's in movies

A movie director claims to be at the end of his wits in trying to find a suitable girl for the lead role in the filming of "Passed for White." . . . The director is Fred Wilcox and he is casting for a film based on the book by Mary Hastings, which he is to direct for an independent producer.

According to Wilcox, he must have a colored girl whose looks could live up to the title. . . . He says he has heard of several girls who might fit the role but they won't approach him because they actually are "passing" in real life . . . says further, he positively won't use a white girl in the part because it would rob the film of realism.

Sallie Blair is booked to open two weeks at Chicago's Black Orchid on Friday. . . . Pretty singer-dancer, incidentally, is skedded for the Riviera, Las Vegas, November 12th, after which she has only to nod and she'll get the lead role opposite Sidney Poitier in the forthcoming movie production, "A Raisin in the Sun."

Billy Ward and his Dominoes began a three-week stint at the Crescendo, Hollywood, on Thursday. . . . Mills Brothers warming the hearts of ringsiders at the Flamingo, Las Vegas. . . . And report is that it's a new Thelma Carpenter holding forth at the Cafe Bohemia, New York.

Nat King Cole into New York's Famed Copacabana Thursday for a stay that'll wind up November 12. . . . Nat's co-star on the Capitol Records lineup, Dakota Staton, currently at Chicago's Blue Note until Nov. 9th.

Philly bandleaders Jules Haizner and Don Young are collaborators on the new rock 'n' roll record, "Pizza Pie," which is reportedly catching on with the teenage set . . . the platter's on the Vir label.

RCA Victor last week signed Lena Horne to a new contract . . . terms call for Lena to cut singles and albums for them exclusively for the next ten years. . . . Listed one-one on Variety's best-selling records for the week are Tommy Edwards' "All In The Game" and Cozy Cole's "Topsy."

Mahalia Jackson doubling for an October 27th afternoon show at the University of California, Berkeley, and October 28th evening concert at the San Francisco Opera House.

Billy Young, 28-year-old romantic tenor, whom critics are hailing as another Billy Daniels, in a 2-weeks' engagement at Philadelphia's Latin Casino on Monday. . . . The date marks Billy's first topline booking since he broke away from Steve Gibson and the Red Caps three years ago.

Speaking of going out alone, Billy Hope, kid brother of bandleader Lynn Hope, has just released a promising disc titled "Deacon's Walk." . . . Billy was drummer for Lynn for five years prior to quitting the unit 19 months ago.

RED CHINA RECOGNIZES NEW NATION OF GUINEA

TOKYO, Japan — According to monitored broadcasts from Peiping, China, the Communist Chinese Government has recognized the new African republic of Guinea, formerly French Guinea.

Theatricals

BUT NO PLACE TO GO — Singer Harry Belafonte, his wife, and son David, back at Idlewild airport last week, told reporters they are desirous of finding a home but can't do so. Rental agencies are agreeable, Belafonte said, until his identity is revealed and the fact of his interracial marriage is brought to light. On completion of a movie commitment, Belafonte opens a long engagement at the Waldorf-Astoria next month.

Belafonte 'hailed' abroad, says he's 'homeless' in U.S.

NEW YORK (ANP)—Singer Harry Belafonte, who recently returned from a tour of Europe where he was wined and dined by diplomats, toasted by continentals and clamored by children alike, cannot find a landlord in New York willing to rent an apartment to him and his white wife.

Belafonte said "it (the situation) has made me so angry, I got tongue-tied. Look, I want a suitable place to live. I won't use subterfuge to get it."

THE POPULAR singer known throughout the world for his "Banana Boat" song said he could get a desirable apartment on a sublease, or under someone else's name. He said that Mrs. Roosevelt, widow of the former President, offered to buy a building with him. "But I'm not looking for the easy way out," Belafonte said.

"The awful part is that some of the people involved belonged to organizations with the highest ideals of human existence—the professed liberals," the singer pointed out.

THE TURN-DOWNS were systematic." Belafonte related. "Apartments would be available till it was time to sign a lease. Then when it was discovered the apartment was for me, something would happen, a deposit by another tenant had been forgotten, or a partner had promised it to his cousin—all kinds of shenanigans," Belafonte said angrily.

