John M. South, photographer, Imperial Hotel, Chestertown, Md., says; "I suffered a great deal from my back and kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had pains through my sides and back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Toulson's Drug Store and they gave me entire relief. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the strongest praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Kennedyville Items.

A company of the Pennsylvania R. R. men from Harrington, Del., are building a concrete bridge for the steam road near Kennedyville.

Mr. L. A. Pennington moved his stock of hardware goods into his new large and convenient store room on Monday, and is ready for business on a much larger scale.

The large number of the members of the Grange and Farmers' Club of the community attended the special service in the Methodist Protestant Church last Sunday morning, at which time the pastor, Mr. Mullineaux, drew lessons from the life and prophecies of Amos, the Farmer Prophet. Many kind and appreciative words have been spoken of the sermon.

In the audience at the above named service were a number of visitors, and among the rest, with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, was Mrs. Katie Frazier and her little boy, Paul, of near Newark, Del. Mrs. Frazier, formerly Miss Garey, was for some years a worker in the Kennedyville Church and Sunday school, and known as one of the sweetest singers in the choir and an ideal teacher in the school. Her many friends were delighted to see her. She left on Monday for her Delaware home.

The farmers of the community are busy finishing up their work preparatory to Christmas and the winter season. Many are shipping their corn on the cob.

A very large number attended the grange meeting on Monday night of this week, at which time Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Clews, Miss Bessie Jewell and Mr. Wm. Groves received the first and second degrees of the order. In the election of officers, for the ensuing year, past Master, G. R. Rasin, was again elected as Master of the grange.

The numerous friends of Mr. W. M. Clendaniel are exceedingly anxious concerning the treatment which he is again taking in the Baltimore Hospital for his affliction, and he has the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community. His wife accompanied him to the city last week for the operation, returning on Monday of the present week, reporting that her husband was doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. John Clendaniel has been in Wilmington for treatment under a specialist for some weeks, and her numerous friends trust that she may return to her home greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Mullineaux is still on the sick list, but is slowly being restored to her normal condition.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Urie, and Master Joseph Cosden, made a trip to Baltimore last week, going one day and returning the next, by way of Tolchester.

Services in the M. P. Church next Sunday as follows: Sunday school at 9.30 A. M., sermon by the pastor at 10.30 C. E. service in the evening at 7, led by Miss Emma Shafer, topic "Teachings of this Year's Sunday School Lessons that Have Impressed Themselves upon Me." A large number is expected. A brief address on the topic by pastor. All co r dially welcome.

Millington Items.

Mrs. Mary Porter, of Clayton, Del., spent last week with her son, Mr. R. E. Porter.

Mrs. Janie Price returned home Monday, after spending ten days with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, who is quite sick at her home in Wilmington, Del.

The card club was entertained at the home of Mrs. R. W. Comegys on Friday evening of last week, and at Mrs. C. B. Dudley's on Thursday evening of this week.

Mrs. Merritt Brice is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Norris Young, of Pocomoke City, was the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahe[illegible]veral days last week.

Mr. John Anthoy moved this week to the Emerson house recently vacated by Mr. David Percy, and Mrs. Ada Vansant, of near Chesterville, moved to the G. D. Price house on South Crane St.

Mrs. Smith, of Chestertown, spent this week with Mrs. R. W. Comegys.

Mrs. Frank Corkran and little son, Blair, of Lutherville, Md., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Kate Benson.

Miss Claire Ahern spent a few days last week with friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter King, of near Chestertown, were guests on Tuesday of his sister, Mrs. Fannie Lockerman.

Mrs. Leon T. Lyons and Miss Nellie Davis, of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. J. R. Poore.

Mrs. J. P. Ahern is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Francis E. Fitch, of Staten Island, N. Y.

Mrs. Disharoon, of Salisbury, Md., was the guest the past two weeks of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Disharoon.

Richard Wilson, the six-weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Poore, died on Saturday evening last of whooping cough. The funeral took place from the home of his parents on Monday at 10.30 A. M. Rev. H. S. Thompson, officiated and J. L. Smith was the undertaker.

