Go to Church for Guidance To a Better Way of Life

AFTER THE DRIZZLE — Members leave Memorial Baptist Church, Caroline and Preston Sts., when the rain slowed up on Easter Sunday long enough not to ruin any Easter bonnets. These pictured are Mrs. Bernice Gaskins, 1630 E. Biddle St.; Mrs. Doris Fitzgerald, 1845 Chapel St.; Mrs. Mable Watts, and daughter, Miss Rosaline Watts, 1814 Ashland Ave.; Mrs. Alfreda Byers, 443 E. 22nd St.; Mrs. Dorothy Lajoie, 2030 Madison Ave., and Jerry Williams, Lexington Park, Md.

Rev. Snowden holds revival at Allen

The Rev. W. J. Snowden, noted evangelist, is conducting a revival at Allen AME Church, 1130 W. Lexington St., which will close out tonight (Friday). The revival started on last Sunday.

Choirs, quartets and guests soloists are assisting in the services. Each service so far has been well attended, according to the Rev. Mr. Snowden.

The Rev. J. Wayman Henry is pastor of Allen AME.

At 11 a.m. Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Snowden will deliver the sermon at Wayman AME Church. The Rev. Noah Melvin is church pastor.

Episcopal service

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland will hold its Lenten Study Presentation Service on April 16, 8 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of the Incarnation, St. Paul St. and University Pkwy.

The Rev. Canon Bernard Newman, Vicar of Trinity Parish, New York, will be the speaker. Canon Newman is a member of the Joint Commission on Alcoholism, Episcopal Church, U.S.A.

League to hear governor aspirants

The Baltimore League of Women Voters will hear the views of candidates for governor, at an annual luncheon meeting 12:30 Tuesday, at the YMCA, Cathedral and Franklin Sts.

The candidates are to be allotted five minutes each, prior to a question period from guests.

Reservations are welcomed, and can be made by contacting the organization's office, 411 N. Charles St.

Attends meeting

Miss Marguerite L. Johnson of 416 Chesapeake Ave., Eastport, attended the 33rd annual conference of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers in New York City.

She is a senior majoring in elementary education at Bowie State Teachers College.

Brice Trio will appear at Sharp St.

The world famous Brice Trio will appear in a recital Sunday, April 13, at 5 p.m. in Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts.

The trio has scheduled an appealing program with selections from the pens of such musicians as Verdi and Beethoven.

The program will also include folk tunes and spirituals. Members of the trio are Carol, Eugene and Jonathan Brice.

MISS BRICE, a contralto, so impressed the late, great Serge Koussevitzky that she sang no less than ten times for him as soloist with the Boston Symphony.

Eugene Brice, bass soloist, has appeared with such distinguished organizations as the Paur Infantry Chorus, the New York Concert Choir and the Robert Shaw Chorale.

Jonathan Brice is considered one of the most distinguished pianist accompanists in the field.

Reservations for the concert may be had by phoning Lafayette 3-3193.

The program is for the benefit of the church's community service program.

7,000 hear Union choir

By JOHN B. HARRIS

NEW YORK — A capacity audience witnessed the 39th Annual United Easter Dawn Service conducted at Radio City Music Hall, Rockefeller Center here Sunday. The services, which were broadcast through the courtesy of The National Broadcasting Company, were sponsored by the Protestant Council of New York City.

Service goers moved into Radio City Music Hall 60 minutes before the service to see the combined choirs of Virginia Union University and Springfield College, Mass., under the direction of William J. Goodwin of Union and Gilbert T. Vickers of Springfield.

The performance of the choirs which totalled some 140 voices was magnificent as they blended harmoniously and kept tempo with the famed Music Hall Organ which was beautifully and expertly manned by Chief Organist Richard Leibert.

The soft lighted theatre achieved the spirit and reverence of Eastertime as the stage was converted into a striking pulpit and as the organ radiated the Hall with eloquence difficult to describe or even express.

The choirs rendered: "Lord, In Thy Resurrection," Gallus; "Surrexit Pastor Bonus," di Lasso; "Hence, All Fears And Sadness," Bach; "Alleluia," Thompson; "Christ Our Passover," Shaw; "Hallelujah Chorus" from The Messiah, Handel.

PRESIDING AT the famed Eckford, ruling elder, St. Marks Easter Service was Marvin B. Methodist Church. The Easter Gospel was read by Mrs. Warren J. Taussig, executive secretary, Manhatten United Church Women.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. David Read, minister, Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, who spoke on the meaning of Easter. Prayers were offered by the Rev. O. Clay Maxwell, minister, Mount Olivet Baptist Church; the Rev. Dan Potter, Protestant Council executive director; and the Rev. Phillip R. Maphe, minister, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The service which attracts some 7,000 persons annually and is the largest of New York City Easter observances, had for its background the cathedral-like setting of Radio City Music Hall's nearly production, "Glory of Easter." At the beginning of the service, lighting effects simulated the Easter dawn.

IMMEDIATELY after leaving Radio City, President and Mrs. Proctor left by limousine for Upper Manhattan where he was guest preacher at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church. A capacity crowd greeted its distinguished guest.

Dr. Proctor preached from a portion of St. John 14:2, "I Go to Prepare A Place For You." He admonished the audience that memory can be a help as well as a deterrent. Thomas Jefferson, is remembered as a great American, but even as he made his impression on America as a great statesman, he held men in bondage.

