PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Miss Emma Knight, the efficient cashier in the C. & P. Telephone exchange, has been quite sick during the week, but we are glad to state that she is very much improved and able to be out.

It is reported that Hon. Joseph A. Wickes is quite unwell at his apartments in Baltimore.

Miss Nettie Gooding spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Ella Whitaker, in Galena.

Mrs. William T. Hicks and daughter have been visiting in Baltimore during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson have been in Baltimore during the week. Mr. Thompson has been purchasing the Christmas stock for his father's store, and Mrs. Thompson went over to consult a specialist in reference to a slight throat affection.

Mrs. Lottie Wyatt, of Norfolk, nee Miss Lottie Lassell, has been the guest of Mrs. Fannie Wheatley during the week.

Mrs. S. L. Wright has returned from a protracted visit with relatives in California.

Mr. James Hicks, Jr., of Galena, has secured a position in Wilmington.

Quite a number of our farmers and landowners here and in Queen Annes attended the sessions of the various farmers' meetings held in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. M. N. Jeter, of Millington, has rented the Hotel Imperial, and will assume charge about December 1. We understand that her mother, Mrs. Martha McWhorter, will assist Mrs. Jeter in the management of the hotel, as will also Mrs. Jeter's sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Williams and little daughter, Julia, spent the week in Baltimore.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, vice-president of the Hubbard Fertilizer Company, and his uncle, of Baltimore, are on a business trip which will carry them as far north as Presque Isle, Maine, which point is more than 400 miles north of Boston. They will inspect their northern plants, and will be gone about two weeks.

Mr. Gilbert Jarman, of Baltimore, has been spending a part of the week at home.

Senator and Mrs. Garrett Foxwell were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Smith at Fairlee the first of the week. The Senator also made a business trip to Smyrna, Del., on Thursday.

Mr. James H. Shuster and daughter, Dorothy, of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. William F. Russell.

Dr. Marion T. Twilley and wife, of Dover, were guests of his brother, Dr. Charles R. Twilley, over Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. VanDyke, who spent the time with her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, near Lankford.

Mr. Frank Yates is enjoying a visit to his old home in St. Mary's county. He is also enjoying the gunning.

Messrs. Thomas Massey, Harry C. Willis, William W. and S. Scott Beck have been ejoying a gunning trip in St. Mary's county, during the past week.

Miss Gretchen Warren, of Seaford, Del., is the guest of Mrs. W. Robert Huey, on High street.

Mrs. M. C. Ringgold, of Salisbury, is the guest of relatives and friends here.

Mrs. D. B. McMenamin took her son, Master Waters Russell McMenamin, to Philadelphia this week to undergo an operation for adnoids. After leaving the hospital they will spend a week with Mr. McMenamin's sister in the Quaker City.

New York Horse Show.

The annual Horse Show being held in Madison Square Garden, New York, which, by the way, is one of the country's greatest social events, has been attracting big crowds all the week. Some of the most magnificent specimens of horse flesh in the world have been on exhibition, and the Blenheim farm, which is the only Maryland exhibitor, has been winning laurels. Mrs. Guy Henry, who has been the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Carolene L. Hynson, here for some weeks, left on Monday morning to attend the show. Mrs. Henry's husband, Cupt. Guy Henry, of the Thirteenth United States Cavalry, has played a conspicuous part in the show, and has been among the winners of valuable prizes.

The United States took highest honors in the first big international contest of this year's show. England won second prize and the United States third.

Chiswell, exhibited by the United States Mounted Service School and ridden by Capt. Guy V. Henry, Thirteenth Cavalry, in competition with charges mounted by uniformed army officers from England, Holland, Belgium Canada and this country, was awarded the Plaza cup, value $200. Second award $75, went to Harmony, ridden by Col. P. A. Kenna, England, and third, $35, to Experiment, ridden by Capt. J. R. Lindsey, United States Cavalry. All the mounts were broken charges (heavyweight) up to carrying 210 pounds.

To Go To Florida.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Field Armiger, who have been conducting an up-to-date millinery shop in the Toulson new store room here for the past fall season, will leave here for Florida, where they usually engage in the same business during the winter, the last of this month. Mr. Armiger and his wife request us to extend their thanks to the people of the town for their most generous patronage and kindness. Mrs. Armiger has had more orders in her millinery department than she could fill during the season, and in every instance her work has proven satisfactory. Mr. Armiger has proven himself a valuable citizen, and states that he and his wife are not leaving Chestertown because they found the field filled, but because they are simply carrying out their annual custom of engaging in business in Florida during the winter.

