VOL. LI—NO. 28. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1912. $1.00 PER ANNUM

MARION T. MILLER and OLD KRIS

XMAS OPENING

Thursday Afternoon and Evening, Dec. 12th,

FROM 2 O'CLOCK UNTIL 9 P. M.

All are invited to attend our XMAS OPENING and see our immense stock of Xmas Goods, which we have taken special care in selecting.

Every customer purchasing goods to the amount of One Dollar or more between the hours of two and nine o'clock on Thursday, the day of our opening, will be given a handsome souvenir.

DON'T FORGET—THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12th, between 2 and 9 o'clock.

EVERYBODY COME AND SEE OLD KRIS.

MARION T. MILLER, Rock Hall, Md.

Everybody's Doing It, DOING WHAT?

Why the best and only thing they can do—to save the "pennies," which, owing to the stringency of the times, are so hard to get.

Thompson knows how hard it is to make both ends meet, and now that his annual reductio sale is over, we propose to continue to give the very best bargains for the smallest amount of mone obtainable. The proof of the pudding is chewing the string, and if you will give our stock an inspec tion and allow us to quote our prices we will cheerfully accept the result.

At last we have found the "one thing needful," and that is a guaranteed rubber boot, the ARROW BRAND, used by lumbermen and miners all over the United States to the exclusion of other brands. One merchant's sales increased from one season to the next over 500 per cent., showing the absolute reliability of the article.

Thompson is not in business for glory, but to make an honest, square livelihood, and it is his endeavor to give you your money's worth every time. Recollect, if a shoe does not wear as it ought, it is not his fault, and he will do everything to right the matter if possible. Any complaint, come right back and see if you cannot be satisfied. All dealers have complaints, and he is not an exception, but all he asks is to let him help satisfy you.

We know you cannot do better than with us. We will guarantee your money's worth, good treatment and satisfaction every time.

So do what others are doing, try us and be convinced.

CORN SHELLERS.

We have anything in Corn Shellers, from the little fellow you attach to a box at $1.75 each, to an 8-hole if you wish it.

We have a special 2-hole sheller that we believe is the easiest running one there is on the market. It is roller-bearing, has easy feed, riddles corn, separates cob and corn. If you need anything in the sheller line, see ours before you buy.

DEARBORNS.

We have again been enabled to put some completed jobs on our floors after an unprecedented run on them during the summer. We are trying to improve on our jobs all the time in the way of more neat construction, better materials, etc. Come see us if you are in need of a dearborn. You can take it home with you. No waiting to get it finished now.

Poultry Supplies.

Ground Meat, Poultry Bone, Chick and Scratch Feeds, Charcoal, Mica Grit, Oyster Shell. Fairfield's Poultry Tonic.

NOW IS THE TIME

To See About Your Painting.

I give my personal attention to every detail of every painting job. A large part of my success is due to the fact that we use only the best materials. Lewis & Masury's White Lead, Pure Linseed Oil, Varnishes, Barn Paints, etc., in fact everything in the paint line.

Always ready to show sample cards and quote prices. Let me estimate on your painting.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

PATTERSON—EVANS.

An unusually pretty wedding took place Friday evening when Miss Rebecca Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William James Evans, of Baltimore, was married to Lieut. Robert E. Patterson, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Patterson, of Wilmington, Del. The bridegroom and his ushers appeared in full-dress uniform, and the scene was a beautiful one. The ceremony, which took place at 6.30 o'clock at the Episcopal Church of St. Michael and All Angels, was performed by the rector, Rev. Dr. Charles Fiske, and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cockey, 3114 North Calvert street. The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, and was met at the chancel by the bridegroom and his best man, Lieut. Frederick H. Dickman, of West Point. Her gown was of white satin, trimmed with rose point lace and pearls, and she wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Evans, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore white silk crepe, with draperies of hand-painted chiffon, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Martha and Miss Eleanore Goldsborough, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Goldsborough, were flower girls. They wore white lingerie frocks, with blue sashes, and carried pink roses. The ushers were Lieuts. Oscar J. Gatchell, William C. Harrison, Stephen H. MacGregor, and Robert N. Bodine, all of the Coast Artillery Corps, of Fort Monroe, Va.

NORRIS—CAPPS.

A quiet but beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. William Capps on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 28th, at 2 o'clock P. M., when Miss Mary, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Capps, was united in marriage to Magistrate Carl T. Norris. Rev. F. X. Moore officiated while Miss Ethel Robinson played Lohengrein's wedding march. After congratulations and customary formalities Mr. and Mrs. Norris departed in an automobile for Rock Hall from where they proceeded by steamer to Baltimore and other points. Both bride and groom are well-known and highly respected in this community. Their many friends wish them long life and much happiness.

Wedding Announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dawson Larrimore, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Darrow Larrimore, to Dr. Frank Hicks Walke, of Shreveport, La. The wedding will take place early in the spring. Miss Helen is well-known in Chestertown, where she lived with her parents on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Alexander R. Austin announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Helen M. Austin, to John W. D. Jump, Esq., of the Easton bar, and well-known here. The wedding will take place the second week in January.

Our Advertisers.

Look out for the big minstrel and musical.

We call the attention of our readers especially in the lower part of the county to the Christmas announcement of Marion T. Miller, one of Rock Hall's popular and progressive merchants. Mr. Miller carries only the reliable line of goods. He sells at popular prices and has a force of courteous clerks who will give you or your order prompt attention. Mr. Miller is prepared for Christmas a month before. He has anything you want. Give him a call and buy some of his good goods. See what he will do for you on Thursday, his opening day.