But Jesus Christ showed through his loving kindness a true love which transcends all mortal love, for He gave His life so that we may be freed, and if we remind ourselves and remember this, we are on the road to better human understanding but more so on that road to a world eternal in the heavens. After the service, Doctor and Mrs. Proctor attended the church dinner.

HONORED—Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore branch NAACP, receives a trophy from Joseph Gladden for outstanding community service at the 5th annual Youth Day at New Pilgrim Baptist Church.

Shiloh moves to new home Sunday

The congregation of Shiloh AME Church will move into the new church home at 2601 Lyndhurst Avenue Sunday, April 13.

Entrance service will be held at 11 a.m. The Rev. W. E. Sewell, is pastor.

Shiloh was originally located at Merryman Ln. and Barclay St. This property was taken to make way for Charles St. Blvd.

The church later moved to 28th and Barclay but this building was demolished to make way for the Waverly section redevelopment.

The congregation then moved to 1626 Druid Hill Avenue where it has worshipped for the past five years.

The church now has 87 members.

Zoning action delayed on auto shop plea

The Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals on Tuesday postponed until April 29, a scheduled hearing on a request to establish an auto repair shop at 1136-38 N. Gilmor St.

In other action, requests to house three families at 1313 E. Federal St. and at 524 E. 21st St. were withdrawn and dismissed.

No hearing is scheduled by the Zoning Board the coming Tuesday.

On April 15, the Zoning Board is scheduled to hear a request to establish a non-residential physician's office at 846 N. Carey St.

Also, to decide on an architect and real estate office at 1638 Gaynns Falls Pkwy., and whether to allow three families at 208 E. 20th St.

SS trust fund

The balance on hand in the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund from which social security benefits are paid still stands close to the 1957 record level of 23 billion dollars according to William M. Dondin, district manager of the downtown Baltimore social security office.

Mr. Dondin said that actuarial studies show that the Trust Fund will continue to grow well beyond the year 2000.

Retired teacher and Mother of Emmanuel Church, buried

Mrs. Janie Thomas Grayson, 86, 823 W. Saratoga St., retired Baltimore County school teacher and widow of Ernest Grayson died Saturday at home.

She had been ill ten days.

Funeral services were held yesterday (Thursday) from Emmanuel Christian Community Church, where she had attended for many years. Mrs. Grayson was a former member of Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church.

The Rev. Sidney Daniels, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the family plot at Mt. Auburn.

* * *

COMING TO Baltimore at the age of eight from Calvert County, Md., Mrs. Grayson taught for over 20 years in the county schools.

She was a member of the stewardess Board No. 1, the Gold Leaf Circle and the Janie Grayson Bible Class at Emmanuel Church, named in her honor in 1938.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Grayson was the mother of Emmanuel Church. She had held that title for many years.

* * *

HER DAUGHTER, Mrs. Marie Rawlings recalling her early school days, stated that she went to school with the late Nannie Groves, Miss Fannie Barbour and George Biddle.

They were all graduated from the old school that was located at the present site where Central Police Station stands today.

On February 14 of this year, Mrs. Grayson celebrated her 86th birthday with her daughter.

A native of Calvert County, she was the daughter of the late John and Drucilla Hutchins.

She was the oldest member of the United Order of the Nazarites.

IN ADDITION to her daughter, Mrs. Rawlings, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Martha Jefferson, 83, of Calvert County and a brother, Summer Hutchins, 85, of Calvert County; two sons-in-law, Isaac Bannister, veteran Washington AFRO employee and William Rawlings of Baltimore.

Also thirteen grandchildren, eighteen great - grandchildren and fourteen great-great-grandchildren.

Captain M. C. Harris to be buried Monday

Funeral services for Capt. Merton C. Harris, killed March 21 in a plane crash near Seoul, Korea, are scheduled to be held 10:30 a.m. Monday at the Sharp St. Memorial Methodist Church.

The 31-year-old native of Baltimore went to Seoul Jan. 20 for a 90 - day training program to prepare for his promotion to the rank of major.

Before his trip to there he was stationed in Tokyo for more than 18 months.

A graduate of Carver Vocational Technical High School, the captain attended Hampton Institute as a student of electrical engineering.

He taught for a year before he entered the Army in 1948.

* * *

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENT

Burial will be at the Arlington National Cemetery with full military rights.

Capt. Harris was married to the former Valena Wyn, of Raleigh, N.C., who survives him.

In addition, he is survived by his daughter, Cynthia, 4, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harris Jr.;

Also two brothers, Daniel Harris, 3rd of Baltimore and Harris; one grandfather, Walter Prout; two nephews, one Lowell Harris of Washington, D.C.; one sister, Miss Jean Holland, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holland. The show was under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Ireland, Sunday School superintendent, and Mrs. Alice Anita Harris;

Two grandmothers, Mrs. Estella Prout and Mrs. Mary Darnell;

ORDINATION by the Presbytery of Baltimore has been set for Sunday at 8 p.m. in the sanctuary of Knox Presbyterian Church, Broadway and Gay Sts., for the Rev. Herman Octavius Graham Jr., son of the pastor. The junior Rev. Mr. Graham is an interne minister assigned to Dodge House, Detroit, Mich.

TINY TOTS ON PARADE—Appearing in an "Easter Parade of Tiny Tots" at Asbury Methodist Church, Annapolis, are Pamela Branford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Branford, and Wendell and Bryan Holland, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holland. The show was under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Ireland, Sunday School superintendent, and Mrs. Alice Darnell;
