WHAT'S A TURKEY WITHOUT A GOOD CARVING SET?

Um-m-m! but that fine turkey does smell delicious. How you are going to smack your lips over this annual victim when you see him proudly furnishing a big platter surrounded by the dishes of cranberry (not cranberry) sauce, the mashed potatoes, the gravy and the pumpkin pie. This great annual Thanksgiving event eaten with a fitting gusto caused by the appreciation of God's bountifulness can be marred by the use of a poor carving set. Our fine line of Thanksgiving Carving Sets is the best in town. The prices are very reasonable and the goods high-class.

We also have on display a splendid array of TABLE SILVERWARE and CUT GLASS at low prices.

To-day would be a good day to call.

THAT THANKFUL FEELING

comes not only at Thanksgiving time, but every day in the year, if you are the proud possessor of one of our pianos. And there is no reason why you should not be, for a small payment down and a trifling amount each week, are the terms on which we sell. Come in and let us show you the piano, and explain its merits.

LOCAL MATTERS

Change of Schedule.—Beginning tomorrow (Sunday) a new schedule goes into effect on the Pennsylvania Railroad. Sunday afternoon train leaves here at 3.58 instead of 4.04, and returns at 7.05. Week-day train leaves at 7.40 A. M. and returns at 11.09 A. M. Afternoon train leaves at 2.51 instead of 3, and returns at 6 o'clock.

Dwelling Destroyed by Fire.—The dwelling and contents on the Vickers farm, near Melitota, accupied by Mr. John Duyer and family were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire broke out after the family had gotten up, and is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. The loss is about $2500 covered by insurance in companies represented by Edgar P. Beck.

Fine Honor for Kent Countian.—Major Morris K. Barroll, of the United States Army now stationed at Fort Hancock, New Jersey, has been made Superior Commanding Officer of the fort. Fort Hancock is one of the finest appointments in the Army, and Commander Barroll is worthy of the great honor. Commander Barroll is a brother of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., of Chestertown, and of J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., of Philadelphia.

Appointed Bank Cashier.—Mr. F. E. Maddox, principal of the Galena Academy for some years past, has resigned to accept the position of cashier of the Galena bank, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. James D. Davis who goes as cashier of the People's Bank, of Middletown, Del. Mr. Maddox is well qualified for the place and will make an acceptable officer we are sure. He is a graduate of Washington College.

Educational Special. — The Good Farming train which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has very generously placed at the disposal of Delaware College, Maryland Agricultural College and the Delaware State Board of Agriculture, will make a tour of the Maryland-Delaware peninsula Dec. 2 to 7 inclusive. The train will be manned by experts on Agricultural subjects, who will make addresses along the route. At each station a stop of one hour and twenty minutes will be made and three speeches upon leading farm subjects will be made. The nearest stop to Kent county will be made at Townsend, Del., at 10.25 on December 2nd.

Dr. Fell May Become Provost.—Dr. Thomas Fell, for over 25 years president of St. John's College at Annapolis, will in all probability become the next provost of the University of Maryland. Dr. R. Dorsey Coale, of the University of Maryland, admitted Tuesday that the name of Dr. Fell would be presented to the board of regents at its meeting next month. Dr. Coale said, however, that the selection of Dr. Fell lay entirely with the board, but it has been intimated that the members of the board of regents are thoroughly in sympathy with the proposition to indorse Dr. Fell. Under the arrangement Dr. Fell would not be compelled to relinquish his duties as president of St. John's College.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

The County Anditing Committee expects to finish its labors on Monday next.

Four prisioners escaped from Elkton jail last Sunday during the absence of the sheriff and his deputy.

One of our young farmers who killed 22 fine hogs on Moaday sold two of them to a Chestertown butcher at 8½ cents a pound dressed. He received more than $35 net for the two hogs.

Mr. Charles M. Vickers, of Broad Neck, who advertised his fine Lankford apples for sale in the TRANSCRIPT called this week and said—"Take out my advertisement. All sold." See! That's the way it goes.

The Washington College Reserves simply swamped the Centreville High School squad on Washington Field on Tuesday afternoon, the score being 74 to 0. It was not even a good practice game for the Reserves.

Moody & Lusby's closing out sale is attracting buyers from distant points, and with such a large assortment of new fall and winter merchandise, they still have good assortments to show you. Get in early as you can.

It is estimated that 1005 extra railway mail clerks will be required to handle the increased business in the Government Mail Service after January 1 due to the passage of the Parcels Post law. Here is a chance for somebody to get a good job.

The suit of J. J. Willis against the Board of County Commissioners of Cecil county for $8,000 for the erection of a bridge over Big Elk Creek, near Elkton, which was moved to Queen Anne's court for trial last spring has again been moved to Kent.

One of our farmers has five thousand baskets of kieffer pears which he is allowing his hogs to eat because he can get only 8 cents per basket for them and it does not pay to pick them at that price. It looks like the day for the keiffer pear, as well as the peach, is past in this section.

"Uncle" Dan Cox and Mr. Horn caught two dozen yellow perch off Morgan Creek bfidge on Wednesday, some of the fish, "Uncle" Dan says, were the finest neds he ever saw, and it is the latest fishing ever known in these parts with hook and line. This was the 20th of November.