Mr. George Slaughter, of Conshohocken, Pa., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Slaughter, of near town.

Mr. Henry M. Tonkin, of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., is home on account of the extreme illness of his mother, Mrs. Kate R. Tonkin.

Miss Mary Barnes, of Crumpton, spent a few days this week with her cousin, Mrs. W. T. Mallalieu.

Mrs. T. A. Godwin and son, of near Kennedyville, were guests last Wednesday of her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

Mrs. Fannie Lockerman spent Monday in Chestertown.

When Boys Begin to go Wrong

A number of gentlemen were discussing the rising generation a few nights ago; we find what one of them had to say was worthy of consideration. In substance he had this to say: "Boys begin to go wrong when they begin to stay out at night. Of course, at first they don't think so, but after awhile when they get in trouble, when they begin to take the first drink, later on to play a game, and then on from bad to worse. Nine out [illegible]ten will tell you that their first wr[illegible] step was prowling around at night. Then again it is such an easy matter to find bad company on these midnight larks. The boy who haunts the streets after nightfall without business or permission, is cultivating a very dangerous habit. Any place where a boy has no business is a dangerous place for him, whether it is on the streets, in the stores or elsewhere. A boy that is all right likes his home, friends, books or newspapers is preference to the class found on the streets without business. Business men of all kinds look upon the boy loafer as the dead beat of the future."

The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE old line Republicans need not think they are going to scare Col. Roosevelt with their bravado. He is not the kind to get frightened. He is the sort that when he advocates a principle which he believes to be right, all heaven and earth can't move him. For that reason, and because of the great showing which the Progressive element of the Republican party made in the last election, it looks very much like Roosevelt and his following have come to stay, and then you know they have the capital with which to push their business.

Rock Hall Items.

Alexander's department store had its windows decorated in holiday attire for his annual Christmas sale. The store was very tastefully decorated, and a large crowd made their shopping keep his clerks busy last Wednesday.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. will hold an entertainment in their hall next Thursday. This will be one of the best of their productions with special scenery, which was painted for the occasion. The show will somewhat resemble an old-time minstrel with the exception that it is reversed. Be sure to see this show, "Before the War," with Rock Hall's most popular talent.

The Red Men gave a supper and dance to the general public last Thursday night.

M. T. Miller reports that his Christmas opening was the largest that he has had in the history of these openings.

Miss Olevia Clayton, who has been sick for several days, is able to attend her school duties again.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shallcross were Baltimore visitors this week shopping for Christmas.

There are now three trunk lines (telephone) to Chestertown, and the subscribers will not have to wait so long to get a message through now. The new one is called a phantom, and is a very interesting piece of wiring.

The correspondent of the Kent News last week wrote of a big battleship being in Chester river. Well, well, this was one of Uncle Sam's smallest boats, a torpedo boat, but no doubt a big fighter. It was, indeed, an unusual sight to see this little fellow speeding out of the river.

Percy Downey has accepted a position in Baltimore.

Mr. Frank Wheatley has moved into the Tom Ayres property on south main street.

Who got the rabbit? Ask Capt. Chas. Kerr.

Mrs. R. N. Greenhawk has been making an extended trip to Easton and near by towns.

"Nance," the valuable bird dog of Gritt Urie, which was seriously shot on Thanksgiving day, is getting along nicely on three legs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey are spending the winter in Baltimore.

Betterton Notes.

Those on the sick list are improving and are able to be out.

We are sorry to learn of Mr. E. M. Bonwell's terrible accident, and sincerely hope he may be out again soon.

Mr. C. E. Wright, Supt. of the Ericsson line, was in Betterton the past week looking after the interests of the company.

Mr. George Brice has a accepted a position in Philadelphia.

Mr. James Brice is visiting friends in Philadelphia and Jersey.

Rev. F. X. Moore is holding revival services here, and has been very much encouraged the past week in his work. Though some of the members seem to have lost interest in the church work, we hope they will wake up and render their assistance to this noble work.
