After driving Detroiter 3500 miles over all sorts of roads, I recommend it to any one desiring the purchase of an Automobile. It is by far the leading $900 car in America to-day—possessing features only found on $1200 to $1500 machines. After using machines for 5 years, I am in a position to know when I see a dependable, desirable car, and the "Detroiter" is just that car. You get an Automobile in quality, style and motoring qualities when you get a "Detroiter."

SENATOR RAYNER DEAD.

Maryland Loses One of Her Noblest Sons, and the Nation a Great Statesman.

United States Senator Isidor Rayner died at his home in Washington, D. C., shortly after six o'clock on Monday morning after a long struggle with a disease which had fastened itself upon his system months ago. Neuritis developed months ago, and the poison had gone to almost every organ of the body, sapping his vitality from day to day, until the end came peacefully on Monday morning. The dying words of the statesman were: "I shall soon be in the Land of Nod". This sentence furnished the theme for a most beautiful tribute by the Bentztown Bard published in his column in the Sun on Wednesday.

Isidor Rayner was born in Baltimore on April 11, 1850, and was the son of William S. and Amelia R. Rayner.

He studied first in the public schools of Baltimore and later attended the law school of the University of Maryland. Later he completed a four year course at the University of Virginia, pursuing the academic course of three years and a law course during the last year.

Mr. Rayner then became a law student in the offices of Brown & Brune, and in 1871, when 21 years old, was admitted to the bar.

In 1878 he was elected to the Maryland Legislature.

While taking an active part in campaigns Mr. Rayner devoted himself entirely to his practice until 1885, when he was sent to the Maryland Senate.

In 1886 he was nominated for Congress and was elected three times to that body.

In the fall of 1899 he was elected Attorney-General of Maryland.

In 1895 he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Maryland, but withdrew.

In 1904 Mr. Rayner was elected to the United States Senate for the term from March 4, 1905, to March 1911.

The Legislature of 1910 re-elected him. At the latter session he had no Democratic opposition.

One of Mr. Rayner's most celebrated cases was his defense of Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, before the court of inquiry at Washington in 1901.

Senator Rayner married Miss Frances Jane Bevan, a daughter of William F. Bevan, in 1871. They have one son, William B. Rayner.

Grange Notes.

Fairlee Grange held its first special meeting last Wednesday. The music was in charge of Mrs. George Hatcherson and Mrs. W. G. Smyth. The grange choir sang a beautiful Thanksgiving anthem—"Good Bye to Summer," etc. Readings by Mrs. A. E. Corey and Mrs. H. T. Richardson. "The Grange Garner," a paper composed of contributions by various members of the order was read by Miss Ida C. Crew. The articles in this number were especially good and valuable. Music by Messrs. Warren Hurlock and Kemp Bordley was enjoyed by all. A poem by Mr. J. A. McCleary will be published next week.

Rev. R. S. Rowe Dead.—Rev. Robert S. Rowe, the oldest minister in the Maryland Conference, and a former paster of Kennedyville charge, died on Thursday.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Everybody's Doing It,
DOING WHAT?
Why the best and only thing they can do—to save the "pennies," which, owing to the stringency of the times, are so hard to get.
Thompson knows how hard it is to make both ends meet, and now that his annual reductio sale is over, we propose to continue to give the very best bargains for the smallest amount of mone obtainable. The proof of the pudding is chewing the string, and if you will give our stock an inspec tion and allow us to quote our prices we will cheerfully accept the result.
At last we have found the "one thing needful," and that is a guaranteed rubber boot, the ARROW BRAND, used by lumbermen and miners all over the United States to the exclusion of other brands. One merchant's sales increased from one season to the next over 500 per cent., showing the absolute reliability of the article.
Thompson is not in business for glory, but to make an honest, square livelihood, and it is his endeavor to give you your money's worth every time. Recollect, if a shoe does not wear as it ought, it is not his fault, and he will do everything to right the matter if possible. Any complaint, come right back and see if you cannot be satisfied. All dealers have complaints, and he is not an exception, but all he asks is to let him help satisfy you.
We know you cannot do better than with us. We will guarantee your money's worth, good treatment and satisfaction every time.
So do what others are doing, try us and be convinced.