Rock Hall Items.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wesley Chapel last Tuesday evening at 7.00 o'clock, when Marion Hadaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadaway, led Miss D. Vallery Conner, daughter of Mrs. McKey, up the isle in front of the pulpit where flowers were banked in the most pleasing effect. The Chapel was full to over crowding. The bride was dressed in white satin trimmed in bugle trimmings and carried a shower boquet of chrysanthemums. The bride had no attendants. The groom wore conventional black. Charles and Walter Hadaway, brothers of the groom, were the ushers. Mrs. Acca Crew played the wedding march. The ceremony was impressively performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. B. Dupuy. Following the ceremony a reception was held when numerous guests called to pay their respects and express congratulations.

Very interesting services have been held the past two weeks at the Adventist Church. Several instructors, lecturers and prominent Elders were present. Toward the close of the series of sermons there were many baptized. Two classes were formed, one at Mr. Aug. Leary's and another at Downey's, on the Haven.

Mr. George Ashley entertained at supper last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Will Dempster and Mr. Edgar Strong. The supper was a grand one, being typical of this section and season; the feature being wild swan. Mr. Ashley killed the swan last Saturday evening; it weighed eighteen pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Eslin and son have left their home in Rock Hall for Baltimore, where they will spend the winter.

Kennedyville Items.

We are having fine weather and the farmers are finishing their work early.

The grange had a large attendance on Monday night. Two names were proposed for membership. During the lecturer's hour there was a debate on the question: Resolved, That an old maid was more benefit to a community than an old bachelor. Those that spoke for the maid were—Mrs. Dr. Urie, Miss Emma Shafer and Wm T. Hague. Those that spoke for the batch were Miss Catherine Roe, Robt. R. Hill and Chas. S. Hague. The judges were—Wm. Kendall, Mrs. Frank Baxter and John Medders whose decision was from the argument made by the speakers, two for the old maid and one for the old bachelor. Now is the time to attend the grange and get interested while the busy time is nearly over and nights are longer.

The President of the Maryland Conference, Rev. John S. Bowers, preached a fine sermon in the M. P. Church on Sunday night.

Rev. F. H. Mullineaux was called away on Monday to attend the funeral of his step-mother. He will return home next week.

There will be no preaching to-morrow (Sunday) in the M. P. Church. There will be Sunday school in the morning.

Rev. Wm. Clews was installed as pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church on Tuesday morning; service began at 10.30. The service was very impressive and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Gillfilan. The music was in charge of Mrs. Rachel Hill and Rev. Mr. Clews. Those who assisted them were Mrs. Clews, Mrs. Lily Archibald, Miss Flora Johnson, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. Frank Miller, Robt. R. Hill and Wm. T. Hague.

Miss Mary Othoson, of near Sassafras, spent part of last week with her cousin, Miss Nellie Othoson.

Miss Lulu VanDyke who was sick for several days is improving.

The Ladies Aid Society had a very large attendance at their supper on Saturday night and we understand the gross receipts were over $90.

Miss Flora Johnson had a pleasant trip to Philadelphia the past week.

Mr. Mattie McKnett, of Philadelphia, spent a few days of pleasure at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson last week.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. Edward Ford and son, Wallace, spent a few days in Baltimore the past week.

Mr. Laurie Hackett, of Chestertown, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Miss Ida Jester, of Queen Anne's, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Ricards.

Mr. John Davis, of Philadelphia, Pa., visited the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Meeks, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Ford spent Thursday and Friday in Baltimore.

Mrs. John Robinson, Jr., and daughter, Miss Ethel, visited Baltimore last week.

Mrs. Sarah Gallager, of Philadelphia, spent a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. Wm. H. Thompson.

Mr. E. M. Bonwell has bought the house and property belonging to Mr. Edward Schofield, and is having a fine barn erected. Mr. Bonwell will move in the first of the year.

Mr. James Severson, of Chestertown, is spending sometime in our town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lane moved from our town Monday to Warwick, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Amelia Jones has returned to Philadelphia after spending the summer and fall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

Don't forget the supper and festival to-night in Harper's Hall. Come out.
