In and Around Georgetown.

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solomnized last Thursday at high noon at the home of Mrs. A. W. Woodall when her daughter, Sara K., became the bride of Mr. Wm. A. Hyland. The ceremony was performed by Father Daily, of St. Dennis' Church, Galena, in the presence of about 25 of the near relatives of the contracting parties. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue broadcloth and a black picture hat. The house was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums, palms and other potted plants. A sumptuous dinner followed, after which the bride and groom, amidst showers of confetti, left by automobile to the train for an extended honey-moon to various points.

Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, of Chestertown, was the guest of Mrs. M. E. Emory on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Miss Mary Scott has returned to her home in Galena after a pleasant visit with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Way, of Baltimore.

Royal Worcester and Bon Ton

CORSETS

The BON TON is the "Corset du Luxe" for well-groomed women—the recognized standard of Corset perfection. The prettiet woman lacks charm unless she has the wit to be well-groomed—that is neatly, becomingly dressed—and above all, trim of figure.

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSETS emphasize a naturally good form and create attractive curves where none existed. A superb figure is within every woman's power if she will but wear the Royal Worcester Corsets. Scores of the most exquisite and fashionable new designs now on display at CARMINE'S.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '61 to '65. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is romance, it is history, it is literature. You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful series—an inside story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will grip you hard, and hold your interest from first to last. Fill out the coupon and send it now before you forget it.
