Who Can This Be ?

The Baltimore American of Wednesday says: "Give me 50 cents, for I voted for Woodrow Wilson. I came all the way from Chestertown to get the change and you're not going to deprive me of it."

This statement fell harshly on the ears of Mayor Preston's assistant secretary, Charles Kreuder, yesterday afternoon while the city executive was holding a conversation with a business man in an adjoining room. The speaker was a rustic looking individual who looked rather the worse for wear. Hatless and colarless, with a beard's growth, his eye shining defiance, he insisted that he be paid 50 cents.

Watchman Jones, who keeps guard in the corridor leading to the Mayor's office, heard the stranger's voice and came rushing into the office. He stepped behind the "man from the Eastern Shore'" tapped him on the shoulder and politely requested him to vacate.

The unwelcome visitor seated himself in a soft-cushioned chain and insisted that he be allowed to talk to Mayor Preston. When told that the Mayor could not see him, he shouted that he was "going to call on Woodrow Wilson and get the money."

"I only want 50 cents and I'll cross the earth to get it," he exclaimed, as Watchman Jones ejected him from the City Hall. "I'm going to see every prominent Democrat in the nation to get the money."

Big Fire at Rehoboth.

Fire supposed to be of incendiary origin destroyed five unoccupied but furnished cottages among the largest and best in Rehoboth, Del., on Saturday night. The fire started in the cottage owned by Mr. Harvey L. Cooper, of Denton, and soon spread to adjoining buildings.

The individual losers are: Harvey L. Cooper, cottage, $3,000; insured for $1,500. Mrs. H. C. Pennington, of Wilmington, cottage, $3,500: partly insured. Double cottage with its contents, owned by Thomas C. Horsey and Dr. William E. Wolf; loss about $5,000, with about $2,000 insurance. Cottage of Henry P. Cannon, of Bridgeville; loss about $3,500 partly covered by insurance. Cottage of Mrs. James E. Hooper was damaged to the extent of $1,500; fully covered by insurance. Careful estimates place the entire loss at $17,000, with about $6,000 insurance.

This is the second disastrous fire to occur at Rehoboth within the last four months. In August a blaze wiped out several business and favorite amusement places, entailing a big loss. Officials believe it is the work of firebugs, and will offer a liberal reward for any information that will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the guilty person or persons.

EGGS MAKE NEW FALL RECORD.

Fancy Brands High, But Storage Stock 24 Cents A Dozen.

Fancy brands of fresh eggs made a new fall record last week in New York, when they sold for 72 cents a dozen. They will go still higher before the month is over, dealers say.

As against 60 cents a dozen wholesale for nearby fresh eggs, Western fresh eggs are selling in New York wholesale at 38 to 41 cents a dozen, and first-class storage eggs are literally going begging at 24 cents a dozen.

The new law requiring retail as well as wholesale dealers to label storage eggs has aroused a prejudice against them in the minds of the women, who imagine that a storage egg is inferior and stale because it is marked "storage."

Unless customers change their minds, the egg speculators of New York stand to lose from $500,000 to $1,500,000 in prospective profits between now and next spring on storage eggs.

COURT UPHOLDS RACE LAW.

Sheriff Had No Legal Right to Interfere at Havre de Grace.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 16—The validity of the racing law passed by the last Legislature was sustained by the Court of Appeals recently in an opinion which absolved the racing meet at Havre de Grace last summer from all taint of illegality.

The principal point brought by the State was that the Maryland Racing Commission, created by the act in question, had never qualified as required by law. The Court of Appeals held that the duties of the members of the Racing Commission, under the act, did not constitute them official persons required by the Constitution to take the prescribed oath, and thus they had not forfeited their status by failure to take such oath.

The court sustained the contention of the racing association, that the sheriff of Harford county had no right to interfere with the conduct of the meeting at Havre de Grace.

Surgeon's Wonderful Feat.

Two young cripples, both suffering from curvature of the spine, were wheeled into the operating room of Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, last Tuesday, where the great "bloodless" surgeon, Dr. E. G. Abbott, of Portland, Me., straightened the backs of the little patients in about 45 minutes. No anaesthetic was administered.

With the patients absolutely conscious every minute the surgeon manipulated the spinal column in such a way that the spine was straightened. A plaster cast was then placed around the torso and the sufferers were able, in each instance, to walk out of the operating room without difficulty. Neither complained of any pain during the operation. Leading surgeons of Philadelphia were present at the clinic as the guests of Dr. H. Augustus Wilson and they watched with a great deal of interest the spectacular work of the bloodless operation.

Foot Ball Notes.

Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., witnessed the great Penn-Michigan game in Philadelphia last Saturday week.

The great game last Saturday between Yale and Princeton resulted in a tie score of 6 to 6. Messrs. Wm. Archibald, E. B. Pennington, Jr., and Frank Passwater witnessed the game, and state that it was a great game.

Maryland Agritultural College after cancelling the game with Washington College last Saturday because the latter team could not play when the former wanted the game played, went out on their field at College Park last Saturday and lined up ready for action. They got the referee to declare the game forfeited to M. A. C. because Washington did not show up. The facts in the case are that M. A. C. first wanted Washington to play on Friday. This could not be done because the faculty objected to the team losing two days from studies. Then they wanted Washington to play Saturday morning. The team refused to play except when the game was originally scheduled, and M. A. C. cancelled the game. The action of the M. A. C. team has no merit in it, and it will not be allowed to stand acording to the rules of good foot ball.

The excursion to be run to Baltimore on the steamer B.S. Ford on Thanksgiving Day by the students of Washington College to witness the annual foot ball game at Oriole Park between Washington and St. John's, promises to be largely patronized. Washington College squad has been going through some hard scrimmage during the week preparatory to getting in shape to win this game. The championship of the State depends upon this game and Washington will bend everg energy to win the title. It is expected that a great crowd will witness the game, and the supporters of Washington expect her to win. The Ford will leave Chestertown at 7.30 A. M. and will leave Baltimore at 11.30 P. M.

Campaigns Not Costly.—Congressional campaigns in Maryland are not costly, according to completed statements filed by the candidates for Congress in this State with House Clerk South Trimble, Washington. These statements are made under the Federal Corrupt Practices law. Congressman J. Harry Covington, of the First district, spent $696.46; Congressman J. Charles Linthicum, of the Third district, $325; Congressman-elect Frank O. Smith, of the Fifth, $324; Congressman David J. Lewis, of the Sixth, $496.69; Charles D. Wagaman, Republican candidate in the Sixth, $335; Albert M. Sproesser, Republican candidate in the Third district, $613.75; B. W. Bowman, Prohibition candidate in the Second district, $2.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '61 to '65. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is romance, it is history, it is literature. You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful series—an inside story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will grip you hard, and hold your interest from first to last. Fill out the coupon and send it now before you forget it.