J. Wilbur Cecil's building at Price, seven miles west of Centreville, occupied by him as a dwelling and store, was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. Mr. Cecil's loss on the building, furniture and stock of goods is estimated at $4,500 and is covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Messrs. John Anderson of Cecilton, Md., and Samuel G. Caldwell, of Galena, have bought and sold this fall over 1500 head of cattle, and are still in the market for more. They recently sold and shipped in seven days nine carloads of cattle of all kinds. They are still hustling for more to supply their trade.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will put a special Refrigerator "Milk" Car on the line on Monday, to carry the milk from the stations at Worton and Kennedyville to Philadelphia. The car will be attached to the afternoon train at Worton. The Worton milk station is paying $1.60 per 100 lbs for milk this month.

Besides Coach Porter, former coach James C. Turner, William Jump and Mr. Huff, of Princeton, have been putting the Washington College squad through a series of hard practicing during the week, preparatory to the game with St. John's Collese in Baltimore next Thursday. The Transcript predicts that Washington will win this game.

There have been five gunning accidents in Queen Anne's county since the season for shooting rabbits and partridges opened on Nov. 15th. Two colored people have been killed, two young white men have been wounded and Dr. Samuel J. Price, of Queenstown, made a narrow escape, when his gun accidently discharged, carrying away a portion of his trousers leg.

Mr. George Sutton, the well-known Worton trainer has gone into winter quarters. He delivered the promising gray colt, Twinkle March, to his owner, Mr. Holt Woodall, last week, and the only horse he will carry through the winter is Lady Thompson. Mr. Sutton will have from eight to twelve horses in his stables for training next spring a nong which, besides Lady Thompson, will be two or three well-known campaigners.

Dr. S. Cole Bowers, of New Freedom, Pa., son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, is quite a chicken fancier and has some of the finest show birds in the country. He has taken the silver cup in competition with the best breeders of White Wyandottes in the country at Glen Rock, York and New Bloom Fairs and has a rooster for which he was recently offered $50. He will enter his birds in the great Poultry Show at the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, Dec. 31st to Jan. 4th.

Dr. T. B. Willson, the well-known physician of near Edesville, was in Chestertown on Tuesday for the first time for several months. Dr. Willson has been nursing an injured limb due to a heavy stone, which he attempted to lift, falling upon it. The doctor was confined to his bed for a week or more, but we are glad to state that the injured member is assuming normal condition.

At the regular meeting of the Mount Vernon Literary Society last Saturday night, a parliamentary debate was held. The President appointed Mr. Pardew as leader of the Parliamentarians, and Mr. Ridgely as leader of the Congressmen. The subject then proposed was: Resolved, That children seven years old should be taught Social Hygiene, or the relation of the sexes. The Congressmen debated the affirmative side of the question, while the Parliamentarians argued in favor of the negative. After the subject had been hotly discussed, it was put to a vote, the Parliamentarians coming out winners.

The Musical and Literary Club, of Betterton, met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Gooding, of Betterton, Friday evening. All officers and about 20 members present. This club has a promising future owing to the musical talent. After the usual business, the first etertainment was held, a piano solo by Mrs. Chas. Brice; a violin solo by Mrs. Jones; mandolin selection by Mrs. Ernest Briscoe and Mrs. Jones; duet by Mrs. J. H. Gooding and Dr. L. P. Atwell. Reading by Mr. Lewis Sykes, closed with refreshments and a musical quartet. This club is to be congratulated upon being able to secure fine musical talent.

Mr. John Schauber's milk team caused some excitement on our streets on Monday morning in a runaway. Milk bottles and milk were spilled with much greater rapidity than the milk man leaves them at our doors, and seriously speaking there was considerable loss. Mr. Schauber was driving a young colt which got frightened at something. The horses ran out the main road around Airy Hill, through Lovers' Lane, on to Chestertown, over to Mr. Barroll's house, and back to Mr. Herman Blackway's store, a distance of 10 or 12 miles. Enough bottles to hold 20 gallons of milk were broken. All the milk was lost, and the wagon was upset and damaged. Mr. Schauber asks us to extend his thanks to the people for their kindness in finally stopping his team.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore on Tuesday to Mr. William M. Rash and Miss Sylvia B. Carter, both of Kent county.

Mr. J. F. McWhorter, Mrs. Purnell McWhorter and Mrs. Emma Alrich visited Mr. and Mrs. George B. McWhorter this week. Mrs. Alrich is an aunt of Mr. George McWhorter, whom he had not seen for 37 years. They made the trip in Mr. McWhorter's auto from Middletown.

Mr. Austin Little, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Little, formerly of this town, underwent an operation for an affection of the ear in a Baltimore hospital last week. The operation was successful, and we are glad to state that he is improving rapidly.

Little Miss Emily Lusby, while walking down Washington avenue on Thursday afternoon with her bicycle, slipped and fell in a ditch, striking her knee against a sharp piece of glass. An ugly gash was cut in her knee, which required the taking of six stitches by Dr. Dodd to close the wound. After the accident the little girl mounted her wheel and rode home, and displayed great nerve while the doctor was dressing the wound. The glass came within a hair's breadth of severing a ligament.

Mrs. Maggie E. Jewell, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Davis in Flatland, who has been quite sick but is improved we are glad to state.

Mrs. Carolene L. Hynson, one of our most prominent and most highly esteemed lady residents, quietly observed her 88th birthday on Thursday. We are glad to state that Mrs. Hynson is enjoying remarkably good health for one of her age, and the Transcript joins her numerous friends in expressing the hope that she may live to enjoy many more such occasions.
