Loyola, Douglass cop title openers

Basketball teams of Loyola and Douglass high schools hold the upper hand in the playoff for the Maryland Scholastic Association championships, as the contesting teams gird for tonight's (Friday) second game of the series.

The Loyola Dons whipped Southern High School, 41-39, in a low-shooting opening battle at Morgan State College Tuesday evening. And in the junior varsity playoffs, Douglass Ducks thumped Loyola JV, 43-28.

Th same four teams continue the title quest this evening, beginning with the Douglass-Loyola Jayvee tilt at 6:45 p.m. The elder Loyola machine will try to make it two straight over Its Bulldog rivals from Southern at 8:15 p.m.

In Tuesday's game, both teams suffered from the jitters, according to the rival coaches —Ed Hargaden of Loyola, and Stan Fieldman of Southern. This, the two mentors agreed, accounts for the few points tallied.

AS PREDICTED by Hargaden in conversation with the AFRO earlier in the week, the Dons' main hopes lay in their ability to check Bodie Bonner, the big scorer and rebounder of the Bulldogs.

Brogdon was held to 15 points, but his rebounding was of the highest order. It was largely due to the mastery of the boards that Southern, playing well below form, managed to hand close to their opponents.

Appeals court upholds use of Fla. links

NEW ORLEANS, La. (ANP) —Colored people in West Palm Beach, Fla., again won the right, to use the city's municipally-owned golf course when the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, in a ruling here last week, refused to lift an injunction ordering the city to discontinue its jim-crow ban on the course.

The permanent injunction was issued last June 13 after Warren H. Colle and three other colored persons filed a suit contending that the city, in not permitting them to use the golf course, violated their civil rights.

The appellate court here maintained that the appeal was overruled by three previous opinions of the court.

Globetrotters here March 28

Basketball's most entertaining fun show, the Harlem Globetrotters, invade the Baltimore Coliseum on March 28, for their annual spring appearance.

Abe Saperstein's wizards of the hardwood will engage the House of David five, one of the oldest touring pro teams in existence. It will be the first showing of the bewhiskered clan in this area in ten years.

Millions of fans throughout the world have watched the famed, Trotters in action over the years, and local enthusiasts have always turned out in SRO numbers to greet them here.

Boasting one of the best line-ups in their history — in both playing and clowning — the celebrated fummakers are reportedly cooking up a brand new bag of tricks for their Coliseum date.

Bids out for AAU swim meet

Local swimming officials are forging early entry in the annual Amateur Athletic Union swimming championships, scheduled for Southern High School pool next Saturday (Mar. 22).

Harry Thompson, director of the championships, is one of the largest entry lists in the history of the event.

Thompson told the AFRO late this week that persons desiring to compete should file with him at least 10 days prior.

Applications should be addressed to Thompson at 653 Dumbarton Ave., this city.

Cage twin bill slated Sunday

A basketball double-header is scheduled for the Lexington Center Sunday afternoon beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

In the first game, the Horsemen, A.C., will tangle with the Stonewalls of Washington, D.C., and the second encounter will pit the Baltimore Clippers against the All Stars, another Washington, D.C. quint.

GET OFF ME—John Douglass (with ball) of Cardozo probably told John Carroll's Long John Thompson "get off me" as he snatched this rebound in the fierce battle between the two teams for the city schoolboy basketball title at Uline Arena Friday. Cardozo upset Carroll, 67-62, to take the crown for the second straight year. Looking on is Douglass' teammate, Frank Harrison. Thompson at 6-foot-9 is a foot taller than Douglass.

Red Shield unit wins cage game

The Monarchs of the Red Shield Boys' Club on N. Calhoun St. defeated the All Stars from the Middle River Branch of the Red Shield Clubs by a score of 56 to 19 at the N. Calhoun St. gym.

The Monarchs outscored the All Stars in every quarter and led all of the way. Mason was high man for the Monarchs with 10 points. Sullivan was high scorer, for the All Stars with 8 points.

The senior team from the Good Shepherd House in Washington, D.C. thoroughly trounced the Falcons from the Calhoun St. Red Shield by a score of 53 to 26.

At the end of the first quarter, Red Shield was leading 6 to 2. Then the Washington boys found the range of the baskets and led the rest of the way.

Leonard Robinson were the high men for Good Shepherd hitting 18 and 17 respectively. Smith led in the scoring department for Red Shield with 12 points.

For the season, Red Shield teams have won 4 out of 16 for a .250 average.

Gate City open golf set April 3

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The 4th annual Gate City Open golf tournament which will be held on the Brentwood Municipal Course April 3-4, is one of the best-attended in this section of the country.

The 1957 Open drew a field of over 100 players from all over the nation and this year's attendance promises to be even larger.

It is expected that Charles Sifford of Philadelphia will be on hand to defend his title and Tom Brown of Tampa, Fla. will defend his title among the amateurs.

On The Yannwagon

BY EARL VANN

PHILADELPHIA

There is no longer a need to debate the question, well, Wilt Chamberlain, Elgin Baylor, Oscar Robertson and Guy Rodgers, collectively, make the All American basketball team.

