CHURCH WORK.

Special Christmas music will be sung in Christ Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday at the regular services. The pastor, Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, will preach sermons relative to the Christmas-tide at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sabbath school 2.30 P.M., Junior meeting 6 o'clock, Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M., mid-week service Thursday evening 7.30 o'clock.

Christ Church Sunday school will sing its annual Christmas carols, interspersed with interesting exercises and recitations on Sunday evening, December 29. The music is among the most beautiful the school has ever had, and accompanied by an orchestra under the direction of Mr. Arthur Bacon, with Miss Clara Usilton at the pipe organ, it will be well worth hearing. The annual Christmas treat will be held in the lecture room of the church on Tuesday evening, December 31st.

Presbyterian Church services: Georgetown 10.30, Kennedyville 2.45, Worton 7.30. The pastor and members of these churches cordially invite all to the services, especially those who have no church home, and they will esteem it a great privilege to personally welcome such. The theme for the Christmas sermon Sunday, Dec. 22nd, is "The Mighty God." Special Christmas music will be rendered in all of the three churches. We shall commence the New Year with the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. This will be a good and fit time for the reception of new members. It is hoped that many will take advantage of this and make themselves one with the body of Christ. All who contemplate uniting by letter and who have not yet applied for letters to the churches with which they were formerly affiliated, are earnestly requested to attend to this matter at once. The pendulum of history is about to take another swing and will usher in a period when the Church of Christ will become a popular institution once more. It would rejoice the heart of the pastor of the above churches if, on January 5, 1913, evidence of this was manifested by a great many uniting with the church. The pastor aims to make all the services pleasing to the people. He will endeavor to preach short, sharp, pointed, restful and up-to-date sermons, and will take great pains to develop the music side of the services. In order that the latter may be effectively accomplished, he has opened a music class in his home which meets every Wednesday evening. The object of this class is to teach note-reading to those who desire to sing in the choir. He promises note-reading in three months time to all who join the class. Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, are welcome. The only fee is a promise to use the voice for Jesus Christ in the Presbyterian Church. All are requested to bring a note book and pencil.

Rev. Mr. Clews and family will spend Christmas week in Washington with his wife's people. Both he and his wife earnestly wish all a merry Christmas.

The 3rd quarterly conference for the Kennedyville charge, F. H. Mullineaux, pastor, will be held in the parsonage sitting room, on Monday morning, next, the 23rd inst., at 10 o'clock. A full attendance of the official board is earnestly solicited. Special Christmas services in the above named church, on both Sunday morning and evening of next Sunday, the 22nd. In the evening, the Christian Endeavor topic will be: "What the Coming of Christ has done and will do for the World." In connection with the topic, the pastor, Mr. Mullineaux, will give an object lesson, using many different kinds of candles, called "The Feast of Lights." Special music. All most cordially invited. Rehearsal of music in the church Saturday evening.

Worton Items.

A MERRY XMAS TO ALL.

Mrs. Dodson has been having her house repaired. Stavely and Bowers did the work.

The teachers of our school give their pupils a Christmas treat Friday afternoon at the school.

Revival services closed Sunday evening with much success. Rev. F. X. Moore and his most estimable wife certainly worked earnestly and great good was accomplished.

Wedding Announcements.

Miss Helen Hackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett, of Still Pond, will be married on Christmas afternoon to Mr. Wallace Herman Ford. Mr. and Mrs. Ford will be at home in Still Pond after January 1.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Mary Virginia Porter, of Church Hill, to Mr. Howard Truman Clothier, also of Church Hill. The ceremony will be performed in Church Hill M. E. Church on Christmas morning at 11 o'clock. The bride is well-known in Chestertown, having visited friends here quite frequently.