We call attention again to the full page advertisement of the Kent County Land Company. The company is disposing of a number of valuable properties and are offering others to the public at bargain prices. Look their advertisement up and read it carefully.

Old Kris has left a great lot of the nicest toys at A. W. Carmine's big store on High street. Just go take a look at his windows, and then run home and tell mama and papa about what you saw in Mr. Carmine's window. You can get candy and nuts there too, and a nice assortment of useful presents are also on display. Go before Santa comes and takes them away.

Read the Christmas suggestions which the Hub, Millington, offers in this issue. This store is where you get gifts that will be appreciated by every one. A suit of clothes, pair of shoes, hats, gloves and hosiery of the most stylish cut and fashion are there. Go see them and buy them.

H. F. Jefferson & Bro. are advertising a number of excellent and appropriate Christmas gifts. Their store is full of the kind of Christmas presents that last, and these are the kind that are most appreciated. Read their big advertisement on page 2.

Beautiful display of Christmas goods at M. A. Toulson's drug store. Go in and look over the assorment. You will be sure to find something you want.

IMPORTANT! If you want a Christmas gift of a substantial nature, one that will prove useful and make a lasting impression, consult the Xmas advertisement of Bordley & Sons in this issue. You will find many suggestions that will help you in your dilema.

Read McIntire & Son's little advertisement on 1st page. It means a saving of 10 cents to every cash buyer.

Tolchester Company will run their usual Christmas Excursion from Tolchester to Baltimore, and also have made some changes in their regular advertisement. See adv. in this paper.

Worton Items.

Miss Eunice Cooper is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Money, near Fairlee.

Mr. Walter Fowler is spending sometime in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Loller entertained a few friends one afternoon last week.

Mrs. Harry Williams entertained the Ladies' Aid, Thursday afternoon of this week.

The new benches for Union M. E. Church have arrived.

Mr. Edw Schofield and family have moved into the home formerly occupied by Mr. Chas. Ivens.

Mr. Harry Fowler will remove to the Dwyer property recently vacated by Mr. Schofield.

A full attendance at the Presbyterian Sunday school is requested to-morrow morning. Mr. Krusen, the superintendent, will have something of interest to tell the scholars.

THE GRIM REAPER.

MR. E. S. ADKINS.

Mr. E. S. Adkins, one of the most prominent business men on the Eastern Shore died at his home in Salisbury last Friday, aged 64 years. Mr. Adkins was at the head of the E. S. Adkins Lumber Company, and was interested in a number of other large business enterprises. He was a prominent Republican, and was postmaster at Salisbury during President McKinley's first term. He was a candidate for State Senator in 1904 but was defeated by M. V. Brewington. He was also a prominent member of the Methodist Protestant Church. He leaves several children among whom are Mr. E. Dale Adkins, a frequent visitor to Chestertown, Mr. Fred P. Adkins, a lay delegate from the Maryland Conference to the General Conference, and Mrs. Elderdice, who has been a visitor at the home of Mr. Robert G. Nicholson, near town, on several occasions.

MRS. REBECCA FRANCIS.

Mrs. Rebecca Ricaud, widow of the late Harry Slater Francis, and daughter of late Dr. Lawrence M. and Annie E. Ricaud, of this county, died at her late residence, cottage apartments, Morris and West avenues, Baltimore, on Saturday. Funeral services were held on Sunday evening at 5.30 o'clock. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery, this county, on Monday afternoon. The deceased leaves four children, Mrs. Samuel Richmond, Misses Louise, Lloyd and Mary Lake Francis. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. S. S. Hepburn. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Robert M., Luther C. and Walter Francis, Charles Brown, R. Sterling Jones and Harry Nicols. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

WALTER K. IVENS.

Walter K. Ivens, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ivens, of Worton, died at the home of his parents on Thursday afternoon, after a short illness of heart failure, aged 21 years. Funeral services will be held at his late home on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Wm. Clews, of Kennedyville. Interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Resolutions of Respect.

"The Ladies' Guild" of St. Paul's Church, feeling most deeply the great loss it has sustained in the death of one of its most valued members, Mrs. Etta E. Kilbourn, desires to place upon record this tribute of its appraciation of her work for the good of the society, her prompt and faithful attendance on all its meetings, her efficient services as its treasurer, and her willing help wherever needed.

As a member of the Church, which she loved with a deep and tender love, she was ever faithful, ever ready with kind gentle words and deeds, and with tender sympathy for all those in trouble and sorrow.

As a member of the choir, she was constantly in attendance, giving her best efforts in its interest and welfare.

As a teacher in the Sunday school, which to her was a labor of love, her place will be hard to fill.

Her bright cheerful nature, combined with her deep christian character shed their influence over all with whom she came in contact, and the sudden passing away of this useful and beautiful life has cast a cloud of sadness and gloomm over us.

Therefore, it is

Resolved, By a rising vote that we extend to the bereaved family—the husband, the nephew, the mother and father, our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy in their great sorrow, and request a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and the county papers, and that a page of the minutes be set apart on which to subscribe this memorial of our love and esteem.

After driving Detroiter 3500 miles over all sorts of roads, I recommend it to any one desiring the purchase of an Automobile. It is by far the leading $900 car in America to-day—possessing features only found on $1200 to $1500 machines. After using machines for 5 years, I am in a position to know when I see a dependable, desirable car, and the "Detroiter" is just that car. You get an Automobile in quality, style and motoring qualities when you get a "Detroiter."