It has happened as I predicted it would.

These four men are beyond a doubt the four greatest basketball players in the land.

THERE IS a fifth player who would have made the first All American team if the high school had come East. He is Bob Boozer, ace courtman from Omaha, Nebraska.

Already Boozer has made a national magazine. All American team together with the other four lads, to set an unprecedent "first".

Never in the history of the U.S.A. has an All American first team been composed of five men of the same race.

These five players merit every post season honor they may receive, they are certainly the "tops".

By the time you read this column, Overbrook High will have won the Public High championship again.

field is expected to be even larger.

It is expected that Charles Sifford of Philadelphia will be on hand to defend his title and Tom Brown of Tampa, Fla. will defend his title among the amateurs.

This feat stands out similarly to race-conscious members of the Public High School basketball committee.

This year an entirely new system was set up. There was the hope (I was told) of helping Lincoln High in position to win the Public High championship.

LINCOLN HIGH is still predominantly all white, and its athletic teams are all white.

Last week at the Palestra this theory did a real "flopero." Overbrook, an integrated team from Negro neighborhoods 44-22.

Then Overbrook met Germantown High, another integrated team.

Wayne Hightower, Ralph Hayward, of Overbrook; Ron Ford, Jim Dunston, of Edison, Earl Proctor, Obie Synder of Germantown are sure bets to make the All Public first team.

Bruce Drysdale of Lincoln will also make it and justly so. He didn't be surprised to see three or four colored lads on this team.

A GROUP of high Philly athletes known as the Overbrook Cabaret Party at Times Auditorium last week.

Bruce Drysdale of Lincoln was asked what was the street wound say. "The join was really jumpin'."

Present are: Harold Washington, president; Howard Vaughn and Joseph Warren, vice presidents; Wallace Delaney, secretary;

Charles Robinson, recording secretary; Jesse Smallwood, treasurer; Joseph Hardy and David Williams, business managers; George Peterson, sargeant at arms; Leonard Jenkins, chaplain.

Members: James Smith, Gilbert Robbins and Bennie Williams. Bernard Mansfield is the social director.

These fellows are certainly in the running for honors as Philadelphia's leading Social and Athletic club.

Lanky John Cheyney, local basketball star, who does his playing for Sunbury in the Easton League, is currently teaching at Overbrook High School, and is unofficially the Hilltoppers' assistant coach.

Much of the finess and savoy of the players is due to the teaching of Cheyney.

Although Cheyney devotes much of his time to coaching the team, he is not paid for his services. In fact, there is not a colored coach of any team in the Public High system.

THIS COLUMN is dedicated to reporting sport events and facts.

So I pass along this information to those who best represent the interest of fair play for all.

The Phillies are badly in need of a capable first baseman and third baseman.

No outfielder has come to this date out of the Spring camp about Frank Herrera, if that could also is capable of playing both positions.

I wonder why?

Folley-Machen TV clash may lead to Patterson

SAN FRANCISCO — Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., and Eddie Machen of Redding, Cal., meet here Wednesday night in a television bout that may be the pathway to a title fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Forecasts Rocky-Floyd title match

CHICAGO (ANP)— A Chicago columnist early last week renewed a prediction he made some months ago that former heavyweight champion, Rocky Marciano would come out of retirement to try to regain the title.

The columnist is Jack Mabley, who repeated the prediction in his column, "Jack Mabley's Story."

Mabley predicted that Rocky who retired —undefeated, will come out of retirement to fight Floyd Patterson, the current champion the public seldom hears about, some time this summer in New York. He said the fight will do $1-2 million worth of business.

Husband, GITTINGS

GUNTHER, Children, who passed away JOHN T. AND ANNIE FRANCES
GUNTHER, who passed away March 16, 1956.
Somewhere above this troubled sea
Safe beneath all grief and care Our Mother rests in Heavenly peace.
Great grandmother, we'll meet her there.

LOVING DAUGHTERS, AND GRANDCHILDREN

JACKSON — In loving memory of my dear husband and our dear father, HERMAN J., who passed away March 11, 1957.
As I think back with tenderness, Along the road we trod;
I bless the years I had with you And leave the rest to God.
Why does God give us our loved ones —
And teach us to cherish them so?
And then take them back into Heaven, We'll never know.
But we know there's a greater to be
Where night and its fears are unknown.
Where the roses bloom on forever
We'll meet in that land the Master has prepared.
In the book of life there are memories
Of the happiest moments we've spent
And recorded in love is the blessed
You are gone, but the treasure you left us,
Is truly a value untold.
A life filled with deeds of kindness
And bounty of heart and soul.
We'll meet the loved one why left us,
So grief-stricken and alone.
Sweet memories are all we have left us
When our journey on earth is through.
Loving Wife, EVA AND CHILDREN

KOONS — In love and remembrance of our mother dear, MRS. ROSA L. KOONS, whom the Master called to be with Him, the sixteenth day March, 1943 — year of our Lord, 1953.
Tell Mother we'll be there,
In answer to her prayer.
This day may God tell our Mother We'll be there.