The Belafontes are staying at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel until permanent quarters can be located.

Hot as singer but still recalls days in ring

NEW YORK—Although disc jockeys and thousands of his teen-age fans are hailing him as a "new sound," singer Jackie Wilson regards his new found fame as something he's been doing for the last decade.

Now a bigtime crooner on the rock and roll circuit, the 23-year-old Detroiter still talks with nostalgia of his prize ring days in which he dreamed of one day becoming the world middleweight champion.

JACKIE'S BIG break came when he joined Billy Ward's Dominoes quartet and sang several solos. With the Wardmen he picked up little tricks of show business, like prancing and popping his fingers while singing, that he uses to good success today.

And five years ago he was encouraged tremendously when he met Lavern Baker and she gave him helpful words of advice. Next week he and Miss Baker will headline an allstar revue that will play in 24 cities on a one-night tour.

Officials at Brunswick record company are enthused over the success of his first album, "He's So Fine" and are preparing to release another album, "To Be Loved," soon.

IT'S SMALL — BUT SOLID — That's the way drum beaters at Capitol Records describe both the Blossoms teenaged quartet and their hot new single disc, "Baby Daddy-O." Young Darlene Wright (lower right) offers the first solo when she steps out of the group for a stint on "No Other Love," the flip side of the platter.

Britons hail Duke as tops

By RON STEPHENSON

LONDON, England — Any person passing outside London's Festival Hall last Sunday might have thought a riot was in progress—but it was merely acclamation for "The Duke".

Duke Ellington is the undisputed King of Jazz. He says his band is the best in the world and everyone in Britain agrees with him. His artistic mastery and his compositions have forced the reserved English to using words such as genius.

IN LONDON, the communication medic—newspaper, radio, television—have not functioned for one hour, without some mention of his Timeless Duke.

Time has not dimmed his brilliance, but has served to enhance and mellow it. Where grandmothers and mothers tend to worship their all-time idol, the Ellington cult has broken out like a rash with the teenage erstwhile rock an' rollers, who, for once, agree with the older generations and wait impatiently their turn to worship at the shrine.

HULA HOOP & JAZZ — Duke Ellington, currently touring Europe after a 25-year absence, spends a cool spin with 7-year-old Daphne Brebett, a young French-born hula-hoopster who met the Duke when they were aboard the Ile de France en route to Liverpool.

Ella, Oscar Peterson Trio have Indianapolis jumping

INDIANAPOLIS (ANP) — "pop" tunes and delighted fans Snapping her fingers and bilting at the limelight, Ella Fitzgerald captured the crowd at the Murat temple last week where she was featured along with Oscar Peterson and his trio in concert.

She sang and swung her way through oldies such as "Mood Indigo," "Always," "Little Girl Blues," "What Is This Thing Called Love?" and "The Lady is a Tramp."

SHE THEN switched to "Hon High the Moon" and "Stompin' At The Savoy."

Besides the Oscar Peterson trio was "Little Jazz" Roy Eldridge. Peterson, with Ray Brown on the bass and Herb Ellis on the guitar, presented the first half of the show. They played with swinging drive, the bass tying the numbers together and Peterson making the piano jump.

St. Paul's throng acclaims Robeson

LONDON, Eng. — Upward of 4,000 persons lingered for hours Monday night to besiege singer Paul Robeson as he left historic St. Paul's Cathedral at the conclusion of his concert of spirituals.

Hundreds of policemen—uniformed and in plain clothes—who had been detailed to the affair, had to rescue the famed but controversial artist from autograph hunters, music lovers and the curious.

It was the latest of a series of demonstrations which have acclaimed Robeson throughout a tour that began five weeks ago and still has not reached its halfway point.

TYPICAL of the response to the artist, who for so long was denied passport privileges by the U. S. government, are the comments which have been made by music critics of newspapers and radio and television networks.

Andrew Smith of the Daily Herald wrote, following Robeson's appearance at the Palladium: "His is a voice that seems to grow deeper and richer with the years."
